Making Work Making Trouble Prostitution As A Social Problem:

Making Work, Making Trouble Deborah Rose Brock, 1998-01-01 Anti prostitution campaigns and attempts to regulate the sex trade in Canada have been made over the past few decades to no avail Sociologist Deborah Brock argues that the public views prostitution as a social issue whereas the prostitutes consider it employment Brock's critical survey should become a standard source in Canadian criminology Making Work, Making Trouble Deborah Brock, 2009-09-26 Thoroughly updated to include events that have occurred in the decade since it was originally published this second edition of Making Work Making Trouble re-establishes this work as the pre-eminent study of prostitution in Canada Detailing the various forces that have presented prostitution as a social problem Deborah R Brock examines anti prostitution campaigns urban development new policing strategies and the responses of the media the courts and governments as well as feminist rights and residents organizations Paying particular attention to rights and the means of economic survival within global and local realities this edition includes new material on recent discourse on sex trafficking migrant sex work ex worker rights organizing and considers the potential impact of the Robert Pickton trial on the practice of sex work A comprehensive overview of the crucial debates on prostitution Making Work Making Trouble is a welcome addition to twenty first century sociology and criminology

Contemporary Research on Sex Work Jeffrey T. Parsons, 2014-06-03 Gain important insight and a broader perspective on where why and how sex workers conduct their business For years the focus of sex work research has been on street based male and female sex workers and the HIV related risks they pose to their clients Contemporary Research on Sex Work moves beyond the basic association between sex work and unprotected sex to a fuller description of the varied facets of the industry while still pursuing a better understanding of HIV risk among those working the streets The diverse approaches in this unique book include targeted sampling qualitative and quantitative interviews ethnographic interviews with key informants using sex workers as recruiters and quasi experimental intervention designs Contemporary Research on Sex Work dispels the notion that all sex workers are prostitutes working the streets highlighting instead various aspects of sex work in terms of gender venue and context Social scientists from a variety of disciplines present research collected from across the United States Cambodia the Philippines Argentina and Canada that reflects the efforts to explore interventions and programs designed to improve the social and physical lives of male female and transgender sex workers and their clients The book examines how different circumstances determine different issues of power control health social functioning mental health and HIV STI risk each sex worker faces Contemporary Research on Sex Work examines condom use by transgender female sex workers the association between mental health issues and unprotected sex the influence of structural intervention in reducing biologically sexually transmitted infections STIs the hidden population of women who solicit clients in private locations off the street stigma resistance among male sex workers in Canada the relationship between childhood sexual abuse and subsequent involvement in sex work health services among male sex workers in Argentina how the intersection between race ethnicity affects female sex workers in Los Angeles how sex workers deal with the negativity that surrounds their profession job related risk and safety for sex workers in Canada legal concerns and policy issues and much more Contemporary Research on Sex Work is your guide to the next generation of sex work research highlighting the need to understand sex work as work The book is an essential resource for researchers in the fields of sex research sex work and HIV AIDS prevention and for clinicians who work with those involved in the industry

Regulating Girls and Women Joan Sangster, 2001-01-01 Analyzing key examples of the sexual and familial regulation through the law of girls and women in twentieth century Canada this work explores the ways in which class race and gender shape the definition and punishment of criminality It also examines the changing social and legal definitions of normal versus criminal sexual and family relationships using case studies of incest childhood sexual abuse wife assault prostitution girls in conflict with the law and Native women and the law

Handbook of Social Problems George Ritzer, 2004 Ritzer's Handbook of Social Problems offers a comprehensive treatment of today's major societal issues The articles are authored by some of the top scholars in the field and address problem areas that will capture the interests of students and professors alike The international coverage is most welcome in this time of intensifying global inequalities Nancy Jurik Arizona State University The Handbook of Social Problems A Comparative International Perspective provides a unique broadly comparative perspective on the current state of social problems and deviance in a variety of societies around the world Editor George Ritzer along with leading U S and international sociologists examines the relationship between social problems and a society's level of development and affluence The essays in this volume focus on four interrelated issues involved in the relationship between social problems and the level of development and affluence Less developed and less affluent societies are more likely to experience a range of social problems than developed and affluent societies Affluence causes or at least brings with it a series of social problems that do not exist in less affluent societies It is only with affluence that certain things can come to be imagined as social problems such as excessive consumption The very affluence of a society makes it vulnerable to problems that would not be social problems in poorer societies The Handbook explores the theory of the weakness of the strong in other words strong or wealthy nations may have greater vulnerability to some social problems than less developed or affluent societies This theory is clearly illustrated in this volume by the aftermath of September 11 2001 depicting the vulnerability of the U S to social problems in far removed corners of the world In addition the international and comparative essays in this volume cover other important issues such as the impact of modern technologies on social problems ecological problems global inequality health as a social problem and much more The Handbook of Social Problems is a vital resource for sociologists and graduate students as well as an excellent addition to any academic library

Listening to Olivia Jody Raphael, 2015-11-01 For nineteen years Olivia lived the shadowy life of stripper streetwalker and heroin addict on the fringes of society Leaving a troubled home at age sixteen to land a seemingly glamorous job at a Chicago stripclub she became trapped in a web of prostitution and drug addiction that eventually forced her onto the streets and into a world of hardship at the hands of abusive men But Olivia a resourceful vibrant woman of color ultimately escaped the prostitution lifestyle and is now director of addiction services at a community counseling program working to support drug dependent women Listening to Olivia is the compelling account of her descent into poverty and abuse together with her hard fought recovery By assimilating new research on the women and girls in prostitution in addition to their male customers Jody Raphael discovers that experiences like Olivia s are alarmingly common and argues that the sex trade as an institution promotes violence against women Smashing both the common stereotype of the depraved streetwalker and abstract feminist arguments legitimizing prostitution as the sexual liberation of women the author uncovers an emerging multimillion dollar global trafficking industry that detains women in a violent cycle of exploitation and dependence Olivia s own insights on her turbulent childhood stripping in clubs soliciting on the street drug addiction brutal pimps her three pregnancies and her extraordinary transformation highlight important new questions who are the men who buy sex from such poor strung out women and why are so many of these men so violent Olivia s story gives a human face to the overwhelmingly low income non white and unempowered young women in prostitution today Combined with a wealth of new findings this gripping and accessible study challenges the academy the legal system and society as a whole to wake up and listen to the women like Olivia Sex and the contract Vincenzo Zeno-Zencovich,2015-10-01 DOI 10 13134 978 88 97524 45 8 Sex Industry Slavery Robert Christmas,2020-11-03 Sexual exploitation and human sex trafficking is a multi billion dollar international industry that preys on youth Written by veteran police officer Robert Christmas Sex Industry Slavery is an impactful read for anyone who wants to know more about this serious Canadian problem Many young women are coerced into oppressive relationships in the sex industry often starting in childhood There are numerous barriers and challenges for children who are vulnerable to exploitation as well as for survivors striving to leave the sex industry however there are also many opportunities to help them Based on Christmas s award winning research in Manitoba this book includes gut wrenching stories from survivors social workers police officers lawmakers and activists Representing decades of collective knowledge Sex Industry Slavery presents first hand perspectives on the problem and proposes practical solutions From the Classroom to the Corner Cynthia Cole Robinson,2007 From the Classroom to the Corner explores the in school and out of school experiences of three young women who dropped out of school as adolescents and turned to prostitution This fascinating book presents them as case studies in the context of dropping out in school and non school curriculum adolescent prostitution feminist theory and race class and gender Most prostitutes state that they are on the streets because they lack the educational credentials and job training required for gainful employment therefore the educational experiences of these young women are tantamount to any attempt to retain girls on the fringes This book gives insight into how the educational system and classroom experience fail to meet the needs of these marginalized young women and offers curricular designs to address the educational needs of

dropouts and potential dropouts The effects of the non school curriculum on these girls academic experience are also explored Postfeminist Education? Jessica Ringrose,2013 Using feminist post structuralist and Foucauldian frameworks this book explores and critiques how educational discourses have directly contributed to post feminist notions about female power and success New Intimacies, Old Desires Oishik Sircar,Dipika Jain,2017-06-21 In the last 15 years queer movements in many parts of the world have helped secure the rights of queer people These moments have been accompanied by the brutal rise of crony capitalism the violent consequences of the war on terror the hyper juridification of politics the financialization managerialization of social movements and the medicalization of non heteronormative identities practices How do we critically read the celebratory global proliferation of queer rights in these neoliberal times This volume responds to the complicated moment in the history of queer struggles by analysing laws state policies and cultures of activism to show how new intimacies between queer sexuality and neoliberalism that celebrate modernity and the birth of the liberated sexual citizen are in fact reproducing the old colonial desire of civilizing the native By paying particular attention to the problematics of race religion and class this volume engages in a rigorous self reflexive critique of global queer politics and its engagements confrontations and negotiations with modernity and its investments in liberalism legalism and militarism with the objective of queering the ethics of our queer politics Published by Zubaan Street Sex Work and Canadian Cities Shawna Ferris,2015-03-02 Our voices scrubbed out and forgotten There are those who research and write about sex workers who often forget we are human Amy Lebovitch Shawna Ferris gives a voice to sex workers who are often pushed to the background even by those who fight for them In the name of urban safety and orderliness street sex workers face stigma racism and ignorance Their human rights are ignored and some even lose their lives Ferris aims to reveal the cultural dimensions of this discrimination through literary and art critical theory legal and sociological research and activist intervention Canadian cities are striving for high safety ratings by eliminating crime which includes cleaning urban areas of the street sex industry Ironically sex workers also want to live and work in a safe environment Ferris questions these sanitizing political agendas reviews exclusionary legislative and police initiatives and examines media representations of sex workers This book has much to offer to educators and activists sex workers and anti violence organizations and academics studying women cultural gender or indigenous issues Foreword by Amy Lebovitch Marginality and Condemnation, 3rd Edition Carolyn Brooks,Bernard Schissel,2021-12-13T00:00:00Z Includes test bank and PowerPoint slides for professors who have adopted the text in their course Contact examrequest fernpub ca for more information This well received criminology textbook now in its third edition argues that crime must be understood as both a social and a political phenomenon Using this lens Marginality and Condemnation contends that what is defined as criminal how we respond to crime and why individuals behave in anti social ways are often the result of individual and systemic social inequalities and disparities in power Beginning with an overview of criminological discourse mainstream approaches and new directions in criminological theory

the book is then divided into sections based on key social inequalities of class gender race and age each of which begins with an outline of the general issues for understanding crime and an introduction that guides readers through the empirical chapters that follow The studies provide insights into general issues in criminology ranging from the historical and current nature of crime and criminal justice to the various responses to criminality Readers are encouraged and challenged to understand crime and justice through concrete analyses rather than abstract argumentation In addition to a new introductory chapter that confronts how we define crime measure crime and understand and use criminology in this millennium the third edition provides new chapters examining crime in relation to the environment terrorism masculinity children and youth and Aboriginal gangs and the legacy of colonialism

Wages for Housework Louise Toupin, 2018-09-20 Revolutionary feminism is resurging across the world But what were its origins In the early 1970s the International Feminist Collective began to organise around the call for recognition of the different forms of labour performed by women They paved the way for the influential and controversial feminist campaign Wages for Housework which made great strides towards driving debates in social reproduction and the gendered aspects of labour Drawing on extensive archival research Louise Toupin looks at the history of this movement between 1972 and 1977 featuring unpublished conversations with some of its founders including Silvia Federici and Mariarosa Dalla Costa as well as activists from Italy Germany Switzerland the United States and Canada Encompassing rich theoretical traditions including autonomism anti colonialism and feminism whilst challenging both classical Marxism and the mainstream women s movement the book highlights the power and originality of the campaign Among their many innovations these pathbreaking activists approached gender sexuality race and class together in a way that anticipated intersectionality and had a radical new understanding of sex work

The Heart of Toronto Daniel Ross, 2022-04-01 From the 1950s to the 1970s downtown North America was reconfigured for the suburban age Municipal officials planned renewal schemes merchant groups lobbied for street improvements developers built bigger and taller Everywhere attention turned to the problems and possibilities at the commercial and civic heart of cities The Heart of Toronto follows one such example of reinvention downtown Yonge Street Efforts to keep pace with or even lead urban change included the street s conversion into a car free public space a clean up campaign targeting the sex industry and the construction of North America s largest urban shopping mall These revitalization projects were all connected to wider trends of postwar decentralization economic restructuring and cultural transformation Interweaving histories of development civic activism and corporate clout The Heart of Toronto widens our understanding of the actors and power dynamics involved in remaking downtown in Canada s largest city a process that is far from over

Selling Sex Emily van der Meulen, Elya M. Durisin, Victoria Love, 2013-03-15 Despite being dubbed the world s oldest profession prostitution has rarely been viewed as a legitimate form of labour Instead it is often criminalized sensationalized and polemicized across the socio political spectrum by everyone from politicians to journalists to women s groups In Selling Sex Emily van der Meulen Elya M Durisin and

Victoria Love present a more nuanced balanced and realistic view of the sex industry They bring together a vast collection of voices including researchers feminists academics and advocates as well as sex workers of differing ages genders and sectors to engage in a dialogue that challenges the dominant narratives surrounding the sex industry and advances the idea that sex work is in fact work Presenting a variety of opinions and perspectives on such diverse topics as social stigma police violence labour organizing anti prostitution feminism human trafficking and harm reduction Selling Sex is an eye opening challenging and necessary book

Urban Girls Bonnie J. Leadbeater, Niobe Way, 1996-06 Contributors present a portrait of low income urban American adolescent girls based on fact rather than stereotype aiming to fill the gap in research about adolescent girls They explore girls attitudes and alternatives in areas such as identity family and peer relationships sexuality health and career development often allowing the girls to speak for themselves For undergraduate and graduate students in psychology sociology economics and women s studies as well as policymakers Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Urban Girls Revisited Bonnie J. Leadbeater, Niobe Way, 2007-02-12 Urban girls are marginalised by poverty ethnic discrimination and stereotypes suggesting that they have deficits compared to their peers This book explores the diversity of urban adolescent girls development and the sources of support and resilience that help them to build the foundations of strength that they need as they enter adulthood

East Asian Sexualities Stevi Jackson, Jieyu Liu, Juhyun Woo, 2013-07-18 This book paints a vivid picture of women s active involvement in reshaping intimate and public sexual life in East Asia In bringing together exciting new feminist research on sexuality from East Asia and making it available to a wider audience East Asian Sexualities unsettles stereotypes rectifies lack of awareness and demonstrates that East Asia matters The chapters address the diversity and variety of everyday sexual lives and sexual politics in China Hong Kong Taiwan Korea and Japan They range from workplace sexual cultures trans national sexual relations the conditions of sex work and the emergence of new sexual desires cultures and movements The contributors highlight the gendered and sexual consequences of globalization and rapid social change In doing so they engage with western debates on late modernity while also exploring the contested understandings of modernization and westernization in the East This is a collection which illuminates the local situations in which women s sexual lives are lived and offers fresh perspectives on global issues

Sex Workers in the Maritimes Talk Back Leslie Ann Jeffrey, Gayle MacDonald, 2011-11-01 Sex workers are often the objects of study for academics and policy makers Theories about their lives and the policies that affect their work are usually developed without input from the sex workers themselves as they are rarely seen as capable of analyzing the social and political world in which they work In this book however sex workers set the tone Leslie Ann Jeffrey and Gayle MacDonald interview sex workers in three Maritime cities and those who work around them police health care providers community workers advocates members of neighbourhood associations and politicians The sex workers discuss such issues as violence and safety health and risk politics and policy media influence and public perception of the trade portraying the best and the worst facets of their working lives and expressing sentiments refreshingly at odds with commonly held opinions Given recent Parliamentary recommendations to decriminalize prostitution Sex Workers in the Maritimes Talk Back represents a timely shift to public discussions about sex work Engaging and accessible this book will be of interest to public policy practitioners students of social and political science community advocates police and sex workers and their families
