Queering Acts of Mourning in the Aftermath of Argentina's Dictatorship Cecilia Sosa,2014 The aftermath of Argentina's last dictatorship 1976 1983 has traditionally been associated with narratives of suffering which recall the loss of the 30 000 civilians infamously known as the disappeared When democracy was recovered the unspoken rule was that only those related by blood to the missing were entitled to ask for justice This book both queries and queers this bloodline normativity Drawing on queer theory and performance studies it develops an alternative framework for understanding the affective transmission of trauma beyond traditional family settings To do so it introduces an archive of non normative acts of mourning that runs across different generations Through the analysis of a broad spectrum of performances including interviews memoirs cooking sessions films jokes theatrical productions and literature the book shows how the experience of loss has not only produced a well known imaginary of suffering but also new forms of collective pleasure
