Morgan, 2018-11-21 G Campbell Morgan offers commentary upon the Book of Malachi detailing its wisdom spiritual advice and relevance to the modern Christian Closely examining the text Morgan explains the key elements of Malachi's prophecy mentioning his belief early in his narrative that the value of Malachi's words are greater in the modern day than ever before Justifying this claim Morgan examines the time in which Malachi made his predictions and demonstrates how these have been shown as correct in later literature and echoed in other prophecies

Traversing the scriptures with his signature fluency Morgan conducts a verse by verse analysis of Malachi Cross referencing these with other passages of the Bible in both the Old and New Testaments the author passionately makes the case that Malachi is an underappreciated prophet whose words resonate throughout scripture and time With deft attention to the core pillar of Malachi s prophecy we witness how the gospels despite appearing some four centuries after the Book of Malachi reflect the words of the prophet Yet even more than this we witness how the progress of mankind the spreading of God s word to all parts of the Earth with missions and the qualities of the Christian believer are all predicted and predicated by Malachi s prophecy
