Gabon, São Tomé and Príncipe Sophie Warne,2003 This new guide to Gabon is another first for Bradt presenting the ideal destination for the naturalist Decolonizing Western-Indigenous Dialogues Karsten Kiewitt,Ronald Lutz,Gregory Cajete,Maria do Carmo dos Santos Gonçalves,Ditlhake Kefilwe Johanna,2025-09-04 This groundbreaking book offers a unique collection of Indigenous and non Indigenous approaches to decolonizing international development The world is facing enormous challenges from ever growing global inequality to climate change to the continuing fallout from the Covid pandemic It is becoming increasingly clear that the origin of these challenges lies in the economic models and imperial lifestyles perpetuated by the Global North In order to find new answers to the world's biggest challenges then it is necessary for the Global North to acknowledge Indigenous knowledge systems as unique and legitimate epistemologies and to engage in dialogues with them This collection brings together contributions from Indigenous and non Indigenous authors to promote that dialogue It provides a unique rare forum for discourse between the expressive potentials of differing world views and ultimately for developing cooperation in the terms of Eisenstein's notion of interbeing which counteracts the History of Separation between nature and culture and between Global South and Global North What emerges is a path forward towards a new interwoven modernity characterized by an embrace of separate but mutually constitutive ways of knowing For its wide topical and geographic breadth and for its bringing together of Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars around the world this book is a must read for researchers and students interested in indigenous studies and decolonial approaches to international development
