Malays Their Problems And Future:

The Malays Syed Husin Ali, 2008 The Malays as an ethnic group has been defined on the basis of both legal constitutional and historical cultural factors While it is difficult to speculate or visualise correctly the future of any country or people it is possible to provide a general outline of the trends of the past and present and probably attempt to at least indicate what should be avoided and promoted to ensure a better future This is what Dr Syed Husin Ali attempts in this book In nine chapters he discusses the Malays and their origin history religion economy politics and development up to the present day He connects all of these to the various changes in the forms of modernisation and development programmes which affected and continue to impact upon the Malays Three decades have passed since the book was first published During that time many changes have taken place in the country But the basic problems facing the Malays contends the writer have remained the same The current controversies on the declining power of the Malays as perceived by some affirm these problems and make the book more relevant

The Malays Syed Husin Ali, 2008 The Malays, Their Problems and Future Husin Ali (S.), 2008 Moving Forward: Malays for the 21st Century Nik Nazmi Nik Ahmad, 2019-05-15 A new edition of Moving Forward which was first published a decade ago in which Nik Nazmi Nik Ahmad had presented a discourse on Malays in Malaysia and argued that the Malays had to move forward to survive and succeed in facing the new challenges of the 21st century At the time Nik Nazmi was and still is pushing for a more progressive paradigm where Malaysians are at ease with its diversity The message of Moving Forward then and now remains the Malays need to embrace democracy progressive politics and diversity This is the right thing to do as well as the only way to ensure the survival of the race religion and country In light of the recent political developments in Malaysia Moving Forward is just as relevant today as it was in 2009 The text is largely the same as it was when first published This new edition includes a new Introduction and a new Postscript to reflect on the book in light of the progress that Malaysians have achieved and the new challenges that they face today

The Elevation of Higher Learning Zaini Ujang, 2009 Malaysia's Leap Into the Future Rajah Rasiah, Kamal Salih, Cheong Kee Cheok, 2022-03-21 This book presents the future development of Malaysia It puts together building blocks to achieve a better future These blocks are poverty and income inequality population demography and urbanization growth and technological progress education human capital and skills finance labor the environment and health care It examines the reasons for the decline in the agricultural sector with an emphasis on food security It discusses Malaysia's economic growth and structural change compared to some of the Northeast East Asian and Southeast Asian countries It explains the projections of population and demographic change and its bearing on government policies It evaluates the country's education sector and discusses the strategies to improve its role in the country further It argues for replacing ethnic based approaches with a needs based system for the future direction to build a plural Malaysia This insightful book is of interest across several fields including demography economic development and urbanization The Malay Dilemma Revisited

Mohammad Bakri Musa, 1999 The Malay Dilemma Revisited is a critical and balanced analysis of Malaysia's preferential race policy and its impact on the nation's delicate race dynamics and economy. Unlike America's affirmative action, Malaysia's version is far more aggressive and pervasive and has been remarkably successful in creating a sizable and stable Bumiputera indigenous group middle class. The price tag is significant distortion of freemarket dynamics and consequent inefficiency. Perversely the policy impairs rather than strengthens Bumiputras ability to compete. In contrast to quotas and other set aside programs that are the hallmark of the current policy the writer presents an alternative strategy aimed primarily at enhancing Bumiputera competitiveness. The proposed approach would not negatively impact the economy nor interfere with the freemarket. Equally important it would not arouse resentment from other Malaysians. The first objective would be to modernize the nation's archaic educational system to emphasize English mathematics the sciences and technical training. Secondly the influences of religious and royal institutions must be curtailed and the rates of urbanization and population growth reduced. The primary objective is in enhancing competitiveness not on meeting arbitrarily picked numerical goals and targets.

Ethnic Relations in Malaysia Syed Husin Ali, 2015-01-01 With Malaysia in the throes of sweeping political change academic turned political activist Dr Syed Husin Ali traces how ethnicity has been manipulated since Independence by Malaysian politicians for their own gain to the detriment of the masses. In articles spanning more than three decades collected for the first time here he dissects the origins fallacies and destructive nature of ethnic politics in Malaysia and examines the issue of class versus ethnicity or race. It is time he argues for an end to race or ethnic based politics. In this new edition the author has updated the book in terms of facts and events and included two more articles.

The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen, 1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts. Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia. Part II provides the setting of space and time. Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change. Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order.

Growing up Female in Multi-Ethnic Malaysia Cynthia Joseph, 2014-08-21 This book provides a rich detailed analysis of the experiences of young women growing up in post colonial rapidly modernizing Malaysia. It considers the impact of ethnicity socio economic status and school experiences and achievement. It discusses the effects of Malaysia's ethnic affirmative action programmes and of the country's Islamisation. It sets out and compares the life trajectories of Malay Indian and Chinese young women making use of interview and questionnaire data gathered over a long period. It thereby depicts individuals transformations as they experience maturing into adulthood against a background of social and economic changes and varying levels of inter racial tension.

Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Malaya Donna J. Amoroso, 2014-05-26 In this original and perceptive study Donna J Amoroso argues that the Malay elites preeminent position after the Second World War had much to do with how British colonialism reshaped old idioms and rituals _ helping to re invent a tradition In doing so she illuminates the ways that traditionalism reordered the Malay political world the nature of the state and the political economy of leadership In the postwar era traditionalism began to play a new role it became a weapon which the Malay aristocracy employed to resist British plans for a Malayan Union and to neutralise the challenge coming groups representing a more radical democratic perspective and even hijacking their themes Leading this conservative struggle was Dato Onn bin Jaafar who not only successfully helped shape Malay opposition to the Malayan Union but was also instrumental in the creation of the United Malays National Organisation UMNO that eventually came to personify an acceptable Malay nationalism

Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Colonial Malaya is an important contribution to the history of colonial Malaya and more generally to the history of ideas in late colonial societies

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia's plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

Managing Marital Disputes in Malaysia Sven Cederroth Cederroth, Sharifa Zaleha Syed Hassan, 2012-12-06 A trend found in many Islamic societies in recent years has been the increasing regulation of family life by Islamic law and a corresponding move away from customary law and informal conflict resolution procedures The situation in Malaysia particularly in urban Malay society is no exception here Several studies already exist of the nature and extent of Malaysia's Islamic judicial system but the general tendency has been to ignore the actual operation of the syariah courts and related institutions This study addresses this need with an in depth analysis of the key area of intra family conflict and demonstrates that although formally the counsellor kadi and judge have defined roles for conflict resolution in practice much flexibility is evident in the use of consultation conciliation mediation arbitration and adjudication techniques This study will be of special interest to legal anthropologists and those scholars interested in the increasing application of Islamic law in many different countries

Islamization and Activism in Malaysia Julian C. H. Lee, 2010 Islamization and Activism in Malaysia examines aspects of the increasing political and social profile of Islam in Malaysia and describes how different kinds of activists in

Malaysia have sought to protect fundamental liberties and to improve the state of democracy in Malaysia In particular focus is paid to activists who engage with electoral process the law and the public sphere and in particular to movements that cut across or combine these realms of action Spanning the period of the Prime Ministership of Abdullah Badawi Julian C H Lee's grounded analysis examines the most important issues of that period including the freedom of religion case of Lina Joy the Islamic state debate and events surrounding the 8 March 2008 general elections

War Memory and the Making of Modern Malaysia and Singapore Karl Hack, Kevin Blackburn, 2012-01-01 Singapore fell to Japan on 15 February 1942 Within days the Japanese had massacred thousands of Chinese civilians and taken prisoner more than 100 000 British Australian and Indian soldiers A resistance movement formed in Malaya's jungle covered mountains but the vast majority could do little other than resign themselves to life under Japanese rule The Occupation would last three and a half years until the return of the British in September 1945 How is this period remembered And how have individuals communities and states shaped and reshaped memories in the postwar era The book response to these questions presenting answers that use the words of Chinese Malays Indians Eurasians British and Australians who personally experienced the war years The authors guide readers through many forms of memory from the soaring pillars of Singapore's Civilian War Memorial to traditional Chinese cemeteries in Malaysia and from families left bereft by Japanese massacres to the young women who flocked to the Japanese sponsored Indian National Army dreaming of a march on Delhi This volume provides a forum for previously marginalized and self censored voices using the stories they relate to reflect on the nature of conflict and memory They also offer a deeper understanding of the searing transit from wartime occupation to post war decolonization and the moulding of postcolonial states and identities
