Mama Dot:

Mama Dot Fred D'aguiar, 2013-08-31 Every once in a while a new poet appears who makes us feel that the contours of contemporary poetry have been significantly changed Fred D'aguiar is such a poet Although still in his early twenties he already has a wholly independent voice and a powerful grasp of original and strange subjects Many of these arise from his childhood in Guyana the first section of Mama Dot comprises a series in which these early years are recalled with a passionately lyrical evocation of landscapes incidents and family relations They are sensuous celebrations but are nevertheless touched with melancholy and nostalgia qualities which are more fully evident elsewhere in the book in poems which address the life D'Aguiar now leads in England and which concentrate on themes of exile In the final section Guyanese Days he returns once again to the scenes and memories of his childhood Mama Dot is one of the most exciting first collections to have been published for many years exhilarating haunting and restlessly inventive Dot's Corner Doris Howard Surles, 2009-12-22 Why do I write I write because it brings me great joy and God gives me the ability to pen words to paper In the midst of my pain I write In sorrow I write In the midst of my totally devastating journey through illness I write Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I write For all the days I wanted to sing and was not allowed to I write When I look in to the pain in my daughters eyes I then write Through long suffering I write In the midst of my lifes storms I write In the good times I write and happy times I write From a child when I needed to get away I write I write because it makes me happy Why do I write My heart sings out the words from my mind In this my lifes writings there will be expressions of love thoughts hope dreams and emotions So as you look into the corner you will find Pieces of my heart pen to paper From the corners of my mind I write Mama's Prayers Dennis Phillips, 2006-04 A faithful mother Thelma Jackson prays regularly for her grown son William though unaware of difficulties he is facing William then experiences tangible and divine answers to his mother's prayers You Are My World Rheta Dewberry Norman, 2022-05-26 Mary a 60 year old widow and the mother of three grown children has made an oath to remain celibate until she marries again So far it has been easy to keep her vow A sudden snow storm brings Michael a 62 year old multimillionaire to her home almost frost bitten Because of their unwavering faith in God they knew they were fated to be together for life Although the vow was a constant reminder while they waited for their wedding day as the time grew nearer something was wrong Michael has a premonition that something is going to happen that will not be good and this adds to the impending doom they feel Will they reach the joy they seek in an everlasting life together The 19 Cent Millionaire Marian Wardlaw, 2011-06-01 I gain strength courage and confidence by every experience in which I must stop and look fear in the face I say to myself I've lived through this and I can take the next thing that comes along Eleanor Roosevelt The trials challenges and lessons of life seem to do one of two things they either make us or break us In addition the way we think on a daily basis plays a major role in how we face the challenges of life and ultimately grow from each of the individual obstacles that come our way In dealing with setbacks it is then that our will determination and true character are tested at every level Many questions prevail in such turbulent times Do we wallow in self pity or Do we keep pressing on knowing and believing that better days are to come Do we give up on our faith and simply throw in the towel or Do we continue to believe that God is working in our lives even when we cant see HIM working The 19 Cent Millionaire is a story of how an ordinary woman with the help of family friends and even complete strangers has dealt with and triumphed over difficult circumstances and reveals what she has learned in the process This book is a story of hope for all who have ever felt lost and alone abused and forgotten or thought themselves to be too far gone for a positive change It is a story of how one woman has learned grown and is still growing into the woman she has always wanted to be and the mission she has to help others reach their full potential and obtain Gods ultimate best

Doodlebug Days Nancy Lockard Gallop, Dorothy Lockard Bristol, 2000 Our 1935 black Oldsmobile and heavily loaded trailer drew hostile looks as we drove into Bakersfield and stopped at a shady park to check the tires When Mother Daddy we two girls and our young brother Skippy got out two work hardened men in ranch straw hats and short sleeved cotton shirts stood staring suspiciously at our California license plates Had those plates on long the shorter man challenged Daddy Guess you d say so Daddy answered pleasantly Mother s hands were settling on her hips a sure sign her indignation would be expressed verbally at the first sign of an insult from the men The taller man took a step toward Daddy Hope you re not looking for farm work in Bakersfield cause there isn t any Deliberately the man spat on the curb Every damn fool in Texas Missouri Arkansas and Oklahoma is either here or on Route 66 trying to get here in some beat up jalopy Not enough cotton or potatoes in all of Kern County to keep half of them busy No Daddy said evenly Not looking for work Just looking to head out of here in a few minutes While Daddy circled our car and trailer Mother glared at the men snapped open her white envelope purse and drew out a bottle of Coty s Emeraude dabbing a drop behind each ear It s so much hotter here than in Lynwood she said loftily I don t know how people can stand it Turning her back on the Bakersfield men she added Come on children let s get back in the car And don t step in that filth on the sidewalk As Daddy pulled away from the curb Mother fanned herself with her purse Imagine Bruce you a civil engineer looking for farm work I d like to have given those Bakersfield men a piece of my mind and I would have too if your work weren t so secret They treated us as if we were Dust Bowl migrants In California in 1935 twenty percent of the country s labor force was unemployed and hobos regularly knocked on back doors for handouts To survive in the Great Depression our father had taken a job with an oil exploration party in the San Joaquin Valley Our family packed up and left southern California to join him Between 1900 and 1936 California led the nation in petroleum production Oil companies certain that great reserves of oil still lay hidden sent exploration crews called doodlebug parties throughout California to find new fields The intense competition among oil companies mandated secrecy concerning doodlebug party movements By setting explosives off in a series of holes doodlebuggers would measure the echoes and make a seismic record that might indicate the presence of oil Our new life was scary because we girls Nancy age 10 and Sunny 12 had been allowed to make the decision whether to follow our father or remain in comfortably familiar Lynwood just south of Los Angeles Still we knew that our father felt fortunate to be holding a job even one that worked a hardship on his wife and children We left our home in Southern California and headed north over the Ridge Route towing our possessions behind our car in a small canvas covered trailer Even though the security of our family unit buffered us against hardships we girls were apprehensive Still we were excited about the new life that was unfolding DOODLEBUG DAYS takes place in a California with a population of only six million The Valley towns in which we lived were small and agricultural with tight knit established families For the employed life was less complicated than it is today Radios not televisions were prominently enshrined in each living room In the small towns up and down the Valley people pulled their kitchen chairs close to their radio to listen to President Roosevelt s fireside chats as he discussed solutions to the problems that marked the era

Other Richard Caddel, Peter Quartermain, 1999 The most significant US anthology of innovative poetries from the UK and Ireland in over 25 years When most Americans think of contemporary British poetry they think of such mainstream poets as Ted Hughes Philip Larkin and Geoffrey Hill Yet there is a vibrant diverse alternative poetry movement in the UK inspired in large measure by the work of such significant mentors as Basil Bunting and J H Prynne There is growing interest in this work in the United States as alternative American poetries express increasingly transnational concerns and yet almost none of it is available here OTHER is a highly focused anthology bringing together several important strands of English language poetry that are not otherwise so readily accessible It includes work by 55 poets among them Cris Cheek Brian Coffey Fred d Aguiar Allen Fisher Ulli Freer Randolph Healy Linton Kwesi Johnson Wendy Mulford Tom Raworth Denise Riley Catherine Walsh a critical introduction addressing such topics as the interaction of British and American poetic traditions and brief biographical and bibliographical notes on each poet
