Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard,2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years Nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyorican women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author s shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works Grieving the Death of a

Mother Harold Ivan Smith,2024-07-16 Written by a grief counselor and educator this book is for those who have loved and lost their mother Losing a mother is a difficult transition in life No matter the status of the relationship grieving the loss is a process one that sometimes begins before the physical loss has occurred Drawing on his own experience of loss as well as on the experiences of others Harold Ivan Smith guides readers through their grief from the process of dying through the acts of remembering and honoring a mother after her death This book provides a way forward By shifting the grief process from something to rush through Smith encourages readers to embrace their grief as a natural response to loss and to give themselves time to work through the sadness pain memories and reality of living without their mom All of us will experience the loss of our mother at some point A mother s last breath inevitably changes us Through wise counsel Smith speaks gently to people who have gone through this loss and helps those yet to face it This edition includes a new foreword from the author

Junot Díaz and the Decolonial Imagination Monica Hanna,Jennifer Harford Vargas,José David Saldívar,2015-12-17 The first sustained critical examination of the work of Dominican American writer Junot D az this interdisciplinary collection considers how D az s writing illuminates the world of Latino cultural expression and trans American and diasporic literary history Interested in conceptualizing D az s decolonial imagination and his radically re envisioned world the contributors show how his aesthetic and activist practice reflect a significant shift in American letters toward a hemispheric and planetary culture They examine the intersections of race Afro Latinidad gender sexuality disability poverty and power in D az s work Essays in the volume explore issues of narration language and humor in The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao the racialized constructions of gender and sexuality in Drown and This Is How You Lose Her and the role of the zombie in the short story Monstro. Collectively they situate Diaz's writing in relation to American and Latin American literary practices and reveal the author's activist investments. The volume concludes with Paula Moya's interview with Diaz. Contributors: Glenda R. Carpio, Arlene D. Vila, Lyn Di Iorio, Junot Diaz, Monica Hanna, Jennifer Harford, Vargas Ylce, Irizarry, Claudia Milian, Julie Avril Minich, Paula M. L. Moya, Sarah Quesada, Jos David Saldívar, Ramón Saldívar, Silvio Torres Saillant, Deborah R. Vargas. Mothers, Mothering and Motherhood Across Cultural Differences - A Reader Andrea O'Reilly, 2014-05-01. Mothers, Mothering and Motherhood across Cultural Differences the first ever Reader on the subject matter examines the meaning and practice of mothering/motherhood from a multitude of maternal perspectives. The Reader includes 22 chapters on the following maternal identities: Aboriginal, Adoptive, At Home, Birth, Black, Disabled, East Asian, Feminist, Immigrant, Refugee, Latina, Chicana, Poor, Low Income, Migrant, Non-Residential, Older, Queer, Rural, Single, South Asian, Stepmothers, Working Young Mothers, and Mothers of Adult Children. Each chapter provides background and context, examines the challenges and possibilities of mothering/motherhood for each group of mothers, and considers directions for future research. The first anthology to provide a comprehensive examination of mothers, mothering, motherhood across diverse cultural locations and subject positions, the book is essential reading for maternal scholars and activists and serves as an ideal course text for a wide range of courses in Motherhood Studies. Encyclopedia of Hispanic-American Literature Luz Elena Ramirez, 2015-04-22. Presents a reference on Hispanic American literature providing profiles of Hispanic American writers and their works. Reading Junot Diaz Christopher González, 2015-12-19. Dominican American author and Pulitzer Prize winner Junot Diaz has gained international fame for his blended cross-cultural fiction. Reading Junot Diaz is the first study to focus on his complete body of published works. It explores the totality of his work and provides a concise view of the interconnected and multilayered narrative that weaves throughout Diaz's writings. Christopher Gonzalez analyzes both the formal and thematic features and discusses the work in the context of speculative and global fiction as well as Caribbean and Latino/a culture and language. Topics such as race, masculinity, migration, and Afro-Latinidad are examined in depth. Gonzalez provides a synthesis of the prevailing critical studies of Diaz and offers many new insights into his work. Latino Literature Christina Soto van der Plas, Lacie Rae Buckwalter Cunningham, 2023-03-31. Winner 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award. Offers a comprehensive overview of the most important authors, movements, genres, and historical turning points in Latino literature. More than 60 million Latinos currently live in the United States. Yet contributions from writers who trace their heritage to the Caribbean, Central and South America, and Mexico have and continue to be overlooked by critics and general audiences alike. Latino Literature: An Encyclopedia for Students gathers the best from these authors and presents them to readers in an informed and accessible way. Intended to be a useful resource for students, this volume introduces the key figures and genres central to Latino literature. Entries are written by prominent and emerging scholars and are comprehensive in their coverage.

of the 19th 20th and 21st centuries Different critical approaches inform and interpret the myriad complexities of Latino literary production over the last several hundred years Finally detailed historical and cultural accounts of Latino diasporas also enrich readers understandings of the writings that have and continue to be influenced by changes in cultural geography providing readers with the information they need to appreciate a body of work that will continue to flourish in and alongside Latino communities

Argentine, Mexican, and Guatemalan Photography David William Foster, 2014-10-01 One of the important cultural responses to political and sociohistorical events in Latin America is a resurgence of urban photography which typically blends high art and social documentary But unlike other forms of cultural production in Latin America photography has received relatively little sustained critical analysis This pioneering book offers one of the first in depth investigations of the complex and extensive history of gendered perspectives in Latin American photography through studies of works from Argentina Mexico and Guatemala David William Foster examines the work of photographers ranging from the internationally acclaimed artists Graciela Iturbide Pedro Meyer and Marcos Lopez to significant photographers whose work is largely unknown to English speaking audiences He grounds his essays in four interlocking areas of research the experience of human life in urban environments the feminist matrix and gendered cultural production Jewish cultural production and the ideological principles of cultural works and the connections between the works and the sociopolitical and historical contexts in which they were created Foster reveals how gender marked photography has contributed to the discourse surrounding the project of redemocratization in Argentina and Guatemala as well as how it has illuminated human rights abuses in both countries He also traces photography's contributions to the evolution away from the masculinist dominated post 1910 Revolution ideology in Mexico This research convincingly demonstrates that Latin American photography merits the high level of respect that is routinely accorded to more canonical forms of cultural production

A to Z of American Women Writers Carol Kort, 2014-05-14 Presents a biographical dictionary profiling important women authors including birth and death dates accomplishments and bibliography of each author's work Drugs, Thugs, and Divas O. Hugo Benavides, 2009-03-16 Soap opera speaks a universal language presenting characters and plots that resonate far beyond the culture that creates them Latin American soap operas telenovelas have found enthusiastic audiences throughout the Americas and Europe as well as in Egypt Russia and China while Mexican narco dramas have become highly popular among Latinos in the United States In this first comprehensive analysis of telenovelas and narco dramas Hugo Benavides assesses the dynamic role of melodrama in creating meaningful cultural images to explain why these genres have become so successful while more elite cultural productions are declining in popularity Benavides offers close readings of the Colombian telenovelas Betty la fea along with its Mexican and U S reincarnations La fea m s bella and Ugly Betty Adri n est de visita and Pasi n de gavilanes the Brazilian historical telenovela Xica and a variety of Mexican narco drama films Situating these melodramas within concrete historical developments in Latin America he shows how telenovelas and narco dramas serve to unite peoples of various countries and provide a voice of rebellion against often oppressive governmental systems Indeed Benavides concludes that as one of the most effective and lucrative industries in Latin America telenovelas and narco dramas play a key role in the ongoing reconfiguration of social identities and popular culture The Politics of Sentiment O. Hugo Benavides, 2010-01-01

Between 1890 and 1930 the port city of Guayaquil Ecuador experienced a liberal revolution and a worker's movement key elements in shaping the Ecuadorian national identity In this book O Hugo Benavides examines these and other pivotal features in shaping Guayaquilean identity and immigrant identity formation in general in transnational communities such as those found in New York City Turn of the century Ecuador witnessed an intriguing combination of transformations the formation of a national citizenship extension of the popular vote to members of a traditional underclass of Indians and those of African descent provisions for union organizing while entering into world market capitalist relations and a separation of church and state that led to the legalization of secular divorces Assessing how these phenomena created a unique cultural history for Guayaquileans Benavides reveals not only a specific cultural history but also a process of developing ethnic attachment in general He also incorporates a study of works by Medardo Angel Silva the Afro Ecuadorian poet whose singular literature embodies the effects of Modernism's arrival in a locale steeped in contradictions of race class and sexuality Also comprising one of the first case studies of Raymond Williams's hypothesis on the relationship between structures of feeling and hegemony this is an illuminating illustration of the powerful relationships between historically informed memories and contemporary national life Transnational Matrilineage Silvia Schultersmandl, 2009

Transnational Matrilineage offers a novel approach to Asian American literature including texts by Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Mei Ng Nora Okja Keller and Vineeta Vijayaraghavan with particular attention to depictions of transnational solidarity that is the sense of community between women of different cultures or cultural affiliations between Asian born mothers and their American born daughters While focusing on the mother daughter conflicts these texts portray this book also contributes to ongoing debates in transnational feminism by scrutinizing the representation of Asia in Asian American literature
