Man and Society in an Age of Reconstruction Karl Mannheim, 1970 The Later Works, 1925-1953 John Dewey, 1981

John Dewey's Experience and Nature has been considered the fullest expression of his mature philosophy since its eagerly awaited publication in 1925 Irwin Edman wrote at that time that with monumental care detail and completeness Professor Dewey has in this volume revealed the metaphysical heart that beats its unvarying alert tempo through all his writings whatever their explicit themes In his introduction to this volume Sidney Hook points out that Dewey's Experience and Nature is both the most suggestive and most difficult of his writings The meticulously edited text published here as the first volume in the series The Later Works of John Dewey 1925-1953 spans that entire period in Dewey's thought by including two important and previously unpublished documents from the book's history Dewey's unfinished new introduction written between 1947 and 1949 edited by the late Joseph Ratner and Dewey's unedited final draft of that introduction written the year before his death In the intervening years Dewey realized the impossibility of making his use of the word experience understood He wrote in his 1951 draft for a new introduction Were I to write or rewrite Experience and Nature today I would entitle the book Culture and Nature and the treatment of specific subject matters would be correspondingly modified I would abandon the term experience because of my growing realization that the historical obstacles which prevented understanding of my use of experience are for all practical purposes insurmountable I would substitute the term culture because with its meanings as now firmly established it can fully and freely carry my philosophy of experience Man and Society Karl Mannheim (sociologue.), 1942 Man and Society Karl Mannheim, 1944 Man and Society in an Age of Reconstruction, 1942 Man and Society in an Age of Reconstruction Karl Mannheim, 1948 Man and Society in an Age of Reconstruction Karl Mannheim, 1966 Man and Society in an Age of Reconstruction Karl Mannheim, 1946 Karl Popper - The Formative Years, 1902-1945 Malachi Haim Hachohen, 2002-03-04 This 2001 biography reassesses philosopher Karl Popper's life and works within the context of interwar Vienna Man and society in a age of reconstruction Karl Mannheim, Edward Shils, 1940 Man and Society in an Age of Reconstruction Karl Mannheim, 1966 Man and society in an age of reconstruction: studies in modern social structure:2nd ed Karl Mannheim, Ideology and Utopia Karl Mannheim, 1991 A new edition of Karl Mannheim's classic work in which the concepts of ideology and utopia are examined as opposing and dominant societal influences Man and Society Karl Mannheim, 1942 Menyenggah Belenggu Azhar
