A Centennial History of the Ecological Society of America Frank N. Egerton, 2015-05-20 Celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2015 the Ecological Society of America ESA is the largest professional society devoted to the science of ecology A Centennial History of the Ecological Society of America tells the story of ESA s humble beginnings growing from approximately 100 founding members and a modest publication of a few pages to a m Landscape Ecology Zev Naveh, Arthur S. Lieberman, 2013-03-09 This series is dedicated to serving the growing community of scholars and practitioners concerned with the principles and applications of environmental management Each volume is a thorough treatment of a specific topic of importance for proper management practices A fundamental objective of these books is to help the reader discern and implement man s stewardship of our environment and the world s renewable resources For we must strive to understand the relationship between man and nature act to bring harmony to it and nurture an environment that is both stable and productive These objectives have often eluded us because the pursuit of other individual and societal goals has diverted us from a course of living in balance with the environment At times therefore the environmental manager may have to exert restrictive control which is usually best applied to man not nature Attempts to alter or harness nature have often failed or backfired as exemplified by the results of imprudent use of herbicides fertilizers water and other agents Each book in this series will shed light on the fundamental and applied aspects of environmental management It is hoped that each will help solve a practical and serious environmental problem Botanists and Zoologists Dean Miller, 2014-01-01 In this volume a breakdown of the life and work of some of history s pioneers in the study of plants and animals are thoroughly explored It provides excellent biographical sketches for trailblazers in the sciences Articles are devoted to specific scientists covering their contributions to their field specifically addressing how their research discoveries and inventions impacted human understanding and experience This volume covers names from around the world and throughout the centuries with a chapter specifically devoted to the top scientific contributors of the 21st century The Environment of Man Richard Nathaniel T-W-Fiennes, 2012-12-06 Environment of Man is the eighth of the Croom Helm series of monographs on Biology and the Environment The first volume by this author was a straightforward review of the principles of ecology as applied to the history of the earth The second volume by J L Cloudesley Thompson applied ecological principles to terrestrial habitats and was followed by two volumes by C F Hickling and E J Ferguson Wood on the ecology of aquatic habitats The fifth volume by Robert L Snyder reviews the natural ecological safeguards which control excessive growth of population and discusses how these are operative in relation to the human race Snyder's volume introduces man to the ecological scene and leads to the monograph by L Harrison Matthews on the relationships of man with wildlife In the seventh volume Sir Cedric Stanton Hicks introduces us to the effects of agriculture on the ecology of the earth Environment Kenneth E. Hornback, W. Keith Warner, 1973 A Primer for Environmental Literacy Frank B. Golley, 1998-01-01 This text presents the key concepts of environmental science for those who are not natural scientists It offers a way to improve environmental literacy the capacity to understand the connections between humans and their environment There are reading lists for each topic covered
