Global Justice Reform Hiram E. Chodosh,2005-01-01 Global Justice Reform critiques and rethinks two neglected subjects the nature of comparison in the field of comparative law and the struggles of national judicial systems to meet global rule of law objectives Hiram Chodosh offers a candid look at the surprisingly underdeveloped methodology of comparative legal studies and provides a creative conceptual framework for defining and understanding the whys whats and hows of comparison Additionally Chodosh demonstrates how theories of comparative law translate into practice using contemporary global justice reform initiatives as a case study with a particular focus on Indonesia and India Chodosh highlights the gap between the critical role of judicial institutions and their poor performance for example political interference corruption backlog and delay discussing why reform is so elusive and demonstrating the unavoidable and essential role of comparison in reform proposals
