Cultural Complexes in Europe Jörg Rasche,Thomas Singer,2025-03-26 What is going on in Europe The actual conflicts between its nations or states can be traced back to old and revived cultural complexes In this book first compiled in 2016 Jungian analysts explore the cultural identities of their European homelands and nations This is a new approach to old questions What makes a people feel at home How do their traditions and narratives form a cultural Self and identity How do they differ from one another Exploring cultural complexes blends knowledge of history economics sociology anthropology geography psychology religious studies literature and poetry But as every complex is built around an emotional core the study of how cultural complexes live in the psyche is not limited to these disciplines Each author and reader engages in a confrontation with their emotions prejudices and projections The shape that the ideas and feelings of a cultural complex take in the psyche can be inchoate rapidly shifting and yet paradoxically long standing and often quite immune and impermeable to the reason that traditional disciplines of thought would impose on them These cultural complexes do not necessarily provide a coherent or linear sequencing of facts and events because that is not how they actually exist and function in the psyche of individuals and groups At the same time cultural complexes shape what it means to be a citizen of a particular city region or country of Europe This remarkable book is an important read for Jungian analysts and those interested in Europe s historical and cultural development

No End in Sight Anna Krakus,2018-07-10 No End in Sight offers a critical analysis of Polish cinema and literature during the transformative late Socialist period of the 1970s and 1980s Anna Krakus details how conceptions of time permanence and endings shaped major Polish artistic works She further demonstrates how film and literature played a major role in shaping political consciousness during this highly charged era Despite being controlled by an authoritarian state and the doctrine of socialism artists were able to portray the unsettled nature of the political and psychological climate of the period and an undetermined future In analyzing films by Andrzej Wajda Krzysztof Kieslowski Krzysztof Zanussi Wojciech Has and Tadeusz Konwicki alongside Konwicki's literary production Anna Krakus identifies their shared penchant to defer or completely eschew narrative closure whether in plot theme or style Krakus calls this artistic tendency aesthetic unfinalizability As she reveals aesthetic unfinalizability was far more than an occasional artistic preference or a passing trend it was a radical counterpolitical act The obsession with historical teleology saturated Polish public life during socialism to such a degree that instances of nonclosure or ambivalent endings emerged as polemical responses to official ideology
