The Hate U Give His Dark Materials The Giver quartet and Shadowshaper Adopting a multidisciplinary approach in their analysis contributors draw upon varied scholarly areas such as philosophy race class and gender studies among others Without reducing the issues to any singular theory or perspective each piece provides insight into specific treatments of space in specific periods of time thereby affording scholars a greater appreciation of the diverse spatial patterns in children's literature

The Well-Trained Mind Susan Wise Bauer, Jessie Wise, 2009-05-04 If you're a parent who has decided to educate your children yourself this book is the first you should buy Washington Times The Well Trained Mind will instruct you step by step on how to give your child an academically rigorous comprehensive education from preschool through high school one that will train him or her to read to think to understand to be well rounded and curious about learning Veteran home educators Jessie Wise and Susan Wise Bauer outline the classical pattern of education called the trivium which organizes learning around the maturing capacity of the child's mind and comprises three stages the elementary school grammar stage the middle school logic stage and the high school rhetoric stage Using this theory as your model you'll be able to instruct your child in all levels of reading writing history geography mathematics science foreign languages rhetoric logic art and music regardless of your own aptitude in those subjects This newly revised edition contains completely updated ordering information for all curricula and books new and expanded curricula recommendations new material on using computers and distance learning resources answers to common questions about home education information about educational support groups and advice on practical matters such as working with your local school board preparing a high school transcript and applying to colleges

The School Story David Aitchison, 2022-02-04 The School Story Young Adult Narratives in the Age of Neoliberalism examines the work of contemporary writers filmmakers and critics who reflecting on the realm of school experience help to shape dominant ideas of school The creations discussed are mostly stories for children and young adults David Aitchison looks at serious novels for teens including Laurie R. King's Speak and Faiza Guane's Kiffe Kiffe Tomorrow the light hearted middle grade fiction of Andrew Clements and Tommy Greenwald and Malala Yousafzai's autobiography for young readers I Am Malala He also responds to stories that take young people as their primary subjects in such novels as Sapphire's Push and films including Battle Royale and Cooties Though ranging widely in their accounts of young life such stories betray a mounting sense of crisis in education around the world especially in terms of equity the extent to which students from diverse backgrounds have fair chances of receiving quality education and empowerment the extent to which diverse students are encouraged to gain strength confidence and selfhood as learners Drawing particular attention to the influence of neoliberal initiatives on school experience this book considers what it means when learning and success are measured more and more by entrepreneurship competitive individualism and marketplace gains Attentive to the ways in which power structures institutional routines school spaces and social relations operate in the contemporary school story The School Story offers provocative insights into a genre that speaks profoundly to the increasingly precarious position of education in the twenty first century
