Resiliency in Action Nan Henderson, Bonnie Benard, Nancy Sharp-Light, 2007 How to build bounce back kids families schools and communities is the theme of Resiliency In Action Practical Ideas for Overcoming Risks and Building Strengths in Youth Families and Communities It is edited by internationally recognized resiliency expert trainer and consultant Nan Henderson M S W whose publications are used in more than 25 countries The book is a research based practical guide for educators counselors parents community organizers and mentors and is filled with the latest strategies for helping children families schools and communities bounce back from risk stress trauma and adversity More than two dozen experts in the fields of child family organizational and community resiliency contributed to the book which challenges a widely accepted myth about people especially young people who experience risks stress trauma and adversity in their lives according to Henderson Contrary to popular opinion the majority of these individuals over time do bounce back and do well There is a growing body of scientific research from several fields that documents this fact and yields important information as to what can be done every day to facilitate this process of overcoming. This book is really three books in one; it contains the most recent research, hands-on and practical strategies, and stories of resilient individuals and best practices. The book includes 60 chapters grouped in seven sections: The Foundations of Resiliency, Resiliency and Schools, Resiliency and Communities, Resiliency Connections, Mentoring, Support and Counseling, Resiliency and Youth Development, Resiliency and Families, and Resiliency and the Brain. Resilience Education Joel H. Brown, Marianne D'Emidio-Caston, Bonnie Benard, 2001. This is a helpful book whose prescriptions can bring a transformation in the way that you think, feel, and act in the educational environment and can strengthen our belief in the power and promise of students themselves. Dennis Saleebey, Professor, School of Social Welfare, University of Kansas, Lawrence, KS. Highly recommended for educators and social services professionals who work with youth. Randy Kroeker, Associate Professor, Counseling Services, University of Winnipeg. Bravo to the authors! A refreshing look at asset building that can lead to learners utilizing more of their own personal resources in the learning process. Lynn Jones, Professor, Iowa State University. Help your students turn crisis into opportunity. Resilience Education looks at how young people who struggle with life's worst conditions somehow manage to overcome adversity, and through this close examination, the authors are able to identify the significant factors that contribute to these youths' amazing resilience. Among the discoveries you'll find in this book: Information and decision-making skills students need to make good decisions in the face of adversity; Learning strategies and teaching strategies that facilitate student acquisition of good decision-making skills; Vignettes and specific examples of what a resilient youth looks like; Real-world portraits of school communities that support resilience; Specific guidance for creating conditions for resilience in the classroom. In this practical and insightful work, educational researchers Joel H. Brown, Marianne D'Emidio-Caston, and Bonnie Benard offer a set of principles and practical applications for educators who work with youth, offering unique and powerful tools that can make a difference in young people's lives. Employing Community-Based Experiential Learning in Teacher Education Gary Harfitt, Jessie Mei Ling Chow, 2020-07-18 This book positions itself at the intersection of the interrelationship between three key areas of initial teacher education constructivist learning theories teaching practicum and the promotion of reflective practices It presents an innovative approach to teacher preparation at undergraduate and postgraduate levels by critically examining the implementation of a mandatory experiential learning block across subject disciplines on undergraduate and postgraduate teacher preparation courses This book presents multiple examples and case studies of these varied experiential learning projects that will inform academics teachers and policymakers Through these rich examples the authors set out to address the theory practice dilemma in teacher education where teachers to be are often positioned as consumers of educational research in classrooms read reference books and academic papers on teaching and observe university and school experts before applying the same acquired theories and practices in their own classes In the book the authors argue for a shift away from this conventional teacher learning curriculum that is characterised by the separation of theory and practice choosing instead to promote pedagogy and methods courses where practice underpins all learning These pedagogical perspectives include the promotion of a diverse range of learning contexts including on and off campus learning sites for student teachers to experience during their time on teacher education courses

Children from the Other America Michele López-Stafford Levy, 2016-07-15 Necessity is the mother of invention and this all began with a plea on a listserv We have a sixteen year old

Mayan Quiche young man who won't stop crying in our school How desperate must a parent be to say goodbye to their child children to perhaps never see them again because of wars in Syria or gang violence in Central America making citizens so desperate Will the children make it alive to the next border with so many more to cross Will they really eventually meet up with family Or is this pure folly Will these children be able to go to school for an equitable education and have a much better life than their parents could ever imagine More important are the implications for U S schools how are they managing the sudden influx of children refugees who are road weary and expected to participate in school structures seamlessly Many are not aware that linguistically these children may not be Spanish speaking but only communicate in their own indigenous language
