Resources In Our Day To Day Life:

Ways to Live in Harmony with Nature Kamaljit K Sangha, 2018-10-01 Have you ever wondered how you can maintain your current lifestyle but not exhaust our planet's resources In modern times many of us have environmental knowledge but we lack an understanding of how to apply that knowledge to our everyday lives Bridging this gap is what has motivated ecological economist Dr Kamaljit Sangha to write this book Dr Sangha examines how people can make a difference to the environment by proposing little actions at the household scale that can contribute towards saving our planet This book examines how to Minimise the gap between scientific knowledge and public awareness Reduce the impact of our actions on our natural environment Maintain our earth's natural resources Be happier and healthier by recognising our reliance on Mother Nature and re-establishing our connections with nature Dr Sangha believes there are a few very easy steps that everyone whether they reside in the city or the country can take to save money their mental and physical health and ultimately our planet

Ghosh, Mark A.

Prelas, 2009-06-04 In the lifetimes of the authors the world and especially the United States have received three significant wake up calls on energy production and consumption The first of these occurred on October 15 1973 when the Yom Kippur War began with an attack by Syria and Egypt on Israel The United States and many western countries supported Israel Because of the western support of Israel several Arab oil exporting nations imposed an oil embargo on the west These nations withheld five million barrels of oil per day Other countries made up about one million barrels of oil per day but the net loss of four million barrels of oil production per day extended through March of 1974 This represented 7% of the free world's i.e. excluding the USSR oil production In 1972 the price of crude oil was about 3.00 per barrel and by the end of 1974 the price of oil had risen by a factor of 4 to over 12.00 This resulted in one of the worst recessions in the post World War II era As a result there was a movement in the United States to become energy independent At that time the United States imported about one third of its oil about five million barrels per day After the embargo was lifted the world chose to ignore the wake up call and went on with business as usual
