practice of theology and the asceticism proper to magnanimous souls who dare to examine the mystery of God Theological affectivity charity present through a living faith is necessary for an authentic practice of theology. The experience of God which is essential to the mystical life is at the heart of Aguinas s study and life The studies in this volume investigate themes of particular spiritual relevance in Aguinas s theology friendship charity prayer configuration to Christ priesthood preaching They also reveal Aguinas s entire approach to theology to be guided by the desire to grow spiritually through theologizing The Angelic Doctor here appears as a Dominican friar whose theology flows from his faith and prayer Desiring to underscore the Trinitarian character of the Christian life Aguinas pays careful attention to the human being as created in the image of God In this light Aguinas presents Christ as the Exemplar after which we are fashioned and as the model we are to imitate Christ thus appears in the Summa not only as the way by which the human being must travel toward God but also as the head who leads the rational creature s return to the Creator ABOUT THE AUTHOR AND TRANSLATOR Jean Pierre Torrell is a Dominican priest of the Toulouse province and professor of dogmatic theology at the University of Fribourg He is the author of the highly praised Saint Thomas Aguinas volumes Volume 1 The Person and His Work and Volume 2 Spiritual Master as well as Aguinas s Summa published by CUA Press Bernhard Blankenhorn O P is a doctoral student in theology at the University of Fribourg Switzerland Fireproof Your Life Study Guide Rebecca English, 2018-03-26 Ethical Implications of the Presence of the Kingdom as God's Performative Action in the Light of Speech Act Theory Anna Cho ,2019 This book presents a novel Biblical ethical hermeneutic approach that emerges from an understanding of the presence of the kingdom of God in the Biblical text The approach is predicated upon the use of speech act theory abbreviated as SAT in relation to kingdom language in the Biblical text The approach shows how the notion of kingdom language as God's divine activity is elicited in the contemporary Christian's life by allowing it to operate beyond the world of the Biblical text In other words this approach establishes a Biblical ethical hermeneutic bridge between the text and its context and the context of contemporary readers of the text The alternative linguistic epistemology in SAT considers the principle of the kingdom of God in the past locution level the present illocutionary level and the future perlocutionary level The dynamic equivalences of the past present and future of the kingdom of God based on an SAT approach to the Biblical text can inform Christian ethical theory and moral action in the present world It can also provide a new moral sensibility in relation to God's sovereignty and the responsibility of Christians in contemporary society The Sign of the Gospel W. Travis McMaken, 2013-08-01 The theology of the sacraments is one of the most contested parts in Barth's theology none more so than the doctrine of baptism Barth's proposals on baptism have generated intense conversation and disagreement not only on its application to Protestant and ecumenical theology but even on its own consistency with Barth's larger dogmatic project McMaken takes up this controversial question sets it in its proper context within the history of doctrine and Barth s systematic work and argues for a constructive reclamation of infant baptism that accords with Barth's overarching theological concerns and insights notably from Barth's mature theological commitments Pivotally this volume claims that a reorientation of the doctrine of baptism opens up a new perspective on the practice of infant baptism on the basis of Barth s theology this new perspective as well holds the potential for wide ecumenical application as a form of the proclamation of the gospel and a vital dimension of the church's missional vocation A commanding volume for scholars and students in systematic theology ecumenical studies and sacramental theology Sacred Music, Religious Desire and Knowledge of God Julian Perlmutter, 2020-02-20 Many people find sacred choral music profound and deeply evocative even in societies that seem to be turning away from religious belief In this book Julian Perlmutter examines how in light of its wide appeal sacred music can have religious significance for people regardless of their religious convictions By differentiating between doctrinal belief and the desire for God Perlmutter explores a longing for the spiritual that is compatible with both belief and interested non belief He describes how sacred music can elicit this kind of longing thereby helping the listener to grow in religious openness The work of Thomas Merton is also analyzed in order to show that musically elicited desire for God can be incorporated into the Christian practice of contemplative prayer aimed ultimately at a union of love with God By exploring connections between desire knowledge and religious practice this engaging account illustrates how sacred music can have a transformative effect on one s wider spiritual life Of particular interest to philosophers and theologians the book makes a novel contribution to several topics including religious epistemology the philosophy of emotion and aesthetics the Image of Christ Kathleen A. Cahalan, 2004 A sacramental Christology and anthropology form the basis for Fr Bernard Haring s moral theology Christ as Word of God and High Priest embodies the perfect expression of worship and obedience The Christian life is an imitation of Christ's response to God we are called to make all responses religion and morality a religious response an act of adoring worship and praise China Sunday School Journal ,1919 Christ and Modernity David J. Hawkin, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1985 In this re examination of the roots of the relationship between religion and science David Hawkin focuses on the concept of autonomy as he explores the question Is there continuity and compatibility between the autonomy that underlies Christian faith and the role of individual freedom in the technological age What makes this work particularly valuable is Professor Hawkin's review of the theological philosophical political psychological and sociological works that have formed our ideas of the nature of both Christianity and modernity Reimarus Strauss Schweitzer and Bultmann on the quest for the historical Jesus Bauer and Turner on Christian faith and practice Machiavelli Nietzsche Darwin Freud and Marx on our historicity Gogarten Cox and Bonhoeffer who affirm our autonomy in the technological process Ellul and George who deny it Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies, Issue 5.2 Daniel S. Diffey, Ryan A. Brandt, Justin McLendon, 2021-01-12 The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by scholars for other scholars They are technical in nature assuming a robust knowledge of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical Theology Philosophical Theology Philosophy and John Calvin's Doctrine of the Christian Life John H. Leith, 2010-03-01 In this thorough investigation of Calvinist doctrine John Leith defines the Reformer's teaching on Christian life in the context of his theology He begins with a discussion of what it means to say that the purpose of Christian life is the glory of God He then discusses Christian life in relation to four aspects of Calvinist thought justification by faith alone providence and predestination history and the transhistorical church and society Leith's concluding statement summarizes the importance of this book Calvin's doctrine of the Christian life represents a magnificent effort to give expression to what it means to have to do with the living God every moment of one s life No interpretation of the sola gloria Dei only God s glory has been more vivid and dynamic than Calvin s For this reason he speaks to the needs of this generation which at least until recently has been more frequently concerned about the glory of humankind than that of God and which has fallen victim to many false gods and vicious ideologies Yet if Calvinism is to render its full service to our day it must be interpreted in the context of the shared faith of the total Christian community On the basis of Calvin s own principles no human statement of Christian faith can ever be final and must be continually reformed by the Christian community s apprehension of the word of God as revealed in Jesus Christ
