Participation Corwin E. Smidt, 2008 Pews Prayers and Participation Religion and Civic Responsibility in America offers a fresh approach to key questions about what role religion plays in fostering civic responsibility in contemporary American society. In the course of their study the authors examine whether an individual exhibits a diminished a privatized a public or an integrated form of religious expression based on the individual's level of participation in both the public worship or private prayer dimensions of religious life. They question whether the privatization of religious life is counterproductive to engagement in public life and they show that religion does indeed play a significant role in fostering civic responsibility across each of its particular facets.
