Restructuring The Global Military Sector:

Restructuring the Global Military Sector: New wars Mary Kaldor, Basker Vashee, 1997 Since the mid 1980s there have been substantial cuts in military spending throughout the world except for Pacific Asia The reasons are both political the end of the Cold War democratization in Africa and Latin America and economic structural adjustment programmes debt and cuts in public spending New Wars is the first of a two volume study commissioned by UNU WIDER to investigate the changes taking place worldwide in armed forces arms industries and all other military related activities This volume offers an original analysis of what is new about contemporary wars It argues that these wars have a contemporary logic that can be investigated in order to develop new international approaches towards prevention and resolution The book includes general chapters on organised crime and warfare the supply of weapons the role of Islam and international law as well as case studies on Bosnia the Transcaucasus Russian peacekeeping Cambodia South Asia and Africa Adapted from publisher's abstract Global Insecurity Mary Kaldor, 2000-09-20 Introduces the reader to works in the Wallace Collection through the voice of its Director

Restructuring the Global Military Sector: New wars Mary Kaldor, Basker Vashee, 1997 Since the mid 1980s there have been substantial cuts in military spending everywhere except Pacific Asia The reasons are both political such as the end of the Cold War democratization in Africa and Latin America and economic with structural adjustment programmes debt and cuts in public spending This is the first volume of a study by the United Nations University to investigate the changes taking place world wide in armed forces arms industries and all other military related activity The main conclusion of the study is that a fundamental transformation is taking place in the nature of warfare It argues that recent wars arose from the disintegration of state structures Participation in wars is low compared with earlier wars as are casualties However the new wars are very disruptive in social terms The book argues that it is possible to identify a certain logic to the new wars which can be analyzed so as to provide a basis for alternative forms of conflict prevention and resolution The End of Military Fordism Mary Kaldor, Ulrich Albrecht, Genevieve Scheder, 1998-04-22 Part of a 2 volume analysis written by a team of key experts from around the world this text studies the changes taking place within the military sector The conclusion is that there has been little in the way of a peace dividend The End of Military Fordism Mary Kaldor, Basker Vashee, 1998-04-22 Part of a 2 volume analysis written by a team of key experts from around the world this text studies the changes taking place within the military sector The conclusion is that there has been little in the way of a peace dividend Restructuring the Global Military Sector: Global insecurity Mary Kaldor, Basker Vashee, 1997

Restructuring the Global Military Sector: New wars Mary Kaldor, Basker Vashee, 1997 Restructuring the Global Military Sector: Global insecurity Mary Kaldor, Basker Vashee, 1997 Handbook of Defense Economics Todd Sandler, Keith Hartley, 2007-04-12 The second volume of the Handbook of Defense Economics addresses defense needs practices threats and policies in the modern era of globalization This new era concerns the enhanced cross border flows of all kinds e g capital and labor flows revolutionary rhetoric guerrillas and terrorists including the spillovers of benefits and costs associated with public goods and transnational externalities i e uncompensated interdependencies affecting two or more nations These ever increasing flows mean that military armaments and armies are less able to keep out security threats Thus novel defense and security barriers are needed to protect borders that are porous to terrorists pollutants political upheavals and conflicts Even increased trade and financial flows imply novel security challenges and defenses Globalization also underscores the importance of a new set of institutions e g the European Union and global governance networks and agents e g nongovernmental organizations and partnerships This volume addresses the security challenges in this age of globalization where conflicts involve novel tactics new technologies asymmetric warfare different venues and frightening weapons Volume 2 contains topics not covered in volume 1 i e civil wars peacekeeping economic sanctions the econometrics of arms races conversion peace economics and the interface of trade peace and democracy Volume 2 also revisits topics from volume 1 where there has been a significant advancement of knowledge i e conflict analysis terrorism arms races arms trade military manpower and arms industries All of the main securities concerns of today are analyzed Chapters are written by the leading contributors in the topic areas Up to date surveys on the pressing defense issues theoretical empirical and policy issues Coverage of theoretical and empirical studies of terrorism Contributions by the leading researchers in the field of defense economics

Military Geographies Rachel Woodward, 2011-07-15 Military Geographies is about how local space place environment and landscape are shaped by military presence and about how wider geographies are touched by militarism A book about how local space place environment and landscape are shaped by military presence and about how wider geographies are touched by militarism Sets a new agenda for the study of military geography with its critical analysis of the ways in which military control over space is legitimized Explores the ways in which militarism and military activities control development the use of space and our understanding of place Focuses on military lands establishments and personnel in contemporary peacetime settings Uses examples from Europe North America and Australasia Draws on original research into the mechanisms by which the British government manages the defence estate Illustrated with maps plans and other figures

Handbook of New Security Studies J. Peter Burgess, 2010-01-22 This new

Handbook gathers together state of the art theoretical reflection and empirical research by a group of leading international scholars relating to recent transformations in the field of security studies The Politics and Economics of Defence Industries Efraim Inbar, Ben Zion Zilberfarb, 2013-09-13 This volume provides a policy relevant analysis of the complex web of contemporary economic trends political developments and strategic considerations that are shaping the contours of the new post Cold War world market for weaponry Building future security : strategies for restructuring the defense technology and industrial base. United States. Congress. Office of Technology Assessment, Conflict Refugees Christel Querton, 2023-08-10 Uncovers judicial approaches to refugee law across the European Union in the cases of refugees fleeing armed conflicts War as Business Armin Krishnan, 2016-03-03 The privatization of defence assets and the outsourcing of military services from the armed forces to the private sector is an increasing trend This book approaches the issue of military privatization by linking it to the transformation of the defence industries since the early 1990s and shows the extent to which many military functions and activities ranging from military research to military consulting training to operational support services have already been outsourced in the US and in Europe This detailed study provides new and updated information on the ongoing privatization of the defence sector and offers an original theoretical explanation as to why the most modern armed forces throughout the world have come increasingly to rely on private companies for nearly everything they do Contributing to a better understanding of military privatization and its close connection to technological change the book explains the complexity of the whole phenomenon and discusses its implications for national and international security The Globalization of Security B. Mabee, 2009-05-21 The Globalization of Security is an important rethinking of the connections between globalization and security focusing on a conceptual examination of the role of the state combined with key case studies The book provides a novel historical sociological approach advancing both the understanding of security and the theory of state power War and Data on Armed Conflicts Motomichi Igarashi, 2024-12-01 This book is the first to provide a comprehensive examination of the entities responsible for the production of data on armed conflicts DAC the processes by which it is generated and the international norms that govern it While numerous studies have focused on the statistical aspects of armed conflicts this book distinguishes itself through its historical analysis of the relationship between actors data generation methods and international norms The book begins with an examination of the nature of data in international politics The vast scale of the subjects being analyzed presents significant challenges to accurately measuring international political data with war being particularly difficult to assess This raises the question of how DAC has been structured and generated The book highlights the existence of specific international norms as a basis for DAC It explores the history of international norms for the protection of war dead in collecting casualty information as well as norms for civilian protection The book posits that DAC has been generated not only by sovereign states but also by global networks comprising international organizations and NGOs It thus analyzes the historical development of such global networks In the latter part of the book the methods by which global networks generate DAC are analyzed First it clarifies when and how statistical analysis has been used in generating DAC Second it elucidates when and how forensic analysis primarily of corpses has been employed Thirdly the book reveals when and how chemical weapons analysis has been utilized This book offers a valuable investigation into the generative structure of DAC and mechanisms for ensuring compliance with international humanitarian law It will appeal to a broad audience of policymakers human rights activists humanitarian practitioners and academics

An Empire of Indifference Randy Martin, 2007-03-14 Analyzes imperial ambitions in the context of the dominance of finance not simply as a form of capital but also as a set of protocols for organizing daily life
