Rethinking Europe Social Theory And The Implications Of Europeanization:

Rethinking Europe Gerard Delanty, Chris Rumford, 2005 Europeanization and European Integration R. Coman, T. Kostera, L. Tomini, 2014-09-17 After two decades of research into the impact of the EU on domestic politics and policies this book explores the relationship between Europeanization and EU integration It argues that Europeanization should be considered as a stage in the development of EU integration as well as questioning the notion of incremental Europeanization

Sociology of Europeanization Sebastian M. Büttner, Monika Eig Müller, Susann Worschech, 2022-02-02 The numerous and far reaching socio political transformations that have taken place on the European continent since the mid 20th century have stipulated the emergence of new approaches and research fields in the social sciences One of these is the development of a Sociology of Europeanization This textbook provides an overview of its major topics concepts and research approaches Each of the 14 chapters of this textbook introduces one particular topic of the Sociology of Europeanization ranging from major conceptual considerations to an exploration of the numerous spatial cultural economic political judicial and socio structural implications of Europeanization Hence this book is very suitable as a fundamental introductory reading and for teaching in European studies and related study programs It is also recommended to everyone who is interested in more recent European history and current sociological studies of transnationalization Events around the book Link to a De Gruyter Online Event in which renowned scholars and experts discuss what is necessary for the teaching of European Studies today and what future directions European Studies should take in light of current challenges and crises The event was moderated by Sebastian Büttner and Susann Worschech two co editors of this textbook <https://youtu.be/Deh13FJ1ctE> During the annual colloquium of the European General Studies Programme of the College of Europe Bruges Sebastian Büttner discussed and presented his co edited book <https://youtu.be/GLheIHQOEv4> Europe and World Society Chris Rumford, Didem Buhari-Gulmez, 2017-10-02 Europe and World Society offers a distinctive critical approach to understanding European transformations exploring both the progress and limitations of integration on various key policy areas such as agricultural policy education reform migration and external relations as well as the relationship between European regionalism and globalization Due to its innovative theoretical framework based on macro perspectives including World Polity Theory developed by Stanford sociologist John W Meyer this collection contributes to both the recent sociological turn in European studies and to the constructivist critiques of rational choice accounts of modern Europe At a time when the European integration project has been severely challenged by multiple economic political and social crises this book offers a timely global perspective that sheds light on the dynamism and multiplicity of the actors discourses and processes which underlie contemporary Europe The book's distinctive global approach allows it to move the debate beyond state and EU centrism and establish the missing link between Europe and its global context This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary European Studies Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level

Europe and Asia beyond East and West

Gerard Delanty,2006-10-03 This major new book tackles key questions on Europe in the context of shifting parameters of East and West The contributors sociologists anthropologists philosophers and historians show from a variety of different perspectives that the conventional equation of Europe with the West must be questioned Featuring four thematically organized chapters the book looks at a post Western world Asia in Europe encounters in history between Europe and Asia otherness in Europe and Asia Exploring new expressions of European self understanding in a way that challenges recent ideological notions of the clash of civilizations this outstanding work draws on recent scholarship that shows how Europe and Asia were mutually linked in history and in contemporary perspective It argues that as a result of current developments and the changing geopolitical context both Europe and Asia have much in common and that it is possible to speak of cosmopolitan links rather than clashes This book will be of great value to students and researchers in the fields of sociology European politics and history and cultural theory

Democratising the EU from Below? Ulrike Liebert,Alexander

Gattig,2016-05-23 For the European Union of the 21st century the search for sustainable prosperity and stability includes the challenge of reconciling democratic ideals and practices with the construction of a European constitutional order From the 2001 Laeken Summit to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond EU leaders have repeatedly set out to bring citizens closer to EU governance by making it more democratic and effective yet several national ratification referendums have shown that publics are divided about whether and why to endorse or veto complex EU reform packages imposed from the top down Despite these limitations people do effectively engage in the making of a European polity By initiating national court proceedings active citizens are promoting fundamental European rights in Member States practices As party members they contribute to shaping mass media communication about and national publics understanding of European political alternatives As civil society activists citizens help build social networks for contesting certain EU reforms or advocating others Last but not least as voters in national and European elections they choose between competing party visions and national parliamentary stances regarding the role of democratic citizenship This original contribution to the debate about democratic citizenship vis the challenges of economic globalization and European political integration presents critical explorations of different fields of direct representative participatory and deliberative democratic citizenship practices that affect the transformation of Europe Routledge Handbook of Cosmopolitanism Studies Gerard Delanty, 2012-05-23 Pt 1 Cosmopolitan theory and approaches pt 2 Cosmopolitan cultures pt 3 Cosmopolitics pt 4 World varieties of cosmopolitanism Globalisation and Citizenship Wayne Hudson, Steven Slaughter, 2007-04-11 This wide ranging volume explores the impact of globalization upon citizenship with a special focus on the transnational challenges that globalization poses While there is much debate over the concept globalization implies at least two distinct phenomena First it suggests that political economic and social activities are becoming increasingly inter regional or intercontinental in scope Secondly it suggests that there has been an intensification of levels of interaction and interconnectedness between states and societies Citizenship as one of the foundational concepts of the modern liberal democratic states provides the normative framework within which globalization debates may be understood and evaluated It also examines how different concepts theories and practices of citizenship are evolving in response to globalization Central questions explored in this text are How does globalization challenge traditional conceptions of citizenship in specific respects How is globalization creating new citizenships or new civil society spaces How is transnational citizenship developing and what problems are associated with it in specific areas Discussing the theoretical and practical prospects for new forms of liberal republican and cosmopolitan citizenship Globalisation and Citizenship will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of international relations globalization sociology and political science

European External Action Veit Bachmann, 2017-02-24 European External Action provides a critical assessment of the practice of EU diplomacy in a key site of Africa European relations and the global development industry the Kenyan capital of Nairobi It analyses how the EU positions itself through its newly established diplomatic corps the European External Action Service EEAS and how it is perceived as a collective geopolitical actor by its external cooperation partners Going beyond existing studies on EU policy making in Brussels and African European relations more generally this book explores in a novel way the conduct of external relations and perceptions of the EU abroad Based on institutional ethnography within the EU Delegation in Nairobi and research affiliation with the University of Nairobi as well as interviews with leading individuals of Kenyan European interaction it analyses the practices processes and perceptions through which EU diplomacy is enacted and realised in a strategic node of global North South relations In light of the EU's claim as a key partner for developing countries and its ambition to be a major player in global politics European External Action thereby speaks not only to wider debates on the EU's role as a global and development actor but also provides new insights in the internal dynamics and the making of external agency in and through EU diplomacy Transforming Europe Through Crises Didem Buhari, Christian Kaunert, Seckin Baris Gulmez, 2022-11-28 How many Europes is a critical question that led to several attempts to analyse European crises and transformations globally This book builds upon the argument that Europe cannot be reduced to a singular dynamic identity or vision but rather provides a four fold taxonomy Thin Thick Parochial and Global

Europe The book contributors aim to respond to the emerging necessity to incorporate both the parochial dynamics unmaking Europe and the globalist dynamics decentering Europe into the analysis of European crises and transformations in diverse sectors ranging from security and foreign policy to the rule of law and democracy Accordingly this book is unpacking Europe in a time of severe crises facing the EU such as Brexit the Syrian refugee crisis Catalan secessionism the rise of far right and terrorism which have accelerated the resurgence of formerly marginalized and repressed dynamics as influential trends in national regional and global politics It reveals an ongoing hegemonic struggle over the representation of Europe among many Europes involving two separate integrationist models of regionalization or Europe making and two distinct dynamics that have sought to fragment and de centre the European Union through nationalism and globalism respectively The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Politics and Society Spaces of Europeanisation in the Balkans Ana Pajvančić-Cizelj, 2025-09-18 This book tackles the spatial dimension of Europeanization in the Balkans by focusing on cities inter urban networks and urban epistemic communities Exploring the participation of urban actors from the Balkans in 18 European inter urban networks it employs a new mixed method framework to show how such participation continuously reshapes Balkan Cities urban trajectories with contradictory and variegated consequences Against the backdrop of the existing state and conflict centred literature on failures of European integration in the region the author offers a fresh perspective on Europeanization as it unfolds through direct inter city cooperation This volume will be of interest to both scholars of urban studies and Southeast European Studies as well as anyone interested in the Europeanization of the Balkans and its cities Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Social and Political Theory Gerard Delanty, Stephen P. Turner, 2011-03-23 The Handbook will address a range of issues that have emerged out of recent social and political theory It will focus on key themes as opposed to schools of thought or major theorists Each chapter is an emerging cutting edge topic that is of interest both to social theory and to political theory Most topics will have a clear and substantive focus on social or political problems Adult Education Policy and the European Union: Theoretical and Methodological Perspectives , 2014-01-01 FREELY AVAILABLE ONLINE AS OPEN ACCESS BOOK The European Union is now a key player in making lifelong learning and adult education policy this is the first book to explore a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives researchers can use to investigate its role Chapters by leading experts and younger scholars from across Europe and beyond cover the evolution of EU policies the role of policy actors in what is often seen as the black box of EU policy making and the contribution state theory can make to understanding the EU and its relations with Europe s nations They consider what theories of governmentality drawing on the work of Foucault can contribute And they demonstrate how particular methodological approaches such as policy trails and the contribution the sociology of law can make Contributors include both specialists in adult education and scholars exploring how work from other disciplines can contribute to this field This is the first book in a new series from the European Society for Research on the Education of Adults and draws on work within its Network on Policy Studies in Adult Education Impacts of European Territorial Policies in the Baltic States Garri Raagmaa, Dominic Stead, 2017-10-02 Urban and regional development in the Baltic States and other Central and Eastern European countries has experienced rapid changes since their re independence at the beginning of the 1990s Meanwhile urban and regional planning institutions and organizational cultures in the Baltic States have only changed rather incrementally despite various national and European pressures for reform As a consequence the effects of European cohesion and structural policy measures have been quite modest and the ability of the planning systems in the Baltic states to manage contemporary trends in urban and regional development has become increasingly limited This book focuses on these issues and tensions of spatial planning and development in the Baltic States and their distinctiveness compared to other European countries It provides an overview of the historical and cultural context of spatial development a discussion of the processes of Europeanization of spatial planning in the specific context of the Baltic States and an analysis of whether these processes may be leading to policy convergence in the region This book was published as a special issue of European Planning Studies The SAGE Handbook of European Studies Chris Rumford, 2009-06-18 This volume brings together some of the biggest names in European Studies to analyse the most important trajectories of Europe s development and the challenges faced by the continent today No one interested in Europe will be able to ignore this extraordinary collection of scholarship Professor Thomas Diez University of Birmingham In its range and comprehensiveness it will be hard to beat and it will certainly become an invaluable resource for sociologists political scientists historians and all others seeking the best information and most up to the date approaches to the study of Europe today Professor Krishan Kumar University of Virginia An impressive account of the state of the art of the study of contemporary Europe This is an outstanding work and a definite companion to all those interested in contemporary Europe Journal of Contemporary European Studies Europe is one of the world s oldest civilizations But what does it mean to be European today What place does Europe have in global affairs How should we analyze its key institutions system of governance and broader cultural social and political dynamics This exhaustive and timely handbook Explores the transformations that characterize contemporary Europe Investigates how we can best study Europe Consolidates European studies and provides a platform for future study Increases the profile of European studies The Handbook promotes the increasing diversity of perspectives employed in the study of contemporary Europe and EU integration and is situated within the context of Europe s transformations It offers balanced coverage of political social economic cultural and institutional dimensions of Europe and includes chapters by leading authorities including Ulrich Beck Craig Calhoun Donatella della Porta Claus Offe Anssi Paasi Ben Rosamond Gurinder Bhambra and Charles Tilly Multidisciplinary in organization inclusive in coverage and cutting edge in scope The SAGE Handbook of European Studies is a landmark resource for anyone interested in Europe
