Rethinking Islam And Liberal Democracy Islamist Women In Turkish Politics:

Rethinking Islam and Liberal Democracy Yeşim Arat, 2012-02-01 In Turkey no secular party has approximated the high levels of membership and intense activism of women within the Islamist Refah Welfare Party. Rethinking Islam and Liberal Democracy examines the experiences of these women who represented an unprecedented phenomenon within Turkish politics. Using in-depth interviews, Yeşim Arat reveals how the women of the party broadened the parameters of democratic participation and challenged preconceived notions of what Islam can entail in a secular democratic polity. The women of the party successfully mobilized large groups of allegedly apolitical women by crossing the boundaries between the social and the political, reaching them through personal networks cultivated in private spaces. The experiences of these women show the contentious relationship between liberal democracy and Islam, where liberalism that prioritizes the individual can transform, coexist or remain in tension with Islam that prioritizes a communal identity legitimized by a sacred God.

Islamist Politics in the Middle East Samer Said Shehata, 2012 For over three decades Islamist politics or political Islam has been one of the most dynamic and contentious political forces in the Middle East. Although there is broad consensus on the importance of political Islam, there is far less agreement on its character, the reasons for Islamist success, the role of Islamist movements in domestic and international affairs or what these movements portend for the future. This volume addresses a number of central questions in the study of Islamist politics in the Middle East through detailed case studies of some of the region's most important Islamist movements. Chapters by leading scholars in the field examine the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas, Hizbullah, Morocco's Justice and Benevolence, the Jordanian Muslim Brotherhood, the Sunni Insurgency in Iraq, and Islamist politics in Turkey and Iran. The topics addressed within this volume include social networks and social welfare provision, Islamist groups as opposition actors, Islamist electoral participation, the intersection of Islam and national liberation struggles, the role of religion in Islamist politics, and Islam and state politics in Iran, among other topics. All of the contributing authors are specialists with deep knowledge of the subject matter who are committed to empirically based research. These scholars take Islamists seriously as modern, sophisticated and strategic political players. Together, their work captures much of the diversity of Islamist politics in the region and will contribute to the scholarship on a topic that continues to be important for the Middle East and the world.

Ethnographic Discourses on Women and Islam in Turkey Petek Onur, 2024-05-09 This book provides a meta-reading of how ethnographic discourses on women and Islam in Turkey have changed since their emergence in 1983. It analyses the published ethnographic works in three discursive periods and shows that paradigm shifts in social sciences, processes of neo-liberal globalization and globalization of Islamism, as well as political, social, cultural and economic transformations at the local level, shape these periods. As an exceptional example of modernization in the Middle East and the post-imperial states in South East Europe, Turkey has been experiencing tensions between Islamic beliefs and practices and Westernization and secularization processes. Countless aspects of Muslim women's lives appear as symbols and indicators in this society like in many other Muslim majority societies and to scholars of gender and women's studies in discussing the faith based patriarchy. Thus this book exhibits the necessity of developing a critical perspective on ethnographic representations of Muslim women in Turkey.

Islamist Terrorism and Democracy in the Middle East Katerina Dalacoura, 2011-04-29 What were the reasons behind the terrorist attacks of September 11th? Does the cause of Islamist terrorism relate to the lack of democracy in the Middle East? Through detailed research into the activities of both radical and moderate organizations across the Middle East such as the Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas and Hizbullah and via interviews with key personnel, Katerina Dalacoura investigates whether repression and political exclusion pushed Islamist entities to adopt terrorist tactics. She also explores whether inclusion in the political process has had the opposite effect of encouraging Islamist groups toward moderation and ideological pragmatism. In a challenge to the conventional wisdom, she concludes that Islamist terrorism is not a direct consequence of authoritarianism in the Middle East and that there are many key factors that generate radicalism.

Turkey between Democracy and Authoritarianism Yeşim Arat, Şevket Pamuk, 2019-09-05 An accessible introduction to the processes which shape politics and economics in contemporary Turkey.

Authoritarian Politics in Turkey Bahar Baser, Ahmet Erdi Öztürk, 2017-05-30 President Erdogan's victory in the April 2017 referendum granted him sweeping new powers across Turkey. The constitutional reforms transform the country from a parliamentary democracy into a Turkish style presidential republic. Despite being democratically elected, Turkey's ruling AKP party has moved towards increasingly authoritarian measures. During the coup attempt in July 2016, the AKP government declared a state of emergency which Erdogan saw as an opportunity to purge the public sector of pro-Gülenist individuals and criminalise opposition groups including Kurds, Alevites, leftists and liberals. The country experienced political turmoil and rapid transformation as a result. This book identifies the process of democratic reversal in Turkey. In particular, contributors explore the various ways that a democratically elected political party has used elections to implement authoritarian measures. They scrutinise the very concepts of democracy, elections and autocracy to expose their flaws which can be manipulated to advantage. The book includes chapters discussing the roots of authoritarianism in Turkey, the political economy of elections, the relationship between the political Islamic groups and the government, Turkish foreign policy, non-Muslim communities, attitudes towards the AKP, and Kurdish citizens' voting patterns. As well as following Turkey's political trajectory, this book contextualises Turkey in the wider literature on electoral and competitive authoritarianisms and explores the country's future options.

Un-Veiling Dichotomies Giorgia Baldi, 2021-09-27 This book analyzes the implication of secular liberal values in Western and human rights law and its impact on Muslim women. It offers an innovative reading of the tension between the religious and secular spheres. The author does not view the two as binary opposites. Rather, she believes they are twin categories that define specific forms of lives as well as a specific notion of womanhood. This divergence from the usual dichotomy opens the doors for a reinterpretation of secularism in contemporary Europe. This method also helps readers to view the study of religion vs secularism in a new light It allows for a better understanding of the challenges that contemporary Europe now faces regarding the accommodation of different religious identities For instance one entire section of the book concerns the practice of veiling and explores the contentious headscarf debate It features case studies from Germany France and the UK In addition the analysis combines a wide range of disciplines and employs an integrated comparative and inter disciplinary approach The author successfully brings together arguments from different fields with a comparative legal and political analysis of Western and Islamic law and politics This innovative study appeals to students and researchers while offering an important contribution to the debate over the role of religion in contemporary secular Europe and its impact on women s rights and gender equality Faith and Fashion in Turkey Nazli Alimen, 2018-02-28 Turkey has witnessed remarkable sociocultural change under the regime of Recep Tayyip Erdogan and his Justice and Development Party AKP particularly regarding its religious communities As individuals with pious identities have increasingly gained access to state power and accumulated economic influence so religious appearances and practices have become more visible in Turkey s secular public spaces More than this consumption practices have changed and new Islamic and Islamist identities have emerged This book investigates three of the most widespread faith inspired communities in Turkey the Gulen Suleymanli and the Menzil Nazli Alimen compares these communities looking at their diverse interpretations of Islamic rules related to the body and dress and how these different groups compete for power and control in Turkey In tracing what motivates consumption practices the book adds to the growing interest in the commercial aspects of modest and Islamic fashion It also highlights the importance of clothing and bodily rituals such as veiling grooming and food choices for the formation of community identities Based on ethnographic research Alimen analyses the relationship between the marketplace and religion and shows how different communities interact with each other and state institutions Of particular note are the varied expressions of Islamic masculinities and femininities at play Appealing to a cross disciplinary readership the book will be relevant for scholars within Turkish Studies Gender Studies Islamic Studies Fashion Consumption Studies Sociology of Religion and Middle Eastern Studies Political Parties in the Middle East Siavush Randjbar-Daemi, Eskandar Sadeghi-Boroujerdi, Lauren Banko, 2020-05-21 This comprehensive collection addresses the important question of political parties in the Middle East and North Africa MENA Written by historians political scientists and sociologists of the region the book provides a pertinent analytical framework to understand the often complex and turbulent histories of these political parties their role within the region and their prospects in the wake of the post 2011 Arab Uprisings The authors explore a rich and varied range of case studies including Iran Turkey Palestine Egypt Lebanon and Morocco This book examines where political parties and organizations have been crucial to shaping contemporary historical events and political contestation but also highlights their shortcomings and failures to deliver on the ambitions and hopes they had often evoked amongst their supporters Furthermore it looks at how political parties and their activities have intersected with important issues and themes such as gender human rights international solidarity revolution and social transformation and sectarian identity This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of political science particularly within the MENA region It was originally published as a special issue of the British Journal of Middle Eastern Studies Turkish Metal Pierre Hecker,2016-02-17 Turkish Metal journeys deep into the heart of the Turkish heavy metal scene uncovering the emergence evolution and especially the social implications of this controversial musical genre in a Muslim society The book applies an ethnographic approach in order to study social and cultural change in a Muslim society that is stricken with conflict over the by turns religious or secular nature of the state Turkish Metal explores how Turkish metalheads against all odds manage to successfully claim public spaces of their own thereby transforming the public face of the city The book raises the question of how and why the young dare to rebel against the prevalent social and moral restrictions in Turkish society and it examines whether they succeed in asserting their individual freedom in a society that is still well known for sanctioning any kind of behaviour deviating from the norm Above all the book investigates the Turkish metal scene s potential for contesting Islamic concepts of morality its relevance within the field of female emancipation and its capacity to foster social relations that cut across national religious and ethnic boundaries The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G.
