Colors from a Zionist's Palette Arieh Larkey, 2012 The three stories in this volume are derived from real life experiences mostly during Arieh Larkey's more than forty years of living out his dream in the Jewish Homeland The first story An Improbable Zionist Recollections is a light autobiographical sketch of life's twists and turns which lead the author on adventures he could never have envisioned as a youth growing up in the Jewish neighborhood of Newark New Jersey adventures in a place that lies six thousand miles to the east of his hometown namely the fledgling Jewish State of Israel To round out the trilogy the two additional short stories in this volume entitled Nazi Germany and the Sinai a Link to the Past and My First Time under Katyusha Fire show tantalizing glimpses of the author's extraordinary adventures in his adopted home Sometimes he uses fictional characters to tell the story Other times he himself is the protagonist But in either case the readers will enjoy a full 360 panoramic view of the author's physical and emotional surroundings as the stories unfold

Tracing Topographies: Revisiting the Concentration Camps Seventy Years after the Liberation of Auschwitz Joanne Pettitt, Vered Weiss, 2018-12-07 Seventy years on from the liberation of Auschwitz the contributions collected in this volume each attempt in various ways and from various perspectives to trace the relationship between Nazi occupied spaces and Holocaust memory considering the multitude of ways in which the passing of time impacts upon or shapes cultural constructions of space Accordingly this volume does not consider topographies merely in relation to geographical landscapes but rather as markers of allusions and connotations that must be properly eked out Since space and time are intertwined if not in fact one and the same an investigation of the spaces the locations of horror in relation to the passing of time might provide some manner of comprehension of one of the most troubling moments in human history It is with this understanding of space as fluid sites of memory that the contributors of this volume engage these are the kind of shifting topographies that we are seeking to trace This book was originally published as a special issue of Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History

Holocaust and the Moving Image Toby Haggith, Joanna Newman, 2005 Based on an event held at the Imperial War Museum in 2001 this book is a blend of voices and perspectives archivists curators filmmakers scholars and Holocaust survivors Each section examines films and how they have contributed to wider awareness and understanding of the Holocaust since the war

Survivors and Exiles Jan Schwarz, 2015-05-15 After the Holocaust's near complete destruction of European Yiddish cultural centers the Yiddish language was largely viewed as a remnant of the past tragically eradicated in its prime In Survivors and Exiles Yiddish Culture after the Holocaust Jan Schwarz reveals that on the contrary Yiddish culture in the two and a half decades after the Holocaust was in dynamic flux Yiddish writers and cultural organizations maintained a staggering level of activity in fostering publications and performances collecting archival and historical materials and launching young literary talents Schwarz traces the transition from the Old World to the New through the works of seven major Yiddish writers including well known figures Isaac Bashevis Singer Avrom Sutzkever Yankev Glatshteyn and Chaim Grade and some who are less well known Leib Rochman Aaron Zeitlin and Chava Rosenfarb The first section Ground Zero presents writings forged by the crucible of ghettos and concentration camps in Vilna Lodz and Minsk Mazowiecki Subsequent sections Transnational Ashkenaz and Yiddish Letters in New York examine Yiddish culture behind the Iron Curtain in Israel and the Americas Two appendixes list Yiddish publications in the book series Dos poylishe yidntum published in Buenos Aires 1946 66 and offer transliterations of Yiddish quotes Survivors and Exiles charts a transnational post Holocaust network in which the conflicting trends of fragmentation and globalization provided a context for Yiddish literature and artworks of great originality Schwarz includes a wealth of examples and illustrations from the works under discussion as well as photographs of creators making this volume not only a critical commentary on Yiddish culture but also an anthology of sorts Readers interested in Yiddish studies Holocaust studies and modern Jewish studies will find Survivors and Exiles a compelling contribution to these fields

Diversity in the East-Central European Borderlands Eleonora Fedor, Julie Narvselius, 2021-11-16 Built on up to date field material this edited volume suggests an anthropological approach to the palimpsest like milieus of Wrocław, Lviv, Chernivtsi and Chişinău. In these East Central European borderline cities the legacies of Nazism, Marxism, Leninism and violent ethno nationalism have been revisited in recent decades in search of profound moral reckoning and in response to the challenges posed by the post transitional period. Present shapes and contents of these urban settings derive from combinations of fragmented material environments, cultural continuities and political ruptures, present day heritage industries and collective memories about the contentious past, expressive architectural forms and less conspicuous meaning making activities of human actors. In other words they evolve from perpetual tensions between choices of the past and the burden of the past. A novel feature of this book is its multi level approach to the analysis of engagements with the lost diversity in historical urban milieus full of post war voids and ruptures. In particular the collected studies test the possibility of combining the theoretical propositions of Memory Studies with broader conceptualizations of borderlands, cosmopolitan sociality, urban mythologies and hybridity. The volume's contributors are Eleonora Narvselius, Bo Larsson, Natalia Otrishchenko, Anastasia Felcher, Juliet D Golden, Hana Cervinkova, Paweł Czajkowski, Alexandr Voronovici, Barbara Pabjan, Nadiia Bureiko, Teodor Lucian Moga and Gaëlle Fisher.

Troubled Memory, Second Edition Lawrence N. Powell, 2019-01-09 This powerful book tells the story of Anne Skorecki Levy, a Holocaust survivor who transformed the horrors of her childhood into a passionate mission to defeat the political menace of reputed neo Nazi and Ku Klux Klan leader David Duke. The first book to connect the prewar and wartime experiences of Jewish survivors to the lives they subsequently made for themselves in the United States, Troubled Memory is also a dramatic testament to how the experiences of survivors as new Americans spurred their willingness to bear witness. Perhaps the only family to survive the liquidation of the Warsaw Ghetto as a group, the Skoreckis evaded deportation to Treblinka by posing as Aryans. The family eventually made their way to New Orleans where they became part of a vibrant Jewish community. Lawrence Powell traces their dramatic odyssey and explores the events that eventually triggered Anne Skorecki Levy's brave decision to honor the suffering of the past by confronting the recurring specter of racist hatred.
