Marina MacKay, 2007-01-18 World War II marked the beginning of the end of literary modernism in Britain. However, this late period of modernism and its response to the war have not yet received the scholarly attention they deserve. In this full-length study of modernism and World War II, Marina MacKay offers historical readings of Virginia Woolf, Rebecca West, T. S. Eliot, Henry Green, and Evelyn Waugh set against the dramatic background of national struggle and transformation. In recovering how these major authors engaged with other texts of their time, political discourses, mass and middlebrow culture, this study reveals how World War II brought to the surface the underlying politics of modernism's aesthetic practices. Through close analyses of the revisions made to modernist thinking after 1939, MacKay establishes the significance of this persistently neglected phase of modern literature as a watershed moment in twentieth-century literary history. A Memoir of My Former Self Hilary Mantel, 2023-10-24 THE FINAL BOOK FROM ONE OF OUR GREATEST WRITERS In addition to her celebrated career as a novelist, Hilary Mantel contributed for years to newspapers and journals, unspooling stories from her own life and illuminating the world as she found it. Ink is a generative fluid, she explains. If you don't mean your words to breed consequences, don't write at all. A Memoir of My Former Self collects the finest of this writing over four decades. Her subjects are wide-ranging, sharply observed, and beautifully rendered. She discusses nationalism and her own sense of belonging, our dream life popping into our conscious life, the mythic legacy of Princess Diana, the many themes that feed into her novels, revolutionary France, psychics, Tudor England, and other novelists from Jane Austen to V. S. Naipaul. She writes about her father and the man who replaced him; she writes fiercely and heartbreakingly about the battles with her health that she endured as a young woman and the stifling years she found herself living in Saudi Arabia. Here too is her legendary essay "Royal Bodies" on our endless fascination with the current royal family. From her unusual childhood to her all-consuming interest in Thomas Cromwell that grew into the Wolf Hall trilogy, A Memoir of My Former Self reveals the shape of Hilary Mantel's life in her own luminous words, through messages from people I used to be filled with her singular wit and wisdom. It is essential reading from one of our greatest writers. Novel Theory and Technology in Modernist Britain Heather Fielding, 2018-04-26 Reveals that technology played a major role in modernism's theory of the novel. T.E. Lawrence Harold Orlans, 2002-10-08 Lawrence of Arabia as adviser to Prince Feisal led camel riding Bedouin in a guerrilla war against Turkey from Arabia to Damascus. The great British hero of World War I, he helped Winston Churchill draw the map of the modern Middle East, creating Jordan and making Feisal king of Iraq. Then in 1922 he shed the rank of colonel and his name to serve as a private in the Royal Air Force until shortly before his death in 1935 at age 46. Lawrence has been characterized as a man with extraordinary powers and as an imposter who manufactured his own legend. This careful study, based on virtually all published and unpublished English language sources, sides neither with Lawrence's eulogists nor with his denigrators. Presenting a fair, balanced picture of his life, it shows the lifelong continuity of his puzzling conduct, the often needless deviousness that troubled even close friends, the self-hatred and savage masochism that cursed his adult years. The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials. Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context, dating and sources, character analysis, comic elements and verbal conceits, evidence of authorship, performance analysis and feminist interpretations. Alongside theater reviews, production photographs and critical commentary, the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play. An index by name, literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource.

American Populist Thomas E. Patterson, 2025-02-14 Thomas E. Patterson's monumental biography of Huey Long is a profound reevaluation of his life and legacy, recognizing him as an inspirational, progressive thinker, populist hero, and radical influence on the New Deal before an assassin's bullet ended his life in 1935. First as governor and then as U.S. senator, Long transformed the politics of Louisiana by standing for the interests of citizens whom state officials had historically ignored. He eased suffrage restrictions so that more people could vote, and voters endorsed his program of more robust government services and shifting the tax burden to those better able to pay. In the United States Senate during the darkest days of the Great Depression, he advocated loudly and ceaselessly for the redistribution of wealth, expanding public works, increasing the money supply, insuring bank deposits, paying old age pensions and veterans benefits, delivering a minimum income for families, and funding college and vocational education. President Franklin D. Roosevelt, along with other politicians and pundits, dismissed Long's proposals as nonsense put forth by a reckless demagogue in search of votes. Despite several biographies, acclaimed novels, and historical studies in the years since Long's death, his reputation today is mostly caricature: a spellbinding speaker, a dictator, a populist firebrand who was unprincipled and corrupt. Using previously untapped personal papers of Long and his son Russell, other primary sources, recent scholarship, and his experience as a lawyer, Patterson provides a necessary corrective as he analyzes the contours of Long's career, deconstructs the elements of his success, undercuts several myths related to his time in office, and explains the circumstances that led to his ultimate downfall. The result is the most comprehensive, balanced, and analytical study of the Kingfish to date.

Sharp Michelle Dean, 2018-04-10 A deeply researched and uncommonly engrossing book profiling ten trailblazing literary women, including Dorothy Parker and Joan Didion. Paris Review In Sharp, Michelle Dean explores the lives of ten women of vastly different backgrounds and points of view who all made a significant contribution to the cultural and intellectual history of America. These women—Dorothy Parker, Rebecca West, Hannah Arendt, Mary McCarthy, Susan Sontag, Pauline Kael, Joan Didion, Nora Ephron, Renata Adler, and Janet Malcolm—are united by what Dean calls sharpness: the ability to cut to the quick with precision of thought and wit. Sharp is a vibrant depiction of the intellectual beau monde of twentieth-century New York, where gossip-filled parties gave out to literary slugging matches in the pages of the Partisan Review or the New York Review of Books. It is also a passionate portrayal of how these women asserted themselves through their writing despite the extreme condescension of the male-dominated cultural establishment. Mixing biography, literary criticism, and cultural history, Sharp is a celebration of this group of extraordinary women an engaging introduction to their works and a testament to how anyone who feels powerless can claim the mantle of writer and perhaps change the world Sinclair Lewis Richard R. Lingeman,2005 In this definitive biography of Sinclair Lewis Main Street Babbitt Lingeman presents an empathetic absorbing and balanced portrait of an eccentric alcoholic workaholic whose novels and stories exploded shibboleths with a volatile mixture of caricature and realism Drawing on newly uncovered correspondence diaries and criticism Lingeman gives new life to this prairie Mercutio out of Sauk Centre Minnesota A Man of Parts David Lodge,2011-09-15 A riveting novel about the remarkable life and many loves of author H G Wells H G Wells author of The Time Machine and War of the Worlds was one of the twentieth century s most prophetic and creative writers a man who immersed himself in socialist politics and free love whose meteoric rise to fame brought him into contact with the most important literary intellectual and political figures of his time but who in later years felt increasingly ignored and disillusioned in his own utopian visions Novelist and critic David Lodge has taken the compelling true story of Wells s life and transformed it into a witty and deeply moving narrative about a fascinating yet flawed man Wells had sexual relations with innumerable women in his lifetime but in 1944 as he finds himself dying he returns to the memories of a select group of wives and mistresses including the brilliant young student Amber Reeves and the gifted writer Rebecca West As he reviews his professional political and romantic successes and failures it is through his memories of these women that he comes to understand himself Eloquent sexy and tender the novel is an artfully composed portrait of Wells s astonishing life with vivid glimpses of its turbulent historical background by one of England s most respected and popular writers Making History New Seamus O'Malley,2015 Making History New explores how several British modernists Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford and Rebecca West applied the experimental methods of literary modernism to the writing of narrative history and historical novels
