Selected Poems 1950 To 1975:

Selected Poems 1950-1975, 1980 A History of Modern Poetry David Perkins, 1987 This study of British and American poetry from the mid 1920s to the recent past clarifies the complex interrelations of individuals groups and movements and the contexts in which the poets worked The Columbia History of British Poetry Carl R. Woodring, James Shapiro, 2007-09-07 The Columbia Anthology of British Poetry brings together the most remarkable verse written in the British Isles over the course of the past twelve centuries offering the greatest diversity of poetic voices in any anthology of its kind From Shakespeare s memorable sonnets to Keats s haunting odes to T S Eliot s meditations on the conditions of modern life the collection contains many of the best loved treasures of British poetry Longer and much celebrated poems that rarely find their way into anthologies including Pope s Rape of the Lock and Coleridge s Rime of the Ancient Mariner claim a place in this collection Queen Elizabeth I Anne Killigrew Aphra Behn Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Felicia Hemans are among dozens of women writers renowned in their own day and now restored to their rightful prominence Scottish Welsh and Irish poets often excluded from anthologies of British poetry are here as well including such extraordinary voices as Lady Grisell Baillie Robert Burns Hugh MacDiarmid and Seamus Heaney The finest contemporary poets are fully represented also from Thom Gunn to Eavan Boland The result is an amazingly rich and wide ranging conversation among British poets that transcends the boundaries of time and place Carl Woodring and James Shapiro the team scholars who edited The Columbia History of British Poetry have written incisive introductions to the careers of the poets making this the most accessible and comprehensive anthology of British verse in print Covering the new and the ancient the classic and the rediscovered this generous volume reimagines the horizons of British poetry The Art of Restraint Richard Hoffpauir, 1991 Richard Hoffpauir argues that the works of the best poets have found ways of not capitulating to contemporary reality and outlines the terms of the debate by setting the weaknesses of Yeats against the strenghts of Hardy Subsequent chapters discuss the nature poetry of Edward thomas the war poetry of Graves Blunden and Gurney the love poetry of Bridges Lawrence and Graves and the political and social verse of Rickword Daryush Betjeman and Larkin The Letters of Thom Gunn Thom Gunn, 2022-05-24 The Letters of Thom Gunn presents the first complete portrait of the private life reflections and relationships of a maverick figure in the history of British and American poetry I write about love I write about friendship remarked Thom Gunn I find that they are absolutely intertwined These core values permeate his correspondence with friends family lovers and fellow poets and they shed new light on one of the most singular and compelling poets in English during the past half century Hugh Haughton The Times Literary Supplement The Letters of Thom Gunn edited by August Kleinzahler Michael Nott and Clive Wilmer reveals the evolution of Gunn s work and illuminates the fascinating life that informed his poems his struggle to come to terms with his mother s suicide settling in San Francisco and his complex relationship with England his changing relationship with his life partner Mike Kitay the LSD trips that led to his celebrated collection Moly 1971 and the deaths of friends from AIDS that inspired the powerful unsparing elegies of The Man with Night Sweats 1992 Articulate Flesh Gregory Woods, 1987-01-01 Arguing that homosexual poetry is part of the mainstream of poetic writing not a distinct and differentiated category within it Gregory Woods provides a fastidious study of homosexual poetry in the twentieth century that emphasizes the homo erotic themes in the works of D H Lawrence Hart Crane W H Auden Allen Ginsberg and Thom Gunn Woods's controlled and elegant study demonstrates that a critic who ignores the sexual orientation of a poet particularly a love poet risks overlooking the significance of the poetry itself

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Performing the Body/Performing the Text Amelia Jones, Andrew Stephenson Nfa, Andrew Stephenson, 2005-08-12 This book explores the new performativity in art theory and practice examining ways of rethinking interpretive processes in visual culture Since the 1960s visual art practices from body art to minimalism have taken contemporary art outside the museum and gallery by embracing theatricality and performance and exploding the boundaries set by traditional art criticism The contributors argue that interpretation needs to be recognised as much more dynamic and contingent Offering its own performance script and embracing both canonical fine artists such as Manet De Kooning and Jasper Johns and performance artists such as Vito Acconci and Gunter Brus this book offers radical re readings of art works and points confidently towards new models for understanding art British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen, 2021-12-12 British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies introductory essays and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s J. Russell Perkin, 2021-06-15 The 1970s in Britain saw a series of industrial disputes a referendum on membership in the European Economic Community conflict about issues of immigration and citizenship and emergent environmental and feminist movements It was also a decade of innovation in the novel and novelists often addressed the state of the nation directly in their works In Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s Russell Perkin looks at social novels by John Fowles and Margaret Drabble the Cold War thrillers of John le Carr Richard Adams's best selling fable Watership Down the popular campus novels of Malcolm Bradbury and David Lodge Doris Lessing's dystopian visions and V S Naipaul's explorations of post colonial displacement Many of these highly regarded works sold in large numbers and have enjoyed enduring success a testament to the power of the political novel to explain a nation to itself Perkin explores the connections between the novel and politics situating the works it discusses in the rich context of the history and culture of the decade from party politics to popular television shows Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s elucidates a period of literary history now fifty years in the past and offers a balanced perspective on the age revealing that these works not only represented the politics of the time but played a meaningful role in them Why We Harm Lois Presser,2013-11-13 Criminologists are primarily concerned with the analysis of actions that violate existing laws But a growing number have begun analyzing crimes as actions that inflict harm regardless of the applicability of legal sanctions Even as they question standard definitions of crime as law breaking scholars of crime have few theoretical frameworks with which to understand the etiology of harmful action In Why We Harm Lois Presser scrutinizes accounts of acts as diverse as genocide environmental degradation war torture terrorism homicide rape and meat eating in order to develop an original theoretical framework with which to consider harmful actions and their causes In doing so this timely book presents a general theory of harm revealing the commonalities between actions that impose suffering and cause destruction Harm is built on stories in which the targets of harm are reduced to one dimensional characters sometimes a dangerous foe sometimes much more benign but still a projection of our own concerns and interests In our stories of harm we are licensed to do the harmful deed and at the same time are powerless to act differently Chapter by chapter Presser examines statements made by perpetrators of a wide variety of harmful actions Appearing vastly different from one another at first glance Presser identifies the logics they share that motivate legitimize and sustain them From that point she maps out strategies for reducing harm Conceiving Histories Isabel Davis,2025-03-04 A fascinating and beautifully illustrated account of trying to conceive in both the past and the present Inspired by the author s own experiences Conceiving Histories brings together history personal memoir and illustration to investigate the culturally hidden experience of trying to conceive In elegant engaging prose Isabel Davis explores the combination of myth fantasy science and pseudo science that the un reproductive body encounters in pursuit of a viable pregnancy The book chronicles the trying to conceive lifecycle arc from sex education at school through the desire to be a parent into the specifics of trying and struggling to conceive It also looks back at conception throughout history to open a new vista on what we live with today A central argument of Davis s is that historical people lived with the unknown just like we do but were more explicitly able to acknowledge it In an age of assistive reproductive technologies the act of embracing uncertainty seems difficult Although the topic of not conceiving is potentially painful this is not a grim book more than grief it is motivated by curiosity wonder compassion and even humor With 108 full color illustrations Conceiving Histories is also a beautiful material object an intentionally playful antidote and supplement to online search engines the resort of so many embroiled in fertility challenges The Writers Directory,2004

Merriam-Webster's Encyclopedia of Literature Merriam-Webster, Inc,1995 Describes authors works and literary terms from all eras and all parts of the world Literature, Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain Alan Sinfield,2004-12-23 Alan

Sinfield 1941 is Professor of English at the University of Sussex The publication of Literature Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain in 1989 firmly established him as one of our foremost writers on literature and a leading critic of postwar culture and society Literature Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain is a landmark work in contemporary literary and cultural analysis It offers a provocative and brilliant account of political change since 1945 and how such change shaped the cultural output of our time It also looks at how and when literature intersects with other cultural forms and the growth of American cultural dominance This edition includes a new foreword by the author specially written for the Impact edition An Open Map Robert J. Bertholf, Dale M. Smith, 2017-12-15 The correspondence of Robert Duncan and Charles Olson is one of the foundational literary exchanges of twentieth century American poetry The 130 letters collected in this volume begin in 1947 just after the two poets first meet in Berkeley California and continue to Olson's death in January 1970 Both men initiated a novel stance toward poetry and they matched each other with huge accomplishments an enquiring declarative intelligence wide ranging interests in history and occult literature and the urgent demand to be a poet More than a literary correspondence An Open Map gives insight into an essential period of poetic advancement in cultural history Literature, Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain Alan Sinfield, 2007-03-15 Literature Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain is a landmark work in contemporary literary and cultural analysis It offers a provocative and brilliant account of political change since 1945 and how such change shaped the cultural output of our time It also looks at how and when literature intersects with other cultural forms including jazz and rock music television journalism commercial and mass cultures and the growth of American cultural dominance This edition includes a new foreword by the author Late modernist poetics Anthony Mellors, 2024-06-04 This book explores the uncanny afterlife of modernist ideals in the second half of the twentieth century Rejecting the familiar notion that modernism dissolved during the 1930s it argues that the fusion of rationalism and mysticism which characterises modernist poetics was sustained long after its politics had been discredited by the events of World War Two The book's central concern is why the aesthetic mysticism that Walter Benjamin called the faith of those who made common cause with Fascism continued to be a guiding principle for literary elites and countercultural movements alike New light is shed on the relationship between occultism and the Pound tradition especially in terms of Pound's influence on post 1945 Anglo American poetry and a critical theory of late modernism is offered which shows how belated notions of cultural redemption have survived in contemporary poetry This wide ranging contextual study focuses on the poetry of Ezra Pound Charles Olson Paul Celan and J H Prynne and explores the development of modernist culture through its theories of phenomenology psychoanalysis science ethnography and ancient history Contemporary Literary Criticism Annual Cumulative Title Index , 1998 The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-Century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996-09-26 This is a unique new reference book to English language writers and writing throughout the present century in all major genres and from all around the world from Joseph Conrad to Will Self Virginia Woolf to David Mamet

Ezra Pound to Peter Carey James Joyce to Amy Tan The survivors of the Victorian age who feature in The Oxford Companion to Twentieth Century Literature in English writers such as Thomas Hardy Olive Schreiner Rabindranath Tagore Henry James could hardly have imagined how richly diverse Literature in English would become by the end of the century Fiction plays poetry and a whole range of non fictional writing are celebrated in this informative readable and catholic reference book which includes entries on literary movements periodicals and over 400 individual works as well as articles on some 2 400 authors All the great literary figures are included whether American or Australian British Irish or Indian African or Canadian or Caribbean among them Samuel Beckett Edith Wharton Patrick White T S Eliot Derek Walcott D H Lawrence Tennessee Williams Vladimir Nabokov Wole Soyinka Sylvia Plath as well as a wealth of less obviously canonical writers from Ana s Nin to L M Montgomery Bob Dylan to Terry Pratchett The book comes right up to date with contemporary figures such as Toni Morrison Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Carol Shields Tim Winton Nadine Gordimer Vikram Seth Don DeLillo and many others Title entries range from Aaron s Rod to The Zoo Story topics from Angry Young Men Bestsellers and Concrete Poetry to Soap Opera Vietnam Writing and Westerns A lively introduction by John Sutherland highlights the various and sometimes contradictory canons that have emerged over the century and the increasingly international sources of writing in English which the Companion records Catering for all literary tastes this is the most comprehensive single volume guide to modern and postmodern literature
