Selected Poems Ballads:

Selected Poems & Ballads Helen Adam, 1974 Selected Poems and Ballads of Paul Fort Paul Fort, 1921 A Greek Ballad Michális Ganás, 2019-09-24

A stunning collection that draws from four decades of verse by one of modern Greece's most lauded poets. This is the first English language collection of work by the renowned Greek poet Michalis Ganás. Originally from a remote village on the northwest border of Greece, Ganás witnessed the Greek Civil War as a young child and was taken into enforced exile in Eastern Europe with his family. Weaving together subtle references to the events and places that have defined his life's story, Ganás's terse and technically accomplished poems are a combination of folklore, autobiography, and recent history. Whether describing the mountains of his youth or the difficulties of acclimation in Athens of the 1960s and 1970s, Ganás's writing is infused with striking and original imagery inspired by love, memory, and loss. Featuring expert translations made in collaboration with Ganás himself by David Connolly and Joshua Barley, this volume also includes a scholarly introduction to the poet's life and work.

Selected Poems and Ballads of Paul Fort (Classic Reprint) Paul Fort, 2015-07-11

Excerpt from Selected Poems and Ballads of Paul Fort: Paul Fort has likened himself to Shelley. His lyrical gift is so pure and strong that the comparison seems neither arrogant nor absurd. But his difference from Shelley is more important than any kinship: he is at home not only in the world but in the universe. No essential conflicts rend the harmony or darken the lucidity of his soul. Nor has he had to win this peace. It has always been his; he has always known it as he declares all things must be known by heart. To Paul Fort, life and the world are a beautiful and eternal pageant of rivers and stars and fields of people and of things made with hands. And the passions that have moved this pageant are to his vision an integral part of it, but one that he perceives pictorially and in which he sees pictorial and poetic values wherewith to feed his unending interest in gesture and color and form. He is not oblivious of pain nor of ugliness. But he has let all things flow through his refashioning soul and found them good. He is the blithest and most limpid of poets. Yet he constantly escapes the danger of shallowness by virtue of a pagan earnestness at the root of his delight: a harmony with the great procession of appearances, a deep and instinctive union with the sun's warmth, the stars' glitter, the flight of birds, the tread of wayfarers, the splendor of antique raiment. All nature, he says, is on the threshold of my heart. The earth and the sun are but one fatherland. I would caress nature with my fingers as though she were an instrument that answers to my dream. This is perhaps as I started by saying the central point of Paul Fort's creative psychology: the universe answers his dream. Joy is his chief note. If ever he loses joy, he is astonished as a child might be astonished or a faun. His habitual mood is one of a glad, swift swimmer whose strong limbs flash through the seas and rivers of the world. Quickly the goal I'd reach softly descend the breeze. My laughter I would teach to the Eumenides. He is indeed the gay sprite of cosmic fire, no curb restrains.
