Selected Poems of Oscar Wilde Oscar Wilde, 2005-11 Large format for easy reading Selection of poems from the famous dramatist novelist and poet of the Victorian Era A celebrity of his time and still renowned for his barbed wit Dodo Edward Frederic Benson, 1910 Antipodean China Nicholas Jose, Benjamin Madden, 2021-02-01 Antipodean China is a collection of essays drawn from a series of encounters between Australian and Chinese writers which took place in China and Australia over a ten year period from 2011 The encounters could be defensive especially given the need to depend on translators but as the writers spoke about the places important to them their influences and their work resemblances emerged and the different perspectives contributed to a sense of common understanding about literature and about the role of the writer in society In some cases the communication is even more direct as when the Tibetan author A Lai speaks knowingly about Alexis Wright's novel Carpentaria and the two winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature Mo Yan and J M Coetzee discuss what the Nobel meant for each of them The collection also includes writing by some of the best Chinese and Australian writers novelists Brian Castro Gail Jones Julia Leigh Yu Hua Sheng Keyi and Liu Zhenyun poets Kate Fagan Ouyang Yu Xi Chuan and Zheng Xiaoqiong and translators Eric Abrahamson Li Yao and John Minford In the current situation of hostility and suspicion between the two countries this collection presents what may be seen in retrospect as an idyllic moment of communication and trust God Mocks Terry Lindvall, 2015-11-13 Winner of the 2016 Religious Communication Association Book of the Year Award In God Mocks Terry Lindvall ventures into the muddy and dangerous realm of religious satire chronicling its evolution from the biblical wit and humor of the Hebrew prophets through the Roman Era and the Middle Ages all the way up to the present He takes the reader on a journey through the work of Chaucer and his Canterbury Tales Cervantes Jonathan Swift and Mark Twain and ending with the mediated entertainment of modern wags like Stephen Colbert Lindvall finds that there is a method to the madness of these mockers true satire he argues is at its heart moral outrage expressed in laughter But there are remarkable differences in how these religious satirists express their outrage The changing costumes of religious satirists fit their times The earthy coarse language of Martin Luther and Sir Thomas More during the carnival spirit of the late medieval period was refined with the enlightened wit of Alexander Pope The sacrilege of Monty Python does not translate well to the ironic voices of Søren Kierkegaard The religious satirist does not even need to be part of the community of faith All he needs is an eye and ear for the folly and chicanery of religious poseurs To follow the paths of the satirist writes Lindvall is to encounter the odd and peculiar treasures who are God's mouthpieces In God Mocks he offers an engaging look at their religious use of humor toward moral ends Internal Conflict in Nineteenth-Century Literature Stefan Bolea, 2020-10-07 Internal Conflict in Nineteenth century Literature Reading the Jungian Shadow examines the genealogy of the Jungian shadow in Romantic and post Romantic literature Stefan Bolea analyzes the way the crisis of identity in nineteenth century literature prefigures our contemporary inner discord by means of the philosophy of literature combining literary criticism with psychoanalytical phenomenology This book provides a deep analysis of the connection between this inner discord and the century that brought us industrialization nationalism modernity and the unconscious by comparing Jung's theory of the shadow with Nietzsche's and Cioran's versions of Antihumanism in a highly interdisciplinary landscape Scholars of psychology philosophy literature media studies and history will find this book particularly useful
