Manna,2023-06-15 Research on how stakeholders interpret language test scores and how they make decisions about language proficiency is critical because score based decisions can be extremely consequential for test takers score users such as educational institutions and employers and the society overall This edited volume is intended as a primary resource for language assessment researchers developers and policy makers interested in efficiently communicating score information related to language proficiency Its nine chapters report on complicated often behind the scenes research efforts to enhance the interpretation of English language test scores developed by ETS by employing diverse methodologies such as vertical linking score mapping standard setting scale anchoring and score concordance In a post pandemic era full of challenges and change in the field of language assessment this volume highlights the ethical responsibility of test providers to engage in sometimes challenging research and development efforts to better serve score users English Language Proficiency Testing in Asia Lily I-Wen Su, Cyril J. Weir, Jessica R. W. Wu, 2019-11-19 As the demand for English language education grows in Asia there has been a parallel growth in the development and implementation of standardized tests at the local level Offering much needed context on locally produced tests in Asia contributors examine emerging models for English language assessment and the impact these large scale tests have on the teaching and learning of English Chapters address the following well known and developing high stakes tests in different regions across Asia the GEPT the TEPS the VSTEP the CET the EIKEN and TEAP and the ELPA Brought together by world renowned testing assessment scholar Cyril Weir and the Language Training and Testing Center LTTC one of Asia s leading testing institutions based in Taiwan this volume is a useful reference for evaluating developing and validating local tests of English and their societal impact Comprehensive and research based chapters cover historic backgrounds sociocultural contexts test quality international standing and future considerations Ideal for graduate students researchers and scholars in language assessment TESOL TEFL and applied linguistics this book will also be of interest to language teaching professionals language test developers and graduate students in Asian studies and international education intercultural communication and intercultural studies Resources in Education, 2000 Exploring EFL Fluency in Asia T. Muller, J. Adamson, P. Brown, S. Herder, 2014-10-04 In EFL contexts an absence of chances to develop fluency in the language classroom can lead to marked limitations in English proficiency This volume explores fluency development from a number of different perspectives investigating measurements and classroom strategies for promoting its development Case Studies in Foreign Language Placement Thom Hudson, Martyn Clark, 2008 Although most language programs make placement decisions on the basis of placement tests there is surprisingly little published about different contexts and systems of placement testing The present volume contains case studies of placement programs in foreign language programs at the tertiary level across the United States The different programs span the spectrum from large programs servicing hundreds of students annually to small language programs with very few students The contributions to this volume address such issues as how the size of the program presence or absence of heritage learners and population changes affect language placement decisions On the Air Instructor's Manual Catherine Sadow, Edgar Sather, 1998-07-28 Builds listening comprehension with radio programs from NPR and WRKO Boston Transformative Language Learning and Teaching Betty Lou Leaver, Dan E. Davidson, Christine Campbell, 2021-01-21 A seminal work in the field this book shows how transformative education can be applied to world language programs

Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics (GURT) 1993: Strategic Interaction and Language Acquisition James E. Alatis, 1994-06-01 The papers in this volume examine strategies for language acquisition and language teaching focusing on applications of the strategic interaction method
