Selected Writings of Juan Ramon Jimenez Juan Ramon Jimenez, 1999-12 Selected Writings Juan Ramón Jiménez, 1957 Representative selection of poems and prose pieces from the work of the winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature 1956 presented in chronological order 13 chapters from Platero and I are included Selected Writings of Juan Ramon Jimenez Juan Ramón Jiménez, 1957 Selected Writings of Juan Ramón Jiménez. Translated by H.R. Hays. Edited, with a Preface, by Eugenio Florit Juan Ramón Jiménez, Eugenio Florit, Hoffman Reynolds Hays, 1957

Juan Ramon Jimenez: Selected Poems (Poesias escogidas) Salvador Ortiz-Carboneres, 2006-05-23 Juan Ram n Jimenez 1881 1958 was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1956 yet his work remains far less well known in the English speaking world than it deserves Jimenez was a prolific writer his collected verse fills twenty volumes and his early poems were first published whilst still in his teens Selected Writings Ruben Dario, 2005-12-06 Born in Nicaragua Rub n Dar o is known as the consummate leader of the Modernista movement an esthetic trend that swept the Americas from Mexico to Argentina at the end of the nineteenth century Seeking a language and a style that would distinguish the newly emergent nations from the old imperial power of Spain Dar o s writing offered a refreshingly new vision of the world an artistic sensibility at once cosmopolitan and connected to the rhythms of nature The first part of this collection presents Dar o s most significant poems in a bilingual format and organized thematically in the way Dar o himself envisioned them The second part is devoted to Dar o s prose including short stories fables profiles travel writing reportage opinion pieces and letters A sweeping biographical introduction by distinguished critic Ilan Stavans places Dar o in historical and artistic context not only in Latin America but in world literature For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators The Poetry of Juan Ramón Jiménez. Julio Hans C. Jensen, 2012-07-01 The Spanish poet Juan Ram n Jim nez 1881 1958 Nobel laureate 1956 wrote at a key moment in literary history Since Jim nez s lyrical output covers the poetic tradition from Romanticism through Symbolism to the Avant Gardes his work can be regarded as a condensation of the modern paradigm Julio Jensen investigates the lyrical subject appearing in Jim nez s poetry as exemplary of the notion of modern subjectivity He does so by assuming a historical correlation between literature and philosophy in the sense that if philosophical discourse conceptualizes the prevailing understanding of the human being at a given moment literary discourse represents it Modern thought does not accept any other foundation than subjectivity At the same time the awareness of the subject s finitude engenders pessimism with respect to its status as world generating principle One of the primary aims of this study then is to show how Jim nez poignantly enacts this vacillation between self enthrone ment and self eradication With insightful readings of Jim nez s poetry the author opens a rich vein in the work of a writer who would serve as a central reference for later Spanish language poets such as Federico Garc Lorca Pablo Neruda and Octavio Paz

Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1957 The Poetic "I" Ken Bazyn,2021-12-17 One should never assume that the narrator in a poem is expressing views identical to the author s For words like Nature half reveal And half conceal the Soul within wrote Tennyson Autobiographical elements tend to be so mixed in with the fictional that lines blur Bazyn s revolving carousel of poetic I s includes an egotist who makes fun of his arrogance a baby confused by his wobbly surroundings the simple joys of a childhood Christmas youth's dilemma at forging a vocation the peculiar circumstances surrounding one's first love reminiscences of a recent class reunion a period of self-examination following the death of a neighbor anxiously awaiting a monogrammed invitation lessons gleaned from closely inspecting nature exhibiting faith in a secular metropolis dreaming of a technician's utopia and the frailty and ragged edges of old age The narrator is by turns nostalgic uneasy speculative forlorn elated discombobulated representing as he does different stages of life personality types and psychological moods Bazyn's language can be mysterious his sentences follow a winding course his stanzas end abruptly Bewitching black and white photos accent and enhance each poem's metaphors As you gaze into this verbal visual mirror likenesses of the hidden self emerge and take on unexpected shapes The Selected Poems of H. R. Hays Hoffman Reynolds Hays, 2000-08 Universalist Hopes in India and Europe Ana Jelnicar, 2016-02-18 In 1913 Rabindranath Tagore received the Nobel Prize in Literature World famous overnight he was translated into numerous languages Meanwhile in Slovenia a young still anonymous poet felt strongly drawn to the newly available works of the Indian bard This young man was Sre ko Kosovel who is today hailed as Slovenia's leading avant garde poet of the interwar period But what could Kosovel then barely out of his teens have in common with a figure of Tagore's stature Deeply affected by Italy's conquest of parts of Slovene populated territory Kosovel was able to identify with Tagore and relate to the historical predicament of colonial subjugation Despite coming from different backgrounds they were kindred spirits a dynamic creative ideal of universalism lay at the core of their concerns As a true universalist in the sense of feeling empathy with the less fortunate it was more in the spirit of equality that Kosovel approached Tagore This volume is the first comparative study of the writings of these two poets who lived worlds apart but spoke in strikingly similar voices It explores the links between India and East Central Europe in the early decades of the twentieth century and gives expression to responses from within Europe that have largely been overlooked in postcolonial and cultural studies Juan Ramón Jiménez and William Butler Yeats Mary Lewis Dewey, 1966

Selected Poems of Jorge Carrera Andrade Jorge C. Andrade, 1972-06-30 While Latin American poets such as Pablo Neruda Jorge Luis Borges and Octavio Paz have been receiving most of the attention of critics the Ecuadorian poet Jorge Carrera Andrade had quietly continued writing his transparent poetry Nevertheless Carrera Andrade's poems are undoubtedly some of the best ever written in the Spanish language and he has often been mentioned as a likely candidate for the Nobel Prize In his poetic exploration of what he calls the secret country of human existence Carrera Andrade marvels at the beauty of the world And this wonder is conveyed by means of dazzling descriptive metaphors Perhaps it could be said that the Ecuadorian poet always interprets the world visually but his visual images constitute merely a metaphorical technique around which he constructs his poems In his verbal structures he expresses the transitory nature of life as well as the loneliness of man in the universe He describes life in his native Ecuador contemplates with compassion the plight of the Indians of his country and denounces social injustices More recently Carrera Andrade concerned about the destiny of mankind manifests his indomitable faith in humanity in the book Hombre planetario 1959 imagining a social utopia Carrera Andrade has stated that his poetry is the result of the intimate union of the senses and the intellect And yet his poems remain transparent He rejects obscurity and complexity and chooses simplicity and clarity He considers that one of the essential goals of poetry is communion with other men and that if his poetry cannot communicate its emotive and sensorial content it fails to accomplish its mission which is the interpretation of the world As to the universal meaning of his poetic work Carrera Andrade would recall Goethe's phrase All my works are fragments of a great confession He would characterize his own work as a confession of love both for humanity and for the wonders of this world Carrera Andrade must be counted among the four or five best contemporary poets of Latin America Whether he is awarded a Nobel Prize still remains to be seen but there can be no doubt that in his poems one can detect the same literary excellence as in the work of Neruda Paz or Borges Hopefully the work of this great Ecuadorian poet will soon be universally appreciated In some of his works he can be compared to T S Eliot Hlderlin or Saint Jean Perse The publication of H R Hayes translations will for the first time make available to English speaking readers all of the significant verse of Carrera Andrade beginning with some of his first pieces from La guirnalda del silencio 1926 and ending with translations from Pos a ltima 1957 1966 Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today
