Tagore, Einstein and the Nature of Reality Partha Ghose, 2019-04-02 This volume consists of a selection of scholarly essays from literature philosophy and history on the conception of reality as understood by Rabindranath Tagore and Albert Einstein The nature of reality has been a long debated issue among scientists and philosophers Tagore 1861 1941 met Einstein 1879 1955 at the latter's house in Kaputh Germany on 14 July 1930 and had a long conversation on this issue This conversation has been widely quoted and discussed by scientists philosophers and scholars from the literary world The important question that Tagore and Einstein discussed was whether the world is a unity dependent on humanity or the world is a reality independent of the human factor Einstein believed that reality is independent of the mind and the human factor On the other hand Tagore adopted the opposite view Nevertheless both Einstein and Tagore claimed to be realists their conceptions of reality were obviously fundamentally different Where does the difference lie Can it be harmonized at a deeper level This volume brings together for the first time a gamut of views on this subject from eminent scholars It presents some key reflections on reality language poetry truth science personality human sciences virtue ethics intelligibility and creativity It will be useful to scholars and researchers of philosophy literature history and political studies as also to those interested in Tagore

Essays on Rhetoric Thomas De Quincey, 2010-03-19 The five essays presented here Rhetoric Style Language Conversation and Greek Literature were published together for the first time in The Collected Writings of Thomas De Quincey in 1889 1890 Frederick Burwick brings the essays together again in this volume introducing them by tracing the sources and development of a belletristic theory of rhetoric which he says is one of the most original and for a few critics the most puzzling of the nineteenth century Burwick makes the edition complete with a comprehensive index and a selected bibliography

The Collected Writings of Thomas De Quincey Thomas De Quincey, 1890 Central and Eastern European Literary Theory and the West Michał Mrugalski, Schamma Schahadat, Irina Wutsdorff, 2022-12-05 Literary theory flourished in Central and Eastern Europe throughout the twentieth century but its relation to Western literary scholarship is complex This book sheds light on the entangled histories of exchange and influence both within the region known as Central and Eastern Europe and between the region and the West The exchange of ideas between scholars in the East and West was facilitated by both personal and institutional relations both official and informal encounters For the longest time however intellectual exchange was thwarted by political tensions that led to large parts of Central and Eastern Europe being isolated from the West A few literary theories nevertheless made it into Western scholarly discourses via exiled scholars Some of these scholars such as Mikhail Bakhtin become widely known in the West and their thought was transposed onto new Western cultural contexts others such as Olga Freidenberg were barely noticed outside of Russian and Poland This volume draws attention to the schools circles and concepts that shaped the development of theory in Central and Eastern Europe as well as the histoire croisée the history of translations transformations and migrations that conditioned its relationship with the West

A Rhetoric of Aesthetic Power Christian Kock, 2024-10-18 This book offers a theory of those formal properties of art that are apt to afford strong aesthetic experience a project resembling Aristotle's in the Poetics where he analysed structures in tragedies that condition the peculiar pleasure of tragedy However the book's scope cuts across all genres of literature and also includes classical music the formal art par excellence Drawing on a wide array of recent theoretical work and empirical evidence the book closely analyses dozens of examples of both art forms Besides Aristotle major inspiration comes from two modern master thinkers the linguist Roman Jakobson who defined the poetic function of language and the rhetorician Kenneth Burke who proposed a psychological concept of form Throughout the book argues for aesthetic experience as an end in itself and a component of quality of life one to which everyone should have access rather than just a means to other ends
