in Mother Tongue Education 1 Gilles Gagné, Alan C. Purves, 1993 World Yearbook of Education 2003 Jill Bourne, Euan Reid, 2003-12-16 The issues raised by the role of language in education are some of the most important and contentious faced by education systems across the globe Language is embedded in the concepts of nationhood and identity and is therefore directly linked to the very social and political fabric of a country In a climate of increasing globalisation development and mobility of populations nations around the world are concerned with the tension between cultivating a sense of cultural and linguistic cohesion and making use of the linguistic diversity that exists in every country and region This book examines the implications and impacts the dilemmas and potential for language education in relation to education systems and wider society Split into three key parts it considers current issues in language education including the role of language in maintaining power and inequalities in encouraging participation and inclusion and in challenging the status quo different approaches to language education around the world the potential for language to provide opportunities for the disadvantaged illustrated by case studies of three cities This recent volume of the internationally respected World Yearbook of Education continues the tradition of offering a wide range of international perspectives from leading commentators on a universal concern The material amassed here will be essential reading for teacher educators education researchers and school leaders across the world Dialect and Education Jenny Cheshire, 1989 All European countries face educational problems that result from the co existence of a national standard variety of language and a range of indigenous dialects There has been a considerable amount of serious research into the issues during the last 25 years particularly in Continental Europe but until now relatively little of this research has been published in English Selected Works of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Ravindra Kumar, 1991 Advances in Comparative Survey Methods Timothy P. Johnson, Beth-Ellen Pennell, Ineke A. L. Stoop, Brita Dorer, 2018-09-24 Covers the latest methodologies and research on international comparative surveys with contributions from noted experts in the field Advances in Comparative Survey Methodology examines the most recent advances in methodology and operations as well as the technical developments in international survey research With contributions from a panel of international experts the text includes information on the use of Big Data in concert with survey data collecting biomarkers the human subject regulatory environment innovations in data collection methodology and sampling techniques use of paradata across the survey lifecycle metadata standards for dissemination and new analytical techniques This important resource Contains contributions from key experts in their respective fields of study from around the globe Highlights innovative approaches in resource poor settings and innovative approaches to combining survey and other data Includes material that is organized within the total survey error framework Presents extensive and up to date references throughout the book Written for students and academic survey researchers and market researchers engaged in comparative projects this text represents a unique collaboration that features the latest methodologies and research on global comparative surveys Satyendra Nath Bose -- His Life And Times: Selected Works (With Commentary) Kameshwar

C Wali,2009-04-01 Satyendra Nath Bose became a legendary figure of science in the 20th century in India with his revolutionary discovery on the nature of radiation Despite the association with Einstein however little is known about him outside of India This book highlights the remarkable intellect and the extraordinary personality of Bose set against the backdrop of a rich Bengali cultural tradition and British Indian politics Unlike other books covering the significance of Bose s discovery this book describes his diverse scientific contributions to India s scientific community by bringing together selected articles and addresses by Bose as well as contributions from some well known scientists on the many faceted life of Bose thus making it a truly unique volume Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts Gabriela C. Zapata,Mary

Kalantzis,Bill Cope,2023-12-22 Multiliteracies in International Educational Contexts Towards Education Justice examines how multiliteracies and Learning by Design have been taken up across international second language instructional contexts with a focus on inclusive practices and social justice This edited collection brings together a team of international contributors to offer a global perspective on the application of multiliteracies in L2 education Through the analysis of classroom based qualitative and quantitative data on different aspects of the multiliteracies pedagogy the book shows how the multiliteracies pedagogy can facilitate more inclusive practices while providing suggestions for pedagogical interventions and future research This book will be a key resource for language educators researchers and practitioners interested in the multiliteracies pedagogy as well as those interested in critical and social justice approaches to language teaching

Mathematics Environmental Studies Learning, Keeping, and Using Language M.A.K. Halliday, John Gibbons, Howard Nicholas, 1990-01-01 This volume contains selected papers from the Eight World Congress of Applied Linguistics held in Sydney in 1987 Volume I starts off with an overview of the field by G Richard Tucker in which he identifies two areas innovative language education and language education policy The overall focus of the papers to follow focus on the individual language learner how that individual in given contexts or in interaction with specific others develops a command of a first language of two or more first languages or of a second language in home and in classroom settings At the same time cutting across these variables there is a gradual shifting of attention from investigations of the language learning process to proposals for language teaching curricula and syllabuses Language Policy and Economics: The Language Question in Africa Nkonko M. Kamwangamalu, 2016-04-23 This book addresses the perennial question of how to promote Africa's indigenous languages as medium of instruction in educational systems Breaking with the traditional approach to the continent's language question by focusing on the often overlooked issue of the link between African languages and economic development Language Policy and Economics argues that African languages are an integral part of a nation's socio political and economic development Therefore the book argues that any language policy designed to promote these languages in such higher domains as the educational system in particular must have economic advantages if the intent is to succeed and proposes Prestige Planning as the way to address this issue The proposition is a welcome break away from language policies which pay lip service to the empowerment of African languages while by default strengthening the stranglehold of imported European languages The Selected Works of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad: 1953-1954 Ravindra Kumar, 1991

Pathways to Multilingualism Tara Williams Fortune, Diane J. Tedick, 2008 Aimed at facilitating cross context dialogue knowledge exchange this volume brings together an international roster of scholars to offer theoretical perspectives research reviews empirical studies on teaching learning language development in immersion education The Selected Works of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad: 1957-1958 Ravindra Kumar, 1991 Teaching Chinese Language in Singapore Kaycheng Soh, 2016-03-18 This collection of articles begins with an overview of the Reviews from past decades then goes on to describe the current practices and foretells the possible future developments This is followed by a discussion of the use of ICT and surveys on several professional aspects of teaching including teachers training needs and perception of student difficulties assessment literacy familiarity and use of language teaching strategies as well as perceived social status and job satisfaction The book ends with an extensive discussion of bilingualism and code switching as well as the teaching of Chinese culture in Singapore schools The comprehensive coverage provides a milestone in Chinese Language teaching in the multi lingual context of Singapore Library of Southern Literature: Selected works, with biographical sketches Edwin Anderson Alderman, Charles Alphonso Smith, 1909
