Selected Works Of Deng Xiaoping 197582 V 2:

Deng Xiaoping Michael Dillon, 2014-10-27 One of the most important figures in global politics during the second half of the 20th century Deng Xiaoping is generally considered the central figure behind China's economic liberalization programme that produced historically unprecedented growth rates and development beginning in the late 1970s Lifting nearly a billion people out of poverty Deng Xiaoping's Four Modernisations called for reform in agriculture industry military and science and technology Today these reforms are considered to be the crucial turning point in modern Chinese history enabling China to effectively harness its previously latent power in its quest to become a global economic superpower Just ten years after this tremendous achievement Deng's brutal suppression of the democracy movement at Tiananmen Square severely undermined his international and domestic reputation To explain the seeming contradictions between Deng Xiaoping's desire for economic liberalization and political conservatism Michael Dillon's biography utilizes recently released Chinese sources to detail Deng Xiaoping's emergence from a minority second class community in the Sichuan province via education in France to his meteoric rise to the top of the CCP's political hierarchy illustrating the ways in which his life of struggle and survival shaped his political career Dillon's biography addresses Xiaoping as both an intensely committed communist capable of playing a principal role in the Great Leap Forward from 1958 to 1961 while incurring the wrath of Mao only ten years later as he was exiled and purged during the Cultural Revolution Emphasizing Deng Xiaoping's effectiveness as a party operator and political bruiser rather than an intellectual capable of formulating the reforms for which he eventually took credit this book sheds light on Deng's ability to capitalize upon the planning expertise of other party members This biography of the central figure in China's economic liberalization is essential for any reader interested in or affected by China's rise to global prominence

From Post-Maoism to Post-Marxism Kalpana Misra,1998 This text chronicles Deng Xiaoping's institution of far reaching and practical economic reforms that seem at odds with Communist theory and its emphasis on ideology In fact while Deng often turned to Mao for ideological justification of his reforms those very reforms seemed to wear away to official ideology Ultimately even though the post Mao government has fostered economic growth improved standards of living and intellectual pluralism these changes have resulted in a decline on the perceived legitimacy of the regime The International Environment and China's Twin Models of Development Lai Sing Lam,2007 Mao's twin political cum economic development models did not evolve alone from the internal environment Rather they were historically constructed in relation to the developments in the Sino US and Sino USSR relations This work traces the complex role that these relations had in the formation of Mao's worldview of the West and the Soviet Union as a hostile international environment The author looks at the intricate interactions between China and each of the twin superpowers or both in unison Mao's leadership and the masses and his development model during his time as well as the post Mao's development model he created in a favourable international environment starting in 1971 The book seeks to explain how political economic and cultural changes were produced through various processes of interactions whether the Great Leap Forward the Cultural Revolution the present on going modernization revolution trade or global participation From Post-Maoism to Post-Marxism , Routledge Library Editions: China Under Mao Various,2021-06-23 This 13 volume collection of previously out of print titles reissues some key works in the study of Mao Zedong's huge influence on China its politics economics and

Schoenhals, 2009-06-30 The Cultural Revolution was a watershed event in the history of the People s Republic of China the defining decade of half a century of communist rule Before 1966 China was a typical communist state with a command economy and a powerful party able to keep the population under control But during the Cultural Revolution in a move unprecedented in any communist country Mao unleashed the Red Guards against the party Tens of thousands of officials were humiliated tortured and even killed Order had to be restored by the military whose methods were often equally brutal In a masterly book Roderick MacFarquhar and Michael Schoenhals explain why Mao launched the Cultural Revolution and show his Machiavellian role in masterminding it which Chinese publications conceal In often horrifying detail they document the Hobbesian state that ensued The movement veered out of control and terror paralyzed the country Power struggles raged among Lin Biao Zhou Enlai Deng Xiaoping and Jiang Qing Mao s wife and leader of the Gang of Four while Mao often played one against the other After Mao s death in reaction to the killing and the chaos Deng Xiaoping led China into a reform era in which capitalism flourishes and the party has lost its former authority In its invaluable critical analysis of Chairman Mao and its brilliant portrait of a culture in turmoil Mao s Last Revolution offers the most authoritative and compelling account to date of this seminal event in the history of China Law and Development in East and South-East Asia Christoph

Antons, 2005-10-05 During the 1980s and 1990s Asian developmental states attracted much attention in political science and economics literature but the role of law in the economic development was neglected It was only after the Asian crisis of 1997 that many analysts began to focus on a lack of regulation and transparency as a major factor triggering the crisis The crucial questions now are how successful the current reforms will be and which features of the Asian approach to commercial law will be resistant to reform pressures This book examines the prospects for commercial law reform in Asia giving particular attention to Japan and Singapore as frequently cited role models for Asian developmentalism and also examining development related business laws in countries such as China Korea Indonesia Malaysia Vietnam and the Philippines
