Selections From Longman World History Volume Ii Primary Sources And Case Studies:

Selections from Longman World History, Volume II Professor George F. Jewsbury, 2002-11 Selections from Longman World History, Volume I George F. Jewsbury, 2003 Selections from Longman World History George F. Jewsbury, Longman, 2001-08 Selections from Longman World History George F. Jewsbury, 2003 This volume offers a range of primary documents to illustrate characteristic features of key civilizations during major stages of world history from around 1450 to modern times including contrasts and comparisons among major societies. Historians analyze documents with the same objective attitude employed by scientists examining natural phenomena. By reading primary documents, students gain direct access to the identities of the world's peoples expressed through their religious practices, oral traditions, literatures, and governmental archives. These documents are the touchstones of who our global neighbors are, where they come from, and where they and we are going. Selections from Longman World History George F. Jewsbury, 2002-09-01. Selections from Longman World History Primary Sources and Case Studies presents the best of the thought-provoking primary sources and case studies found in the new Longmanworldhistory.com website. This collection encourages students to analyze the themes, issues, and complexities of world history in a meaningful, exciting, and informative way. Program of the ... Annual Meeting American Historical Association. Meeting, 2002 American Book Publishing Record, 2005 The Modern Centuries Peter N. Stearns, 2003 Books in Print Supplement, 2002 World History in Brief: To 1450 Peter N. Stearns, 2002. With its brief, global rather than West-centered approach, World History in Brief Fourth Edition seeks to show how different civilizations developed in a global context and then encountered the various forces of contemporary life. The brevity of this text allows instructors to take advantage of additional readings. Rather than overwhelm students, the chief goal of World History in Brief is to present the big picture to facilitate comparison and assessment of change and to highlight the major developments in the world's history. Finally, this text also presents the global interactions of major civilizations so that students can compare and assess changes. A Brief History of Western Civilization Mark A. Kishlansky, Patrick J. Geary, Patricia O'Brien, 2005. Brings the study of Western Civilization with balanced coverage of an array of historical figures and events. Including integrated coverage of social as well as economic, religious, and cultural history within a traditional political framework, it explores everyday events and ordinary people as well as momentous affairs and powerful elites. The West Brian P. Levack, Michael Maas, Edward Muir, Meredith Veldman, 2004. The West Encounters and Transformations takes a new approach to telling the story of Western Civilization. Rather than looking at Western Civilization only as the history of Europe from ancient times to the present, this groundbreaking book examines the changing nature of the West: how the definition of the West has evolved and transformed throughout history. It explores the ways Western civilization has changed as a result of cultural encounters with different beliefs, ideas, technologies, and peoples both outside the West and within it. Presenting a balanced treatment of political, social, religious, and cultural history, this new text emphasizes the ever shifting boundaries of the geographic and cultural realm of the West with special attention given to Eastern Europe and the Muslim world Africa Asia and the Americas Technology in World Civilization Arnold Pacey,1991-07-01 Most general histories of technology are Eurocentrist focusing on a main line of Western technology that stretches from the Greeks is through the computer In this very different book Arnold Pacey takes a global view placing the development of technology squarely in a world civilization He portrays the process as a complex dialectic by which inventions borrowed from one culture are adopted to suit another Media Studies Paul Long,2014-07-10 Media Studies Texts Production Context 2nd Edition is a comprehensive introduction to the various approaches in the field From outlining what media studies is to encouraging active engagement in research and analysis this book advocates media study as a participatory process and provides a framework and set of skills to help you develop critical thinking Updated to reflect the changing media environment Media Studies retains the highly praised approach and style of the first edition Key Features Five sections media texts and meanings producing media media audiences media and social contexts historiography examine approaches to the field including new and web media traditional print and broadcast media popular music computer games photography and film An international perspective allows you to view media in a global context Examines media audiences as consumers listeners readerships and members of communities Guidance on analytical tools language a range of theories and analytical techniques to give you the confidence to navigate research and make sense of the field New for the second edition New case studies including Google My Big Fat Gypsy Wedding the life of a freelance journalist phone hacking at News International and collaborative journalism New Media New Media Studies is an additional feature which brings into focus ways of thinking about new media forms Media Studies Texts Production Context 2nd Edition will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies film studies the sociology of the media popular culture and other related subjects Women in the New Millennium Anne Breneman,2006-02-28 In this dynamic analysis of the gender revolution authors Anne Breneman and Rebecca Mbuhi create a platform for scholars from a variety of cultures to reflect upon their experiences as women and men in gendered cultures and upon their visions of prospects for gender equality and empowerment Conceived during the United Nations Fourth World Women's Conference in 1995 and continued during the Beijing 5 conference in 2000 this work represents the culmination of a ten year project involving women from China Sweden Korea Cameroon Indonesia South Africa and the USA Organized in five parts Beginning Women Awakening Women Arising Hazards of Growing up Female and Reflections and Prospects Women in the New Millennium includes perspectives in the form of scholarship historical narratives and interview materials aimed at contributing to public awareness of the global nature of the gender revolution With their analyses and examples of the expanding gender revolution Breneman and Mbuhi seek to stimulate an interdisciplinary international dialogue that leads to the further creation of action plans and will ultimately contribute to the empowerment of women and the equality of women and men in the new millennium Resources in Education ,1995-04 The History of Turkey Douglas A. Burston dec'd,Cyril Green,E Nicholas,A Dickinson,D Thompson,2021-12-24 First published in 1972 Handbook for History Teachers is intended to be a general and comprehensive work of reference for teachers of history in primary and secondary schools of all kinds The book covers all aspects of teaching history among them are the use of sources world history art and history principles of constructing a syllabus and the psychological aspects of history teaching The bibliographical sections are arranged on three parts school textbooks a section on audio visual aids and finally books for the teacher and possibly for the sixth form It thoroughly investigates and critiques the various methods employed in teaching history within classrooms and suggests alternatives wherever applicable Diligently curated by the Standing Sub Committee in History University of London Institute of Education the book still holds immense value in the understanding of pedagogy Re-Imagining Citizenship Education Pablo C. Ramirez,2023-06-01 In this special edition we call attention to the role of Critical Multicultural Citizenship Education CMCE in schools societies and global contexts The fundamental goal of CMCE is to increase not only the students awareness of and participation in the political aspects of democracy but also students abilities to create and live in an ethnically diverse and just community Global migration and increasing diversity within nations are challenging conceptions of citizenship all over the world The percentage of ethnic minorities in nation states throughout the world has increased significantly within the past 30 years The United States Census for example projects that 50% of the population will consist of culturally linguistically racially ethnic and religiously diverse groups by 2050 With an increase growth of diversity within national borders issues concerning educational equity equality and civic engagement have not always been well attended to in educational and societal contexts Growing ethnic diversity in schools society has not automatically led to a dismantling of persistent educational barriers or structural inequalities In the past decade culturally ethnically and linguistically diverse populations have faced barriers impacting their rights as citizens in the United States and international contexts Citizenship and the rights that are associated with being a citizen are re framed when culturally ethnically and linguistically students seek equality In 2020 many urban cities in the United States witnessed Latino Black youth demonstrate peacefully guided by social justice and their civic responsibilities Similarly in international contexts students have demonstrated civil disobedience by expressing concerns about their rights as citizens and the disempowerment of communities We emphatically believe that students in K 12 settings must begin to understand their rights as citizens and also advocate for the rights of others in order for communities in the U S and international contexts to achieve democracy
