Selections from the Quran Abul-Fazl (mirza),1998 The Publisher ,1910 Inner Development Cris Popenoe,1979 The Sterling Book of Selections from the QUR'AN O.P Ghai,2011-05 The Qur an is one of the most widely read books in the world For more than fourteen hundred years the Qur an has remained one of the major sources of inspiration for a good life for millions across the seven continents The Selections from the Qur an rendered by Mr Ghai into clear intelligible English is a bold and creative attempt to bring to the attention of the common people the essence and wide range of the teachings of the Qur an It would undoubtedly be a source of knowledge enlightenment and inspiration It would promote a better understanding of Islam and of the message that Muhammad conveyed to all mankind Rasheeduddin Khan To the ever growing number of English speaking readers looking for a volume which will tell them the essential message of the Qur an in one sitting I cannot commend a book as readily as the present one S A Ali former Director Institute of Islamic Studies Hamdard University God in the Qur'an Jack Miles,2019-10-22 Who is Allah What does He ask of those who submit to His teachings Pulitzer Prize winner Jacke Miles gives us a deeply probing revelatory portrait of the world s second largest fastest growing and perhaps most tragically misunderstood religion In doing so Miles illuminates what is unique about Allah His teachings and His resolutely merciful temperament and he thereby reveals that which is false distorted or simply absent from the popular conception of the heart of Islam So too does Miles uncover the spiritual and scriptural continuity of the Islamic tradition with those of Judaism and Christianity and the deep affinities among the three by setting passages from the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur an side by side In the spirit of his two previous books God and Christ and with his characteristic sensitivity perspicacity and prodigious command of the subject Miles calls for us all to read another s scriptures with the same understanding and accommodating eye that we turn upon our own First Man book (Goodword) Saniyasnain Khan ,2015-01-24 The People of the Book (Goodword) Saniyasnain Khan,2014-03-31 Introduce your children to religious tolerance at an early age Through simple text and magnificent colour illustrations this book tells them how the Quran teaches us to be tolerant and courteous with people of other faiths and to present the teachings of Islam to them in the most cordial mannner Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd,2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue

God Created the Universe with the Purpose to Serve Humankind Fateh Ullah Khan,2009 Science Under Islam Sayyed M. Deen,2007 The book describes the rise of science and technology in the Islamic Golden Age examines the causes that led to its decline reviews failed later attempts for its revival and finally discusses social and religious reformation needed for it to flourish in contemporary Muslim societies Social reformation covers rule of law democratic infra structure and human rights while religious reformation involves the reinterpretation of scripture It is argued that without such a social and religious reformation Muslims a quarter of the earth s population will be less able to participate in the science driven 21st century world Note that Muslim leaders in the UK and elsewhere are not addressing the need of such an essential reformation without which Muslims as a people will remain in a limbo and thus continue to be vulnerable to extremist ideas Therefore this book should be a must for all those interested in the creation of a harmonious one world Look at www.scienceunderislam.com for more information

the meaning of the Qur'an while the Ministry of Religious Affairs publishes its own Qur'an translations into many of the country's languages. The contributors also explore the influential role of the Ahmadiyya movement in shaping Qur'an translation in Indonesia. Moreover, they examine the specific challenges that translators face when rendering the Qur'an in languages with structures, histories, and cultural contexts that are vastly different from Arabic. Opening up the work of Indonesian scholars to a wider audience, this book will appeal to anyone interested in Qur'anic studies and Islam in the Southeast Asia region.

The Qur'an Heard Timur R. Yuskaev, 2024-11-29. For many Muslims, there is an inseparable connection between sound and meaning, particularly when it comes to Islamic verse and scripture. This provides fertile ground for a comparative study across traditions and forms. Timur Yuskaev offers a meditation on the Qur'an and human sensibilities heard together in American Muslim sermons. Foregrounding sound, poetry, and music, it is a cultural anthropology of the Qur'an carried out in conversation with colleagues in multiple disciplines, including Religions in America, Qur'anic Islamic Memory, Communication, and Sound Studies. The author draws upon the works of Mikhail Bakhtin, Charles Long, Mary Douglas, and many others to hear mysticism in a homiletic symphony by Warith Deen Mohammed, to sense the experience of the covenant in a three-minute ribbon-cutting speech by Aras Konjodzic, and to appreciate the Qur'anic musicality of a down-to-earth interfaith address by Sarah Sayeed. A creative guide to an organic engagement with texts, this book will be of particular interest to those studying scriptures and the Qur'an.

Juan de Segovia and the Qur'an Davide Scotto, 2024-09-02. In spring 1456, with the help of the faqih Y. A. Gidelli, Juan de Segovia accomplished a trilingual Qur'an: Castilian, Arabic, and Latin. He regarded it as fundamental to the conversion of the Muslims after the Ottoman conquest of Byzantium. This book delves into Segovia's program from his university lectures at Salamanca to the disputes held with Muslims in Castile, from the doctrinal debates at the Council of Basel to his exile in the Duchy of Savoy and the destiny of his books. Segovia deemed the await of miracles, preaching in Islamic lands, and the Crusade promoted by the papacy to be useless. On the contrary, he considered knowledge of the Qur'an as unavoidable for Christian scholars engaged in the study of Islam, but also for Muslims who were supposed to understand Christian doctrine through their own law. It will be shown how Segovia's proposal is far from echoing modern concerns for religious tolerance, pacifism, and Arabic studies, let alone twentieth-century interreligious dialogue. Drawing on Biblical exegesis, Segovia called his program via pacis et doctrine and discussed it with influential churchmen such as Nicholas of Cusa and Enea Silvio Piccolomini. He believed mutual exchange of doctrinal ideas to be the only solution to stem wars and persuade Muslims to convert voluntarily to the Christian faith.
