Self Reliance In Kenya The Case Of Harambee:

Self Reliance in Kenya Philip M. Mbithi, Rasmus Rasmusson, 1977 The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman, Karuti Kanyinga, Gabrielle Lynch, 2020-02-14 Kenya is one of the most politically dynamic and influential countries in sub Saharan Africa Today it is known in equal measure as a country that has experienced great highs and tragic lows In the 1960s and 1970s Kenya was seen as a success story of development in the periphery and also led the way in terms of democratic breakthroughs in 2010 when a new constitution devolved power and placed new constraints on the president However the country has also made international headlines for the kind of political instability that occurs when electoral violence is expressed along ethnic lines such as during the Kenya crisis of 2007 08 when over 1 000 people lost their lives and almost 700 000 were displaced The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics explains these developments and many more drawing together 50 specially commissioned chapters by leading researchers The chapters they have contributed address a range of essential topics including the legacy of colonial rule ethnicity land politics devolution the constitution elections democracy foreign aid the informal economy civil society human rights the International Criminal Court the growing influence of China economic policy electoral violence and the impact of mobile phone technology In addition to covering some of the most important debates about Kenyan politics the volume provides an insightful overview of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day and features a set of chapters that review the impact of devolution on regional politics in every part of the country Africa Toyin Falola, Daniel Jean-Jacques, 2015-12-14 These volumes offer a one stop resource for researching the lives customs and cultures of Africa's nations and peoples Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves The three volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa s 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading Working with Rural Communities Participatory Action Research in Kenya P. Chitere, Roberta Mutiso, 1991-12-29 This book addresses itself to mobilisation and involvement of rural people in development projects It describes an imperfect but nonetheless exciting and thought provoking exercise that drew social science researchers and students from four public universities in Kenya into an experiment in participatory research community education and development in two locations The experiment was grounded on the assumptions that the people of Kenya are a primary resource and that given proper roles and contribution of planners researchers and programme implementers self sustainable development can become a reality The contributors of this book have focused on the potential of the university to facilitate participation of the people in development They have given specific suggestions on how this might be accomplished Tax and Development: Solving Kenyas Fiscal Crisis through Human Rights Attiya Waris, 2013 Taxation is perceived by citizens as a compulsory contribution to the state yet the legitimacy of the state rests on the publics acceptance of the states right to levy tax and redistribute it in such a manner as to promote the overall good of society The modern developing state can be said to be facing a crisis of fiscal legitimacy afflicted by poor governance poor societal participation corruption and a lack of accountability This book investigates whether a possible remedy in averting the fiscal crisis is firstly to re establish a link between taxation and government expenditure in the developing state and to utilise human rights law principles and policies to link tax revenue to expenditure through re distribution This thesis will consider whether human rights may be the tool or vehicle for citizens to assess fiscal allocations It analyses developing countries with reference to Brazil and India and more specifically Kenya Inequality, Socio-cultural Differentiation and Social Structures in Africa Dieter Neubert, 2019-06-25 This book contends that conventional class concepts are not able to adequately capture social inequality and socio cultural differentiation in Africa Earlier empirical findings concerning ethnicity neo traditional authorities patron client relations lifestyles gender social networks informal social security and even the older debate on class in Africa have provided evidence that class concepts do not apply yet these findings have mostly been ignored For an analysis of the social structures and persisting extreme inequality in African societies and in other societies of the world we need to go beyond class consider the empirical realities and provincialise our conventional theories This book develops a new framework for the analysis of social structure based on empirical findings and more nuanced approaches including livelihood analysis and intersectionality and will be useful for students and scholars in African studies and development studies sociology social anthropology political science and geography Allies or Adversaries Jennifer N. Brass, 2016-08-18 Governments throughout the developing world have witnessed a proliferation of non governmental non profit organizations NGOs providing services like education healthcare and piped drinking water in their territory In Allies or Adversaries Jennifer N Brass explains how these NGOs have changed the nature of service provision governance and state development in the early twenty first century Analyzing original surveys alongside interviews with public officials NGOs and citizens Brass traces street level government NGO and state society relations in rural town and city settings of Kenya She examines several case studies of NGOs within Africa in order to demonstrate how the boundary between purely state and non state actors blurs resulting in a very slow turn toward more accountable and democratic public service administration Ideal for scholars international development practitioners and students interested in global or international affairs this detailed analysis provides rich data about NGO government and citizen state interactions in an accessible and original manner Global Servant-Leadership Shann Ray Ferch, Philip Mathew, Jiving Song, Larry C. Spears, 2020-11-12 In Global Servant Leadership Wisdom Love and Legitimate Power in the Age of Chaos leadership scholars and practitioners from around the globe share their insights on servant leadership philosophy representing diverse contexts and cultures and reflecting a variety of approaches to servant leadership through cutting edge research conceptual models and practice oriented case studies The contributors to this collection address some of the most significant leadership challenges of the twenty first century to reveal a path toward more healthy and sustainable individuals families organizations and nations Global Servant Leadership challenges not only the rigidly held assumptions of traditional hierarchical leadership approaches but provides an antidote to the cynicism so often present within workplaces political struggles and individual and family crises of contemporary polarized nation states Development in Practice (Routledge Revivals) Doug Porter, Bryant Allen, Gaye Thompson, 2014-06-03 The Magarini Settlement Project in Kenya is typical of many large Third World rural development projects of recent years not least in its failure to fulfil even minimum goals First published in 1991 Development in Practice explores the reasons for this projects failure and looks at the lessons to be learned from this experience for development in general Challenging many assumptions and approaches its provocative conclusions will generate much interest amongst development practitioners Middle Classes in Africa Lena Kroeker, David O'Kane, Tabea Scharrer, 2018-02-19 This volume challenges the concept of the new African middle class with new theoretical and empirical insights into the changing lives in Sub Saharan Africa Diverse middle classes are on the rise but models of class based on experiences from other regions of the world cannot be easily transferred to the African continent Empirical contributions drawn from a diverse range of contexts address both African histories of class formation and the political roles of the continent's middle classes and also examine the important interdependencies that cut across intergenerational urban rural and class divides This thought provoking book argues emphatically for a revision of common notions of the middle class and for the inclusion of insights from the South into the global debate on class Middle Classes in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines as well as NGOs and policy makers with an interest in African societies

Fostering Long-Term Sustainable Development in Africa David Mhlanga, Mufaro Dzingirai, 2024-08-31 This book provides a broad and insightful guide to the economic social and environmental concerns seen within Africa It highlights the central economic challenges faced by African countries and outlines ways in which long term sustainable development in Africa can be achieved A particular focus in given to issues of poverty inequality and unemployment and how poor infrastructure limited healthcare and education and environmental deterioration are exacerbating these issues By looking at the limited effectiveness of traditional development initiatives a new framework for economic development is presented that focuses on community ownership and long term sustainability and which acknowledges the history of colonisation economic exploitation and political instability that has held Africa back in the past This book takes hope from countries within the Global South that have moved towards sustainable development and sets out ways in which other countries can follow them It will be relevant to students researchers and policymakers interested in development and environmental economics

African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, Tshikolomo, Khathutshelo Alfred, 2019-11-22 Development studies in developing regions such as Southern Africa rely heavily on materials developed by Europeans with a European context European dominance in development studies emanates from the fact that the discipline was first developed by Europeans Some argue that this has led to distortions in theory and practice of development in Southern Africa This book wishes to begin Africa s expedition to develop proper material to de Westernize while Africanizing the context of the scholarship of rural development African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development is an essential reference source that repositions the context of rural development studies from the Western centric knowledge system into an African context in order to solve African centered problems Featuring research on topics such as food security poverty reduction and community engagement this book is ideally designed for planners researchers practitioners policymakers government officials academicians and students seeking clarity on theory and practice of development in Africa

Sayigh, 2002-03-11 The oil boom prompted a massive inflow of capital violence and poverty into the Arab region But whilst the investment this facilitated clearly had benefits for the region the developmental achievements of the boom decade are demonstrably unable to match the magnitude of the resources directed to development and the reasonable expectations invested in it Professor Yusif Sayigh draws a powerful and painful lesson from this experience applicable to other areas you cannot buy development it must be soundly oriented and sought with resolve by society s leaderships and a people enjoying a large measure of freedom and political participation Religion and Development in Southern and Central Africa: Vol 1 N. Amanze, Maake Masango, 2019-12-09 This book is a result of a joint conference which was held from 18th 22nd July 2017 under the theme Religion Citizenship and Development Southern African Perspectives The theme of the conference was adopted in order to underline the importance and significance of religion in the socio economic development of people in the world generally and in Southern and Central Africa in particular

The papers in the book are divided into two volumes Volume one consists of papers which directly discuss religion and development in one form or another The second volume contains papers that discuss religion and other pertinent issues related to development The papers are grouped into sub themes for ease of reference These include Citizenship and Development Migration and Development Disability and Development Pentecostal Churches and Development and Religion and Society All in all despite a divergence of sub themes in volume two all point to issues to do with the role of religion in Feminism and Anthropology Henrietta L. Moore, 1988 development in Southern and Central Africa today Anthropological studies even those describing women's roles usually reflect a male dominated model of the world Moore argues that feminist anthropology emphasizing the construction of differences and the relation of gender to class race culture and history has the potential to address important theoretical issues in both fields Paper edition 15 95 1750 3 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Women in the Third World Lynne Brydon, 1989 Women in the Third World provides an up to date general account and review of research on the roles and status of women in contemporary Third World societies The book focuses on four major themes of underdevelopment which have particular relevance for gender roles and relations the household production reproduction and policy These issues are illustrated with material from rural and urban areas in all parts of the Third World The book summarizes significant ideas and findings Lynne Brydon and Sylvia Chang have avoided a narrow focus on particular regions and countries to provide a synoptic overview In addition to being a valuable source of reference for scholars interested in gender and development in the Third World the book also attempts to pinpoint fundamental aspects of gender inequality which apply to women everywhere The overriding conclusion of the book is that women s experiences of development are generally negative and that intervention is urgently required to prevent their positions relative to men s deteriorating still further African Socialism in Postcolonial Tanzania Priya Lal, 2015-12 Drawing on a wide range of oral and written sources this book tells the story of Tanzania s socialist experiment the ujamaa villagization initiative of 1967 75 Inaugurated shortly after independence ujamaa familyhood in Swahili both invoked established socialist themes and departed from the existing global repertoire of development policy seeking to reorganize the Tanzanian countryside into communal villages to achieve national development Priya Lal investigates how Tanzanian leaders and rural people creatively envisioned ujamaa and documents how villagization unfolded on the ground without affixing the project to a trajectory of inevitable failure By forging an empirically rich and conceptually nuanced account of ujamaa African Socialism in Postcolonial Tanzania restores a sense of possibility and process to the early years of African independence refines prevailing theories of nation building and development and expands our understanding of the 1960s and 70s world
