Long Journey Home Stories From Black History:

Long Journey Home Julius Lester, 1972 Meet Rambler a runaway slave roaming the countryside with a guitar who knows the only way to stay free is to keep moving Louis is another runaway fleeing the plantation where he was raised because he is about to be sold And Jake and Mandy s marriage is damaged by slavery and destroyed by freedom Here is the African American experience brought alive by a master storyteller Lester has an eye for capturing the essence of a human experience AHis work boldly proclaims the heritage of African Americans The New York Times Book Review

Long Journey Home Julius Lester, 1988-02-01 Six short stories drawn from history record black Americans struggle for freedom during the days of slavery chronicling the lives of a blues singer a cowboy two lovers forced apart when the girl is sold and a traveler on the Underground Railroad

Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present As the only reference volume of its kind available this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children s literature whether one is a student a librarian charged with maintaining a children s literature collection or a scholar of children s literature The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children s literature and books for young adults The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author illustrator entries the addition of approximately 50 new profiles and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children s literature

Tending to the Past Karen Michele Chandler, 2024-01-18 In many popular depictions of Black resistance to slavery stereotypes around victimization and the heroic efforts of a small number of individuals abound These ideas ignore the powers of ordinary families and obscure the systematic working of racism Tending to the Past Selfhood and Culture in Children s Narratives about Slavery and Freedom examines Black authored historical novels and films for children that counter this distortion and depict creative means by which ordinary African Americans survived slavery and racism in early America Tending to the Past argues that this important understudied historical writing freedom narratives calls on young readers to be active critical thinkers about the past and its legacies within the present The book examines how narratives by children s book authors such as Joyce Hansen Julius Lester Marilyn Nelson and Patricia McKissack and the filmmakers Charles Burnett and Zeinabu irene Davis were influenced by Black cultural imperatives such as the Black Arts Movement to foster an engaged culturally aware public Through careful analysis of this rich body of work Tending to the Past thus contributes to ongoing efforts to construct a history of Black children s literature and film attuned to its range specificity and depths Tending to the Past provides illuminating interpretations that will help scholars and educators see the significance of the freedom narratives reconstructions in a neoliberal era a time of shrinking opportunities for many African Americans It offers models for understanding the powers and continuing relevance of the Black child's creative agency and the Black cultural practices that have fostered it
