Smile Pretty and Say Jesus Hunter James, 2008-09-01 In March 1987 the Reverend Jerry Falwell and the national news media found themselves in rare agreement Jim Bakker the charismatic cash hungry televangelist was an accomplished sinner but a rather unconvincing penitent The story had just broken that Bakker had fornicated with Jessica Hahn a New York church secretary and then tried to pay her off with 256 000 Once exposed Bakker weepily begged Falwell to help him steer his ministry through the scandal Falwell assented but then demanded Bakker's resignation when he learned that the Hahn affair only hinted at Bakker's profligacy The fight was on and those stale jokes were born again PTL the acronym of Bakker's 172 million enterprise stood not for Praise the Lord or People That Love but for Pass the Loot or Pay the Lady Veteran journalist Hunter James covered the story for the Atlanta Journal Constitution from the first report of Bakker's double life until eight chaotic months later when the unwelcome Falwell left the bankrupt ministry in South Carolina and went home for good to his own church in Lynchburg Virginia Smile Pretty and Say Jesus is James's wry personal account of the struggle for control of the PTL enterprise which included a satellite network and a 2 300 acre theme park Heritage USA James's book is valuable for the important distinctions it makes between Pentecostals and Baptist fundamentalists and for its explanation of
