Looking at World Religions Kamal U. Ahmad, 2000-12-01 The SAGE Handbook of International Migration Christine Inglis, Wei Li, Binod Khadria, 2019-11-05 The SAGE Handbook of International Migration provides an authoritative and informed analysis of key issues in international migration including its crucial significance far beyond the more traditional questions of immigrant settlement and incorporation in particular countries Bringing together chapters contributed by an international cast of leading voices in the field the Handbook is arranged around four key thematic parts Part 1 Disciplinary Perspectives on Migration Part 2 Historical and Contemporary Flows of Migrants Part 3 Theory Policy and the Factors Affecting Incorporation Part 4 National and Global Policy Challenges in Migration The last three decades have seen the rapid increase and diversification in the types of international migration and this Handbook has been created to meet the need among academics and researchers across the social sciences policy makers and commentators for a definitive publication which provides a range of perspectives and insights into key themes and debates in the field A Bird's-eye View of the World Onésime Reclus, 1892 Mimetic Theory and World Religions Wolfgang Palaver, Richard Schenk, 2017-11-01 Those who anticipated the demise of religion and the advent of a peaceful secularized global village have seen the last two decades confound their predictions Ren Girard's mimetic theory is a key to understanding the new challenges posed by our world of resurgent violence and pluralistic cultures and traditions Girard sought to explain how the Judeo Christian narrative exposes a founding murder at the origin of human civilization and demystifies the bloody sacrifices of archaic religions Meanwhile his book Sacrifice a reading of conflict and sacrificial resolution in the Vedic Brahmanas suggests that mimetic theory's insights also resonate with several non Western religious and spiritual traditions This volume collects engagements with Girard by scholars of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism and situates them within contemporary theology philosophy and religious studies The Faiths of the World James Gardner, 1858 Thistles Among the Flowers M. James Herbers, 2006 An anthology of religious freedom resources and discussion of the problems of minority faiths where mainline or cultural churches act to harass and prevent the free exercise of minority beliefs especially in collusion with the government Volume 2 will address the specific situation in Germany and Europe in general Baha'i Faith: The Basics Christopher Buck, 2020-11-26 Bah Faith The Basics provides a thorough and accessible introduction to a fascinating independent world religion Examining its historical development current community building efforts and the social contributions of the Bah Faith in the world today this introduction covers Beliefs Bah spiritual teachings Principles Bah social teachings History Bah u l l h and his covenant Scripture Bah sacred texts and inspired guidance Institutions The Bah Administrative Order Building community What Bah's do Social action Bah social and economic development projects Public discourse The Bah International Community Vision Foundations for a future golden age With features including a glossary of terms and references to the Bah writings throughout this is the ideal text for students and interested readers wanting to familiarize themselves with the Bah Faith Understanding Religion Through Artificial Intelligence Justin E. Lane,2021-05-06 In Understanding Religion through Artificial Intelligence Justin E Lane looks at the reasons why humans feel they are part of a religious group despite often being removed from other group members by vast distances or multiple generations To achieve this Lane offers a new perspective that integrates religious studies with psychology anthropology and data science as well as with research at the forefront of Artificial Intelligence AI After providing a critical analysis of approaches to religion and social cohesion Lane proposes a new model for religious studies which he calls the Information Identity System This model focuses on the idea of conceptual ties links between an individual s self concept and the ancient beliefs of their religious group Lane explores this idea through real world examples ranging from the rise in global Pentecostalism to religious extremism and self radicalization to the effect of 9 11 on sermons Lane uses this lens to show how we can understand religion and culture today and how we can better contextualize the changes we see in the social world around us Atlas of Religion in China: Social and Geographical Contexts Fenggang Yang,2018-09-04 The speed and the scale with which traditional religions in China have been revived and new spiritual movements have emerged in recent decades make it difficult for scholars to stay up to date on the religious transformations within Chinese society This unique atlas presents a bird s eye view of the religious landscape in China today In more than 150 full color maps and six different case studies it maps the officially registered venues of China s major religions Buddhism Christianity Protestant and Catholic Daoism and Islam at the national provincial and county levels The atlas also outlines the contours of Confucianism folk religion and the Mao cult Further it describes the main organizations beliefs and rituals of China s main religions as well as the social and demographic characteristics of their respective believers Putting multiple religions side by side in their contexts this atlas deploys the latest qualitative quantitative and spatial data acquired from censuses surveys and fieldwork to offer a definitive overview of religion in contemporary China An essential resource for all scholars and students of religion and society in China Islamic Modernism and the Re-Enchantment of the Sacred in the Age of History Monica M. Ringer,2020-09-04 This book studies the complex relationship of religion to modernity and argues that modernity should be understood as the consequence not the cause of the new intellectual landscape of the 19th century Shows how the adoption of historicism in the 19th century engendered Islamic modernism as a theological reform movement State of the Field and Disciplinary Approaches André Laliberté,Stefania Travagnin,2019-08-05 The three volume project Concepts and Methods for the Study of Chinese Religions presents a history of the study of Chinese religions It evaluates the current state of scholarship discusses a variety of analytical approaches and theories about methodology epistemology and the ontology of the field The three books display an interdisciplinary approach and offer debates that transcend national traditions It engages with a variety of methodologies for the study of East Asian religions and promotes dialogues with Western and Chinese voices This volume covers successive historical stages in the study of religion in modern China draws out the genealogy of major figures and intellectual achievements in a variety of research traditions and highlights as well the challenges and evolutions experienced by the main disciplines in the last 30 years This volume serves as a reference for graduate students and scholars interested by religions in modern Chinese societies i e mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and Chinese communities oversea Using a wide range of methods from textual analysis to fieldwork it presents case studies via the disciplines of religious studies anthropology sociology history and political science The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today s multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world s largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities Buddhist-Christian Dialogue as Theological Exchange Ernest M Valea, 2015-10-29 This book is intended to encourage the use of comparative theology in contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue as a new approach that would truly respect each religious tradition s uniqueness and make dialogue beneficial for all participants interested in a real theological exchange As a result of the impasse reached by the current theologies of religions exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism in formulating a constructive approach in dialogue this volume assesses the thought of the founding fathers of an academic Buddhist Christian dialogue in search of clues that would encourage a comparativist approach These founding fathers are considered to be three important representatives of the Kyoto School Kitaro Nishida Keiji Nishitani and Masao Abe and John Cobb an American process theologian The guiding line for assessing their views of dialogue is the concept of human perfection as it is expressed by the original traditions in Mahayana Buddhism and Orthodox Christianity Following Abe s methodology in dialogue an Orthodox contribution to comparative theology proposes a reciprocal enrichment of traditions not by syncretistic means but by providing a better understanding and even correction of one s own tradition when considering it in the light of the other while using internal resources for making the necessary corrections The Key to the Qigong Meditation State Tianjun Liu,2016-12-21 Focusing on Rujing the meditation state fundamental to Qigong meditation this ground breaking book looks at the practice from the perspective of psychology and cognitive science It describes what happens in mind and body during meditation and how to reach the state of Rujing

An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion Inger Furseth,Pål Repstad,2023-09-05 What are religion and nonreligion How do fundamentalism and religious radicalization emerge and grow How do social class gender sexuality race ethnicity and other factors affect religious beliefs practices and organizations Is religion a fundamental driving force or do political leaders use religion for their own purposes In exploring these pertinent questions An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion provides an overview of sociological theories of contemporary religious life Theoretical discussion is accompanied by presentations of empirical research from several religious traditions in many parts of the world The sociology of religion is linked closely to developments in general sociology Some chapters are organized according to topic while others offer brief presentations of classical and contemporary sociologists from Karl Marx to Patricia Hill Collins and their perspectives on social life including on religion This second edition has been thoroughly updated throughout with new chapters on religion and social inequalities social and religious movements and extremism Covering classical sociology of religion as well as contemporary debates and topics this book is ideal reading for students approaching the sociology of religion for the first time Introducing Theologies of Religion Knitter, Paul F.,2014-04-10 An up to date accessible and comprehensive study of every major position taken by Christian churches and theologians on world religions and religious pluralism This volume shares insights into the positions of writers concerned with understanding Christianity among the worlds great religious traditions Avoiding tired labels of past debates Exclusivism Pluralism and Inclusivism Knitter suggest four different models Replacement Fulfillment Mutuality and Acceptance that more adequately link together thirteen ways of approaching and understanding the variety of the worlds religious expressions Liberation Theology for a Democratic Society Heinrich

Bedford-Strohm,2018 Public Theology is an indispensable dimension of the calling of the church As minister bishop and academic teacher Heinrich Bedford Strohm in this collection of articles in English language draws on a multitude of experiences in theological reflection as well as in pastoral praxis The contributions of this volume include fundamental reflections on the role of churches and religion in the public sphere But they also deal with issues of material ethics such as human rights economic justice overcoming violence ecology or interreligious dialogue The volume shows how theology can give moral guidance not only for the church but also for society as a whole Evolutionary Processes in the Natural History of Religion Hansjörg Hemminger,2021-09-22 The study of religion by the humanities and social sciences has become receptive for an evolutionary perspective Some proposals model the evolution of religion in Darwinian terms or construct a synergy between biological and non Darwinian processes The results however have not yet become truly interdisciplinary The biological theory of evolution in form of the Extended Evolutionary Synthesis EES is only sparsely represented in theories published so far by scholars of religion Therefore this book reverses the line of view and asks how their results assort with evolutionary biology How can the subject area religion integrated into behavioral biology How is theory building affected by the asymmetry between the scarce empirical knowledge of prehistoric religion and the body of knowledge about extant and historic religions How does hominin evolution in general relate to the evolution of religion Are there evolutionary pre adaptations Subsequent versions of evolutionary biology from the original Darwinism to EES are used in interdisciplinary constructs Can they be integrated into a comprehensive theory The biological concept most often used is co evolution in form of a gene culture co evolution However the term denotes a process different from biological co evolution Important EES concepts do not appear in present models of religious evolution e g neutral evolution evolutionary drift evolutionary constraints etc How to include them into an interdisciplinary approach Does the cognitive science of religion CSR harmonize with behavioral biology and the brain sciences Religion as part of human culture is supported by a complex multi level behavioral system How can it be modeled scientifically The book addresses graduate students and researchers concerned about the scientific study of religion and biologist interested in interdisciplinary theory building in the field The Interior, 1893 Issues for Jan 12 1888 Jan 1889 include monthly Magazine supplement Religion, Spirituality and the Near-Death Experience Mark Fox, 2003-12-16 This dramatic and sustained response to decades of research into near death experiences NDEs is the first book to credibly bridge the gap between the competing factions of science and spirituality Neither a religious argument touting NDEs as hard evidence for God nor a scientific rebuke to religious interpretations it balances investigation of these much reported yet baffling phenomena and brings fresh urgency to the study of our hopes for a life beyond
