The Video Librarian ,2005 The Problem with Parenting Nancy A. McDermott, 2020-08-24 The Problem with Parenting serves as an essential guide to the recent origins and current excesses of American parenting for students parents and policy makers interested in the changing role of the family in childrearing Family scholarship focuses predominately on the evolution of family structure and function with only passing references to parenting Researchers who study parenting however invariably regard it as a sociological phenomenon with complex motivations rooted in such factors as class economic instability and new technologies This book examines the relationship between changes to the family and the emergence of parenting defined here as a specific mode of childrearing It shows how beginning in the 1970s the family was transformed from a social unit that functioned as the primary institution for raising children into a vehicle for the nurturing and fulfillment of the self The book pays special attention to socialization and describes how the change in our understanding of parenthood from a state of being into the distinct activity of parenting is indicative of a disruption of our ability to transfer key cultural values and norms from one generation to the next Great American Sitcoms of the 1950s Jackson Upperco, 2025-02-07 With a unique definition of the classic situation comedy television genre as developed out of its history on radio this critical Hannah Stoddard, James F. Stoddard, 2020-10-05 During the 20th century an organized objective to rewrite Latter day Saint history from within unbeknownst to the general Church membership went head to head behind the scenes with traditional leaders of the Church. Meet the main players of this conflict: Leonard Arrington, progressive Father of New Mormon History; Ezra Taft Benson, traditionalist defender; and many other advocates of traditionalist and progressive Latter-day Saint history. As traditionalists and progressives sparred during the 1970s-1980s, a covert cold war commenced in Salt Lake City, Utah, with the progressives spying on the traditionalists and the traditionalists spying on the progressives. Secret informants leaked documents, falsified reports, and even employed pseudonyms; all were part of this struggle to dominate Latter-day Saint history. But how did and does this secret conflict affect you? Progressives working in the Church History Department and at Brigham Young University claimed 40 years ago that it would take a generation to re-educate the Church. Where are we now in that re-education?

Models of Implementation of Article 12 of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD)

Maciej Domański, Bogusław Lackoroński, 2023-11-30. This book examines the implications of Article 12 of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), its resulting standard of protection for persons with disabilities, and the way it is understood and implemented in its diverse signatory states. Its overarching theme is to assess the impact of CRPD Article 12 on the private law concept of legal capacity and its limitations, the significance of which carries over into the realm of penal law regulations. Its impact is analysed primarily from the legal point of view but with due regard for its psychological and psychiatric ramifications. Recognising the importance of these disciplines is important when implementing CRPD Article 12 into domestic law, as they contribute to the determinants in creating a qualificatory legal framework for all persons with disabilities, in particular to exercise their rights to legal capacity without let or hindrance. As active legal capacity is a notion rooted in and coming from private law, this forms the main research perspective. The first section discusses the foundational concepts constituting the CRPD Article 12 standard from domestic private law and international law perspectives. The work shows that the concepts adopted in private law interact with the protection of persons with disabilities as victims provided for in criminal law. In addition, where relevant, authors also look at public law institutions that are connected with the private law solutions. The volume will be an essential reference for academics, researchers, and policy makers working in the areas of private law, criminal law, mental health law, human rights, discrimination law, as well as psychology and psychiatry.

Arthur's Kingdom of Adventure Muriel Whitaker, 1984. The setting of medieval Arthurian romance as typified by Malory's Morte Darthur plays an important part in the creation of the atmosphere of the stories and in intensifying the drama of the action. Professor Whitaker looks at the Arthurian world which Malory inherited from his sources and to which he added his own details and examines its different aspects: castles and forests, kingdoms and empires, showing how these diverge from reality to meet the particular requirements of romance. How new political and temporal relationships are set up for the same reason and how it was shaped by the presence of the Otherworld in the Celtic stories from which many episodes were drawn.
