MEDITATION DENNIS HILL, 2014-08-07 Through meditation we begin to get glimpses of the stillness With practice the stillness enters us and we begin to enjoy the spontaneous inner sense of serenity Over time the stillness becomes the foundation of our perception and we look out on the world from our peaceful presence Once we know this as our Self we can be free of the anxiety doubt disappointment and fear just being the watcher This is Deep Peace It might come as a surprise that consciousness the Self is the watcher of the mind In this we can become the impartial witness of mental dramas creating separation between the watcher and the chaos of ego Fortunately the mind begins to like the stillness and the suffering evaporates due to lack of interest In this we become truly happy and content

There have been reports of the amazing capacity of some of the Tibetan Buddhist Monks practicing Tummo meditation in Tibetan Buddhism at temperatures of around 250 C in the Himalayas A team of scientists from USA and Israel went to these spots by carrying some dry towels with them When these towels were made wet in the snow and spread on the naked bodies of the semi nude meditating monks practicing Tummo meditation to the surprise of these scientists these towels were getting dried up in no time Subsequently the analysts came to the conclusion that this meditation generated a lot of heat inner fire in the bodies of these meditators who were using it for the spiritual purpose This incident triggered me to go deep in not only about Tummo meditation but many other profound meditation practices in Tibetan Buddhism in this book Yoga, Meditation, and Mysticism Kenneth Rose,2016-09-08 Contemplative experience is central to Hindu yoga traditions Buddhist meditation practices and Catholic mystical theology and despite doctrinal differences it expresses itself in suggestively similar meditative landmarks in each of these three meditative systems In Yoga Meditation and Mysticism Kenneth Rose shifts the dominant focus of contemporary religious studies away from tradition specific studies of individual religious traditions communities and practices to examine the contemplative universals that arise globally in meditative experience Through a comparative exploration of the itineraries detailed in the contemplative manuals of Theravada Buddhism Patanjali Yoga and Catholic mystical theology Rose identifies in each tradition a moment of sharply focused awareness that marks the threshold between immersion in mundane consciousness and contemplative insight As concentration deepens the meditator steps through this threshold onto a globally shared contemplative itinerary which leads through a series of virtually identical stages to mental stillness and insight Rose argues that these contemplative universals familiar to experienced contemplatives in multiple traditions point to a common spiritual mental and biological heritage Pioneering the exploration of contemplative practice and experience with a comparative perspective that ranges over multiple religious traditions religious studies philosophy neuroscience and the cognitive science of religion this book is a landmark contribution to the fields of contemplative practice and religious studies truth within Michael Puthenthara,2014-01-01 A self help book *Sathya Sai Baba. Mountain Dharma Dolpopa Sherab Gyaltsen,Cyrus Stearns,2025-04-22 A brilliant annotated translation of Dolpopa Sherab Gyaltsen s Mountain Dharma that opens a masterpiece of the Jonang tradition to Western readers and presents Dolpopa s provocative ideas about a true eternal and established reality that still impact Buddhism today The controversial master Dolpopa Sherab Gyaltsen shook Buddhist Tibet when he taught that an eternal enlightened essence or buddha nature exists in full form in all living beings The ideas discussed in Mountain Dharma are still as provocative now as when Dolpopa first taught them impacting Buddhism to this day Dolpopa identified the ultimate with the buddha nature or sugata essence which he held to be eternal and not empty of self nature The buddha nature is perfect with all its characteristics inherently present in all living beings It is only the impermanent and temporary afflictions veiling the buddha nature that are empty of self nature and must be removed through the practice of the path to allow it to manifest Dolpopa establishes the validity of his theories with an ocean of quotations selected from Indian Buddhist scriptures and treatises of indisputable authority showing us that the ultimate is a true eternal and established reality empty merely of other relative phenomena

Maitripa Klaus Dieter-Mathes,2021-11-23 Maitr pa 986 1063 is one of the greatest and most influential Indian yogis of Vajrayana Buddhism The legacy of his thought and meditation instructions have had a profound impact on Buddhism in India and Tibet and several important contemporary practice lineages continue to rely on his teachings Early in his life Maitr pa gained renown as a monk and scholar but it was only after he left his monastery and wandered throughout India as a yogi that he had a direct experience of nonconceptual realization Once Maitr pa awakened to this nondual nature of reality he was able to harmonize the scholastic teachings of Buddhist philosophy with esoteric meditation instructions This is reflected in his writings that are renowned for evoking a meditative state in those who have trained appropriately He eventually became the teacher of many well known accomplished masters including Padampa Sangy and the translator Marpa who brought his teachings to Tibet Drawing on Maitr pa s autobiographical writings and literary work this book is the first comprehensive portrait of the life and teachings of this influential Buddhist master Klaus Dieter Mathes also offers the first complete English translation of his teachings on nonconceptual realization which is the foundation of Mah mudra meditation

Beyond Kundalini Science Premyogi vajra, 2025-08-17

When a human being walks too long upon the paths of energy bliss awakening or self realisation a strange fatigue arises In the beginning there is curiosity the spark that ignites the journey Soon it deepens into excitement even pride I have touched something higher But after a while the very things that once felt magical begin to lose their sheen Energy rising energy falling head pressure visions inner sounds blissful states all of these start moving in circles repeating like patterns in a dream A time comes when the seeker grows tired of them almost bored and feels an inner urge to escape beyond their endless play That moment of weariness is not an end but a true beginning For only then does something fresh spontaneous and unforced open up That is the soil where Nirvikalpa begins to grow on its own Not as a state that can be achieved not as a medal that can be earned but as a natural flowering that needs no effort The Vedas remind us through a beautiful image just as a hidden gem buried deep within the forest can be discovered only after one has searched through the entire jungle so too the highest spiritual knowledge can be attained only after one has first passed through all preceding stages of knowledge and experience To seek forced Nirvikalpa is like wanting a PhD before completing graduation One may dream of it imagine it or even fake it for a while but it will not hold The real Nirvikalpa dawns only when all holding all chasing and all wanting dissolve It is not another path to walk but the quiet ending of every path This book is simply a collection of such steps and missteps from my own journey Nothing complete nothing final only fragments of experience recorded as they arrived In fact many of these pages first took form as blog posts written in the raw flow of daily reflection Later they gathered themselves into this book not as a manual but as a living record of search stumble and silence If you too have walked enough circles you may hear the echoes of your own story here And perhaps beyond these words you may sense the same silence that patiently waits for every one of us Moreover it is essential for curious readers to know that the long quest toward the reality of expressed consciousness manifesting through experiences such as Kundalini awakening self realisation the disciplines of Kundalini Yoga the power of mantras and tantras the wisdom of the Vedas and Puranas the diverse insights of the world's religions and the wide spectrum of meditation techniques with their varied effects has been explored in depth in the Kundalini Science A Spiritual Psychology series Volumes 1-5 This book belongs to that current of exploration carrying forward the same spirit of seeking questioning and discovering
