Lure For Feeling:

PROCESS AND REALITY ALFRED N. WHITEHEAD, 1929      The Lure for Feeling Mary Alice Wyman, 1960      Lure for Feeling Wyman,      Onflow Ralph Jason Pred, 2005-02-25

Understanding consciousness by taking the stream of consciousness seriously a general characterization of experience and a detailed description of experience from within drawing on theories of William James Alfred North Whitehead John Searle and Gerald Edelman In Onflow Ralph Pred supplies an account of the nature of consciousness that grapples with the raw unverbilized stream of experience Unlike other recent philosophical accounts of consciousness Pred s analysis deals with the elusive and commonly neglected continuities in the stream of consciousness Pred offers a general characterization and analysis of experience as well as a highly detailed interpretation of experience from within Determined to make conceptual contact with the immediacy of actual experience Pred carries forward the radical empiricism pioneered by William James who coined the term stream of consciousness and draws on the process philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead To help readers apprehend the formation of conscious thoughts the intertwining of perception and action and the working of consciousness in onflowing experience Pred applies methods of analysis developed in John Searle s theory of intentionality to James s views thereby showing how intentional states are embedded in the stream of consciousness Then calling on Whitehead s treatment of lived moments as acts of experience Pred provides an account of consciousness that at once deals with conscious thoughts as they emerge from and function in embodied socialized experience and illustrates how language distorts our understanding of experience and subjectivity Finally he details striking parallels between this account and Gerald Edelman s biological theory of consciousness and in contrasting the two argues for a revitalized version of the experiential monism originally formulated by James

A Key to Whitehead's Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 1981-09-15 Whitehead s magnum opus is as important as it is difficult It is the only work in which his metaphysical ideas are stated systematically and completely and his metaphysics are the heart of his philosophical system as a whole Sherburne has rearranged the text in a way designed to lead the student logically and coherently through the intricacies of the system without losing the vigor of Whitehead s often brilliant prose The Key renders Process and Reality pedagogically accessible for the first time Journal of Religion

Tragic Beauty in Whitehead and Japanese Aesthetics Steve Odin, 2016-05-19 The present volume endeavors to make a contribution to contemporary Whitehead studies by clarifying his axiological process metaphysics including his theory of values concept of aesthetic experience and doctrine of beauty along with his philosophy of art literature and poetry Moreover it establishes an east west dialogue focusing on how Alfred North Whitehead s process aesthetics can be clarified by the traditional Japanese Buddhist sense of evanescent beauty As this east west dialogue unfolds it is shown that there are many striking points of convergence between Whitehead s process aesthetics and the traditional Japanese sense of beauty However the work especially focuses on two of Whitehead s aesthetic categories including the penumbral beauty of darkness and the tragic beauty of perishability while further demonstrating parallels with the two Japanese aesthetic categories of y gen and aware. It is clarified how both Whitehead and the Japanese tradition have articulated a poetics of evanescence that celebrates the transience of aesthetic experience and the ephemerality of beauty. Finally it is argued that both Whitehead and Japanese tradition develop an aesthetics of beauty as perishability culminating in a religious aesthetic vision of tragic beauty and its reconciliation in the supreme ecstasy of peace or nirvana.

The Emergence of Whitehead's Metaphysics, 1925-1929

Lewis S. Ford, 1985-06-30 A breathtaking detective story this book charts the adventure of Whitehead's ideas in a remarkably detailed and careful reconstruction of his metaphysical views. Incorporating heretofore unpublished material from students' notes and correspondence, Professor Ford analyzes the order of composition of various portions of Whitehead's books, principally Science and the Modern World, Religion in the Making, and Process and Reality. Ford's reconstructive method is perfectly tailored to his subject for Whitehead revised by inserting new material rather than altering or deleting the old. Thus Ford is able to date the sequence of the composition of many passages. In distinguishing these layers of articulation, he has pushed the techniques of higher criticism beyond anything the French structuralists and deconstructionists have dreamed of and chronicled an extraordinary intellectual biography.

Robert Duncan and the Pragmatist Sublime James

Maynard, 2018-05-01 This study examines the theoretical underpinnings of Robert Duncan's poetry and poetics. The author's overriding concern is Duncan's understanding of excess in relation to poetry and the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead, William James, and John Dewey.

Paracritical Hinge

Nathaniel Mackey, 2018-03-15 Paracritical Hinge is a collection of varied yet interrelated pieces highlighting Nathaniel Mackey's multifaceted work as writer and critic. It embraces topics ranging from Walt Whitman's interest in phrenology to the marginalization of African American experimental writing from Kamau Brathwaite's calibanistic language practices to Federico García Lorca's flamenco aesthetic of duende and its continuing repercussions from H.D.'s desert measure and coastal way of knowing to the altered spatial disposition of Miles Davis's trumpet sound from Robert Duncan's serial poetics to diasporic syncretism from the lyric poem's present-day predicaments to gnosticism. Offering illuminating commentary on these and other artists including Amiri Baraka, Mississippi Fred McDowell, Wilson Harris, Jack Spicer, John Coltrane, Jay Wright, and Bob Kaufman, Paracritical Hinge also sheds light on Mackey's own work as a poet, fiction writer, and editor.

Thinking with Whitehead and the American Pragmatists Brian G. Henning, William T. Myers, Joseph D. John, 2015-04-16

Despite there being deep lines of convergence between the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead, C. S. Peirce, William James, John Dewey, and other classical American philosophers, it remains an open question whether Whitehead is a pragmatist and conversation between pragmatists and Whitehead scholars have been limited. Indeed, it is difficult to find an anthology of classical American philosophy that includes Whitehead's writings. These camps began separately and so they remain. This volume questions the wisdom of that separation, exploring their connections both historical and in application. The essays in this volume embody original and creative work by leading scholars that not only furthers the understanding of American philosophy but seeks to advance it by working at the intersection of experience and reality to incite novel and creative thought This exploration is long overdue Specific questions that are addressed are Is Whitehead a pragmatist What contrasts and affinities exist between American pragmatism and Whitehead's thought What new questions strategies and critiques emerge by juxtaposing their distinct perspectives
