Lurking Fear:

The Lurking Fear H. P. Lovecraft, 2018-10-17 The Lurking Fear is a story by H P Lovecraft in the horror fiction genre The narrator hearing tales of a lurking fear upon Tempest Mountain in the Catskills takes two men with him to investigate They camp inside the deserted Martense mansion as a lightning storm approaches and feeling strangely drowsy they all fall asleep The narrator wakes up to find both his companions missing and in a flash of lightning sees a demonic shadow cast upon the fireplace chimney from a grotesque monster like the other one Continuing his investigation the narrator teams up with Arthur Munroe another journalist The two find as much information as they can on the mansion and environs until they find themselves trapped by yet another storm Bunkered in a small cabin they witness a bright flash of lightning Arthur looks out the window to survey the damage The narrator curious as to why Arthur is still staring out the window turns him to find his face chewed off As the narrator digs open the grave of Jan Martense he describes the history of the Martense family Upon reaching the coffin he continues to dig and subsequently falls into a subterranean burrow He crawls along until he sees two eyes reflecting his torch light in the darkness Yet another lightning strike causes the tunnel to cave in above the beast and the narrator has to dig his way to the surface He spots a red glare in the distance that he learns was a cabin that the hillside squatters had set alight with one of the beasts inside The narrator continues to search for more clues until it occurs to him that peculiar mounds of earth lead out in lines from the mansion He finds a burrow entrance in the basement as another storm approaches Finding a hiding place he watches as countless creatures crawl from the hole The narrator then sees one of the weaker members of the grotesque mob get attacked and eaten by one of its compatriots He shoots one of the creatures as it straggles behind the rest of the pack using a clap of thunder to disguise the muzzle blast and upon closer inspection notices the creature's heterochromia and realizes that the deformed hair covered creature is in fact a member of the Martense family who after many years of isolation have degenerated into apelike creatures THE LURKING FEAR.

Lovecraft fan's collection English Couplets M.R. Shetty, 2007 Popular Modernity in America Michael Thomas Carroll, 2000-09-28 Does technology alter our ways of being in and perceiving the world or does it merely serve as a conduit for predetermined patterns of culture In addressing this question Popular Modernity in America examines a broad range of related cultural and technological phenomena from Bing Crosby to Ice Cube from the invention of the telegraph to the celebratory heralding of the internet in the 1990s that have helped shape American popular culture over the past 150 years Throughout it avoids the binaries that label popular culture as inherently liberatory or subtly oppressive arguing instead for the triadic relationship of experience technology and myth each of which has an active role to play in how we interact with popular culture Midnight Rambles David J. Goodwin, 2023-11-07 A micro biography of horror fiction's most influential author and his love-hate relationship with New York City By the end of his life and near financial ruin pulp horror writer Howard Phillips Lovecraft resigned himself to the likelihood that his writing would be forgotten Today Lovecraft stands alongside J.R.R. Tolkien as the most influential genre writer of the twentieth century His reputation as an unreformed racist and bigot however leaves readers to grapple with his legacy Midnight Rambles explores Lovecraft's time in New York City a crucial yet often overlooked chapter in his life that shaped his literary career and the inextricable racism in his work Initially New York stood as a place of liberation for Lovecraft During the brief period between 1924 and 1926 when he lived there Lovecraft joined a creative community and experimented with bohemian living in the publishing and cultural capital of the United States He also married fellow writer Sonia H Greene a Ukrainian Jewish migr in the fashion industry However cascading personal setbacks and his own professional ineptitude soured him on New York As Lovecraft became more frustrated his xenophobia and racism became more pronounced New York's large immigrant population and minority communities disgusted him and this mindset soon became evident in his writing Many of his stories from this era are infused with racial and ethnic stereotypes and nativist themes most notably his overtly racist short story The Horror at Red Hook set in Red Hook Brooklyn His personal letters reveal an even darker bigotry Author David J Goodwin presents a chronological micro biography of Lovecraft's New York years emphasizing Lovecraft's exploration of the city environment the greater metropolitan region and other locales and how they molded him as a writer and as an individual Drawing from primary sources letters memoirs and published personal reflections and secondary sources biographies and scholarship Midnight Rambles develops a portrait of a talented and troubled author and offers insights into his unsettling beliefs on race ethnicity and immigration

Horror as Racism in H. P. Lovecraft John L. Steadman, 2024-01-11 Providing a new perspective on Lovecraft's life and work Horror as Racism in H P Lovecraft focuses on the overlap between the writer's personal beliefs and the racist images and narratives in his speculative fiction Building on recent debates about Lovecraft and drawing on the concept of white fragility John Steadman argues that the writer's fiction reflects his feelings of resentment and anger towards non white persons and was used to advocate for his racist xenophobic political beliefs that western civilization was in decline and slavery was justifiable among superior civilizations In making these claims Lovecraft's tales pit humans against extra terrestrial aliens developing a terrifying futuristic vision of the Earth as a plantation planet The familiar image of Lovecraft as a reclusive creative genius and mentor to young writer friends is dismantled through close readings of his fiction and nonfiction including correspondence essays and poetry and examination of his early biography This image is replaced by that of a cruel callous and at times psychotic man a violently vitriolic racist and white supremacist who hated most of the non white races While some will dismiss the author outright and others will read his fiction but ignore the racism Horror as Racism in H P Lovecraft takes a middle ground acknowledging Lovecraft's personal history and heinous intentions it helps readers navigate the author's disturbing biography while also getting a better sense of the stories which remain significant within American science fiction

A Dreamer and a Visionary S. T. Joshi, 2001-04-01 H P Lovecraft has come to be recognised as the leading author of supernatural fiction in the twentieth century But how did a man who died in poverty with no book of his stories published in his lifetime become such an icon in horror literature S T Joshi the leading authority on Lovecraft traces in detail the course of

Lovecraft's life and shows how Lovecraft was engaged in the political economic social and intellectual currents of his time
