Masterworks of the Orchestral Repertoire Donald N. Ferguson, 1968-03-04 Masterworks of the Orchestral Repertoire was first published in 1968 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The fullest enjoyment of an orchestral performance or a record concert comes with a background of knowledge about the music itself This handbook is designed to help music lovers get the ultimate pleasure from their listening by providing them with that background about a large portion of the orchestral repertoire Professor Ferguson analyzes and interprets the most important classical symphonies overtures and concertos as well as selected orchestral works of modern composers He goes beyond a conventional analysis of structure since he believes with a majority of the music loving public that great music is actually a communication that it expresses significant emotions The great composers on their own testimony have striven not merely to create perfect forms but to interpret human experience Mingled with the analyses then the reader will find comments on the expressive purport of the music For twenty five years Professor Ferguson has supplied the program notes for the subscription concerts of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra and this volume is an outgrowth of that activity In preparing the material for book publication however he studied the musical compositions anew and the resulting chapters provide a much deeper exploration of the musical subjects than did the program notes The themes of important works are illustrated by musical notations and a brief glossary explains technical terms Richard Strauss, the Man and His Works Henry T. Finck, 1917 Richard Strauss The Man and His Works by Henry Theophilus Finck first published in 1917 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it Masterworks of Asian Literature in Comparative Perspective Barbara Stoler Miller, 1994-02-17 This is a collection of 46 essays by specialists in Asian literature who offer a wide range of possibilities for
