The Oxford Handbook of Law and Economics Francesco Parisi, 2017-04-13 Covering over one hundred topics on issues ranging from Law and Neuroeconomics to European Union Law and Economics to Feminist Theory and Law and Economics The Oxford Handbook of Law and Economics is the definitive work in the field of law and economics The book gathers together scholars and experts in law and economics to create the most inclusive and current work on law and economics Edited by Francisco Parisi the Handbook looks at the origins of the field of law and economics tracks its progression and increased importance to both law and economics and looks to the future of the field and its continued development by examining a cornucopia of fields touched by work in law and economics The uniqueness of its breadth depth and convenience make the volume essential to scholars students and contributors in the field of law and economics      Regulation Versus Litigation Daniel P. Kessler,2011-02 The efficacy of various political institutions is the subject of intense debate between proponents of broad legislative standards enforced through litigation and those who prefer regulation by administrative agencies This book explores the trade offs between litigation and regulation the circumstances in which one approach may outperform the other and the principles that affect the choice between addressing particular economic activities with one system or the other Combining theoretical analysis with empirical investigation in a range of industries including public health financial markets medical care and workplace safety Regulation versus Litigation sheds light on the costs and benefits of two important instruments of economic policy      OECD Reviews of Regulatory Reform: Sweden 2007 Achieving Results for Sustained Growth OECD,2007-03-30 This review analyses the Swedish institutional framework for better regulation In recent years Sweden has made a remarkable recovery benefiting from deregulation efforts undertaken in the early to mid 1990s Sweden places a strong emphasis on high      Why Noncompliance Tanja A. Börzel,2021-02-15 Why Noncompliance traces the history of noncompliance within the European Union EU focusing on which states continuously do or do not follow EU Law why and how that affects the governance in the EU and beyond In exploring the EU s long and varied history of noncompliance Tanja A B rzel takes a close look at the diverse groups of noncompliant states throughout the EU s existence Why do states that are vocally critical of the EU have a better record of compliance than those that support the EU Why has noncompliance been declining since the 1990s even though the EU was adding member states and numerous laws B rzel debunks conventional wisdoms in EU compliance research showing that noncompliance in the EU is not caused by the new Central and Eastern European member states nor by the Eurosceptic member states So why do these states take the brunt of Europe s misplaced ire Why Noncompliance introduces politicization as an explanatory factor that has been long overlooked in the literature and scholarship surrounding the European Union B rzel argues that political controversy combined with voting power and administrative capacity explains why noncompliance with EU law has been declining since the completion of the Single Market cannot be blamed on the EU s Central and Easter European member states and is concentrated in areas where EU seeks to protect citizen rights Thanks to generous funding from Freie Universitat Berlin the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories      Developing the Services Sector for Economic Diversification in CAREC Countries Asian Development Bank,2021-12-01 The services sector is becoming a key driver of economic development in most members of the Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation CAREC Program This study underscores the potential for greater economic diversification through robust development of seven key services subsectors and industries that are critical for economies in the region to function and thrive CAREC members also need to adopt a coherent and comprehensive approach to the balanced development of these interdependent services subsectors Enabling conditions such as good
