The Spacious Path Tamara Hill Murphy, 2023-06-20

A simple invitation into a life ordered around listening and love As we live through cycles of change and disruption our familiar pathways crumble and we find ourselves in fragmented relationships with God others and our own souls We are not the first to experience this disorientation When Jesus offered the stunning invitation to come to him to learn how to work from a place of rest he was talking to people weighed down by ill fitting political economic and religious systems And his life and ministry offer a glimpse of a better way For centuries a practice called the Rule of Life built around rhythms of prayer work study hospitality and rest has provided a loving pathway for anyone who desires to live out the whole gospel More than a historic primer on an ancient practice an aspirational overview of spiritual life or a personal inventory focused on habits The Spacious Path offers companionship through personal narrative meaningful reflection and guided prayer for readers to return to as often as needed Rediscover an ancient Christian practice to reorient your life around the unforced rhythms of Jesus not by adding another ill fitting system but by walking freely and lightly on the pathways of listening and love in the way of Jesus

Gather Us In Angela D. Schaffner, 2020-07-01 The church can become a place where people want to run to instead of away from during times of suffering Small groups offer a safe space for individuals to connect meaningfully with one another and they also provide an environment where relational healing can begin This comprehensive guide to leading small groups provides eight strategies for leading transformative small groups dispels common myths about leading groups and helps readers understand how groups work and the life stages of a group The author suggests practical ways to lead groups effectively using examples from scripture of how Jesus worked to transform people spiritually and emotionally Gather Us In will equip small group leaders with wisdom for relating to others knowledge for helping others talk about their unfolding faith journeys and confidence in their newly acquired facilitation skills They will realize they don't need to know all the answers to be able to lead well
