Making The Town:

The Making of the Biggest Small Town for Christmas Judy Uitermarkt, 2024-09-12 A couple finds each other and falls in love in Christmas Town Together and with the help of their friends and neighbors they build their small town into a thriving sustaining town with big things happening This story reveals at its heart how neighbors that work together can create a better town About the Author Judy Uitermarkt became a widow after twenty nine years and wanted to do something for herself instead of being sad So she started to write poetry and several books Judy loves to sit and write and she sometimes does it for days even forgetting to sleep She likes to write about happy things and helping others She loves to help her friends She does everything with her beautiful fluffy Main Coon cat named Bobby who keeps her sane The New England Town Meeting Joseph F. Zimmerman, 1999-03-30 In this groundbreaking study Zimmerman explores the town meeting form of government in all New England states This comprehensive work relies heavily upon surveys of town officers and citizens interviews and mastery of the scattered writing on the subject Zimmerman finds that the stereotypes of the New England open town meeting advanced by its critics are a serious distortion of reality He shows that voter superintendence of town affairs has proven to be effective and there is no empirical evidence that thousands of small towns and cities with elected councils are governed better Whereas the relatively small voter attendance suggests that interest groups can control town meetings their influence has been offset effectively by the development of town advisory committees particularly the finance committee and the planning board which are effective counterbalances to pressure groups Zimmerman provides a new conception of town meeting democracy positing that the meeting is a de facto representative legislative body with two safety valves open access to all voters and the initiative to add articles to the warrant and the calling of special meetings to reconsider decisions made at the preceding town meeting And as Zimmerman points out a third safety valve the protest referendum can be adopted by a town meeting Making Ripples in Wilder's Town Fran Chapman, 2011-12-09 Are you looking for witty inspiration to help you get started making change in your local community Sooner or later every one of us needs to write a letter to the editor Making Ripples in Wilder's Town provides tips and advice about getting involved about creating constructive civil debate and about writing effective letters to the editor This book provides a humorous look at New England small town life and politics In addition to providing insights into life in Peterborough New Hampshire this book shines some light on the changes that have taken place since Thornton Wilder first wrote the play Our Town The author of this book has made hundreds and hundreds of written contributions to newspapers throughout his life This book is a resource for people struggling to make democracy work Print may be dead but it is alive and kicking in this collection of letters from a small New England town Although we haven't always agreed with his opinions we have always been inspired by his passion He encourages thinking not complacency excerpt from About the Author Watertown Records: The third book of town proceedings and the second book of births, marriages and deaths to end of 1737, also plan and register of
