Exploring Materiality and Connectivity in Anthropology and Beyond Philipp Schorch, Martin Saxer, Marlen Elders, 2020-03-30 Exploring Materiality and Connectivity in Anthropology and Beyond provides a new look at the old anthropological concern with materiality and connectivity It understands materiality not as defined property of something nor does it take connectivity as merely a relation between discrete entities Somewhat akin to Heisenberg's uncertainty principle it sees materiality and connectivity as two interrelated modes in which an entity is or more precisely is becoming in the world The question thus is how these two modes of becoming relate and fold into each other Throughout the four year research process that led to this book the authors approached this question not just from a theoretical perspective taking the suggestion of thinking through things literally and methodologically seriously the first two workshops were dedicated to practical hands on exercises working with things From these workshops a series of installations emerged straddling the boundaries of art and academia These installations served as artistic academic interventions during the final symposium and are featured alongside the other academic contributions to this volume Throughout this process two main themes emerged and structure Part II Movement and Growth and Part III Dissolution and Traces of the present volume respectively Part I Conceptual Grounds consists of two chapters offering conceptual takes on things and ties one from anthropology and one from archaeology As interrelated modes of becoming materiality and connectivity make it necessary to coalesce things and ties into thing ties an insight toward which the chapters and interventions came from different sides and one in which the initial proposition of the editors still shines through Throughout the pages of this volume we invite the reader to travel beyond imaginaries of a universe of separate planets united by connections and to venture with us instead into the thicket of thing ties in which we live

The Presence of the Past Daniel Bishop, 2021 The Presence of the Past offers a new perspective on Hollywood's New Wave as engaged with the vitality of sensory experience and the affective imagination As author Daniel Bishop shows the soundtracks of several key films of the New Hollywood Cinema of the late 1960s and 70s cultivated an array of sensibilities regarding the American past This importance of the past exceeded the New Hollywood's acknowledged use of genre revisionism as a vehicle for timely ideological commentary There was also a vital tendency in this era to locate the past as an object of imagined phenomenal presence Although this concept of the past never solidified into a self-conscious discourse it was nevertheless woven into film culture readable between the lines of criticism cultural reception New Wave aesthetics and in the aesthetic and industrial transformations of sound design and film music Bonnie and Clyde 1967 Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid 1969 McCabe and Mrs Miller 1971 The Last Picture Show 1971 American Graffiti 1973 Chinatown 1974 and Badlands 1973 are not only key texts of an exciting era in American popular cinema They are also mediations upon the presence of the past an image central to the polarities of visceral energy and ambiguous ephemerality of utopian dreams and melancholy resignation that characterized this cinema These sensibilities of pastness engage in diverse ways with myth nostalgia paranoia and existential alienation They are however also united by a concern both with the experiential actuality of the past and with the distances that inevitably separate us from this actuality

New York Magazine, 1988-12-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Bookman, 1900

The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010 Thomson independent scholar writing of The Biographical Dictionary of Film aka A Biographical Dictionary of the Cinema 1975 edition described it as a personal opinionated and obsessive biographical dictionary of the cinema Thirty five years and several editions later that description still holds true of this expanded work The new dictionary summarizes salient facts about its subjects lives and discusses their film credits in terms of the quality of the filmmakers work In ambition it has competitors including Leslie Halliwell's various editions of Halliwell's Filmgoers Companion 12th ed 1997 and Halliwell's Who's Who in the Movies edited by John Walker 4th ed rev and updated 2006 which cover films and technical terms categories not included in Thomson's but whose entries are neutral and exceedingly brief Additionally Francophile Richard Roud's edited Cinema A Critical Dictionary The Major Filmmakers 2 v 1980 is as passionate a work as Thomson's but narrower in scope with entries written by various experts rather than only by Roud. Finally the multivolume magnum opus The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers 4th ed 2000 ed by T Pendergast and S Pendergast 2nd ed ed by N Thomas v 1 CH May 91 1st ed ed by C Lyon v 1 2 CH Jan 85 v 3 CH Apr 87 v 4 5 CH Jun 88 covers everything films directors actors writers and production artists with generous measured scholarly entries and lavish illustrations. However it looms large and heavy unlike the handy one volume work by Thomson. Arguably Thomson's work for its scope is the most fun the most convenient and the most engaging title. All libraries supporting people interested in film should buy it. It will get lots of use and provide very good value for the money.
