Making The Modern Industry Art And Design In America:

Making the Modern Terry Smith, 1993 Smith reveals how this visual revolution played an instrumental role in the complex psychological social economic and technological changes that came to be known as the second industrial revolution From the role of visualization in the invention of the assembly line to office and building design to the corporate and lifestyle images that filled new magazines such as Life and Fortune he traces the extent to which the second wave of industrialization engaged the visual arts to project a new iconology of progress

Making the modern Terry Smith, 1993 From Autos to Architecture David Gartman, 2012-04-17 One of the most interesting questions in architectural history is why modern architecture emerged from the war ravaged regions of central Europe and not the United States whose techniques of mass production and mechanical products so inspired the first generation of modern architects like Le Corbusier Mies van der Rohe and Walter Gropius In From Autos to Architecture sociologist David Gartman offers a critical social history that shows how Fordist mass production and industrial architecture in America influenced European designers to an extent previously not understood Drawing on Marxist economics the Frankfurt School and French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu From Autos to Architecture deftly illustrates the different class structures and struggles of America and Europe Examining architecture in the context of social conflicts From Autos to Architecture offers a critical alternative to standard architectural histories focused on aesthetics alone

On the Wings of Modernism Robert Allen Nauman, 2004 Nauman argues that contrary to the technological and teleological interpretations presented by the polemicists of international style modernism the academy's actual production was squarely grounded in bureaucratic and political processes He demonstrates that selection of both the site and the design firm was the result of political maneuverings involving the U S military leadership BOOK JACKET

Building the Modern World Michael H. Hodges, 2018-04-16 A photographically rich biography of protean architect Albert Kahn Building the Modern World Albert Kahn in Detroit by Michael H Hodges tells the story of the German Jewish immigrant who rose from poverty to become one of the most influential architects of the twentieth century Kahn's buildings not only define downtown Detroit but his early car factories for Packard Motor and Ford revolutionized the course of industry and architecture alike Employing archival sources unavailable to previous biographers Building the Modern World follows Kahn from his apprenticeship at age thirteen with a prominent Detroit architecture firm to his death With material gleaned from two significant Kahn archives the University of Michigan's Bentley Historical Library and the Archives of American Art at the Smithsonian Institution Hodges paints the most complete picture yet of Kahn's remarkable rise Special emphasis is devoted to his influence on architectural modernists his relationship with Henry Ford his intervention to save the Diego Rivera murals at the Detroit Institute of Arts unreported until now and his work laying down the industrial backbone for the Soviet Union in 1929-31 as consulting architect for the first Five Year Plan Kahn's ascent from poverty his outsized influence on both industry and architecture and his proximity to epochal world events make his life story a tableau of America's rise to power

Historic photographs as well as striking contemporary shots of Kahn buildings enliven and inform the text Anyone interested in architecture architectural history or the history of Detroit will relish this stunning work Television after TV Jan Olsson, Lynn Spigel, 2004-11-30 A critical reassessment of television and television studies in the age of new media

Fatherlands Abigail Green, 2001-09-06 An exploration of the nature of identity in nineteenth century Germany Mall Maker M. Jeffrey Hardwick, 2010-03-09 The enclosed shopping mall now so ubiquitous was invented by one man Victor Gruen Mall Maker is the first biography of this visionary spirit Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity's restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound's slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both Dream Car Dimitry Anastakis, 2024-03-26 Dream Car tells the story of entrepreneur Malcolm Bricklin's fantastical 1970s era Safety Vehicle 1 SV1 audaciously launched during a tumultuous breakpoint in postwar history The tale of the sexy yet safe SV1 reveals the influence of automobiles on ideas about the future technology entrepreneurship risk safety showmanship politics sex gender business and the state as well as the history of the auto industry's birth decline and rebirth Written as an open road the book invites readers to travel a narrative arc that unfolds chronologically and thematically Dream Car's seven chapters have been structured so that they can be read in any order determined by whichever theme each reader finds most interesting The book also includes a musical playlist of car songs from the era and songs about the SV1 itself Building a Social Contract Michael McCulloch, 2023-09-22 Explores developments in Detroit's early twentieth century workers housing as a significant moment in global architectural history Argues that the city's workers and employers negotiated an implicit social contract in which the work of mass production was rewarded with access to modern housing International Law, Museums and the

Return of Cultural Objects Ana Filipa Vrdoljak, 2006-07-13 While the question of the return of cultural objects is by no means a new one it has become the subject of increasingly intense debate in recent years This important book explores the removal and the return of cultural objects from occupied communities during the last two centuries and analyses the concurrent evolution of international cultural heritage law The book focuses on the significant influence exerted by British U S and Australian governments and museums on international law and museum policy in response to restitution claims It shows that these claims far from heralding the long feared dissolution of museums and their collections provide museums with a vital new role in the process of self determination and cultural identity Compelling and thought provoking throughout this book is essential reading for archaeologists international lawyers and all those involved in cultural resource management

Reading 1922 Michael North, 2001-12-20 This engaging study returns to a truly remarkable year the year in which both Ulysses and The Waste Land were published in which The Great Gatsby was set and during which the Fascisti took over in Italy the Irish Free State was born the Harlem Renaissance reached its peak Charlie Chaplin s popularity crested and King Tutankhamen s tomb was discovered In short the year which not only in hindsight became the primal scene of literary modernism but which served as the cradle for a host of major political and aesthetic transformations resonating around the globe In his previous study the acclaimed Dialect of Modernism OUP 1994 Michael North looked at the racial and linguistic struggles over the English language which gave birth to the many strains of modernism Here he expands his vision to encompass the global stage and tells the story of how books changed the future of the world as we know it in one unforgettable year

The Making of the American Creative Class Shannan Clark, 2021 The Making of the American Creative Class narrates the history of workers in New York s publishing advertising design and broadcasting industries and their efforts to improve their working conditions set against the backdrop of the economic dislocations of twentieth century capitalism

Margaret Mead Nancy C. Lutkehaus, 2018-06-26 Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed citizens can change the world Margaret Mead This quotation found on posters and bumper stickers and adopted as the motto for hundreds of organizations worldwide speaks to the global influence and legacy of the American anthropologist Margaret Mead 1901-78 In this insightful and revealing book Nancy Lutkehaus explains how and why Mead became the best known anthropologist and female public intellectual in twentieth century America Using photographs films television appearances and materials from newspapers magazines and scholarly journals Lutkehaus explores the ways in which Mead became an American cultural heroine Identifying four key images associated with her the New Woman the Anthropologist Adventurer the Scientist and the Public Intellectual Lutkehaus examines the various meanings that different segments of American society assigned to Mead throughout her lengthy career as a public figure The author shows that Mead came to represent a new set of values and ideas about women non Western peoples culture and America s role in the twentieth century that have significantly transformed society and become generally accepted today Lutkehaus also considers why there has been no other anthropologist since Mead to become as famous Margaret Mead is an engaging look at how one woman's life and accomplishments resonated with the issues that shaped American society and changed her into a celebrity and cultural icon

Orange Empire Douglas Cazaux Sackman, 2005 Douglas Sackman peels an orange and finds inside nothing less than an American agricultural industrial culture in all its inventive exploitative transformative and destructive power A beautifully researched and intellectually expansive book Elliott West author of The Contested Plains Indians Goldseekers the Rush to Colorado

Picturing the New Negro Caroline Goesser, 2007 Chronicles the vibrant partnership between literary and visual African American artists that resulted in the image of the New Negro In the process demonstrates that commercial illustration represents the largest and in some cases most progressive body of visual art associated with the Harlem Renaissance

USA Gwendolyn Wright, 2008-02-15 From the Reliance Building and Coney Island to the Kimbell Museum and Disney Hall the United States has been at the forefront of modern architecture American life has generated many of the quintessential images of modern life both generic types and particular buildings Gwendolyn Wright's USA is an engaging account of this evolution from the late nineteenth century to the twenty first Upending conventional arguments about the origin of American modern architecture Wright shows that it was not a mere offshoot of European modernism brought across the Atlantic Ocean by migrants but rather an exciting distinctive and mutable hybrid USA traces a history that spans from early skyscrapers and suburbs in the aftermath of the American Civil War up to the museums schools and green architecture of today Wright takes account of diverse interests that affected design ranging from politicians and developers to ambitious immigrants and middle class citizens Famous and lesser known buildings across America come together model dwellings for German workers in rural Massachusetts New York's Rockefeller Center Cincinnati's Carew Tower Frank Lloyd Wright's Taliesin West in the Arizona desert the University of Miami campus the Texas Instruments Semiconductor Plant and the Corning Museum of Glass among others to show an extraordinary range of innovation Ultimately Wright reframes the history of American architecture as one of constantly evolving and volatile sensibilities engaged with commerce attuned to new media exploring multiple concepts of freedom The chapters are organized to show how changes in work life home life and public life affected architecture and vice versa This book provides essential background for contemporary debates about affordable and luxury housing avant garde experiments local identities inspiring infrastructure and sustainable design A clear concise and richly illustrated account of modern American architecture this timely book will be essential for all those who wonder about the remarkable legacy of American modernity in its most potent cultural expression

The Modern Embroidery Movement Cynthia Fowler, 2018-02-22 WINNER OF A CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE AWARD 2018 In the early twentieth century Marguerite Zorach and Georgiana Brown Harbeson were at the forefront of the modern embroidery movement in the United States In the first scholarly examination of their work and influence Cynthia Fowler explores the arguments presented by these pioneering women and their collaborators for embroidery to be considered as art

Using key exhibitions and contemporary criticism The Modern Embroidery Movement focuses extensively on the individual work of Zorach and Brown Harbeson casting a new light on their careers Documenting a previously marginalised movement Fowler brings together the history of craft art and women s rights and firmly establishes embroidery as a significant aspect of modern art Concrete and Clay Matthew Gandy, 2003-08-29 An interdisciplinary account of the environmental history and changing landscape of New York City In this innovative account of the urbanization of nature in New York City Matthew Gandy explores how the raw materials of nature have been reworked to produce a metropolitan nature distinct from the forms of nature experienced by early settlers The book traces five broad developments the expansion and redefinition of public space the construction of landscaped highways the creation of a modern water supply system the radical environmental politics of the barrio in the late 1960s and early 1970s and the contemporary politics of the environmental justice movement Drawing on political economy environmental studies social theory cultural theory and architecture Gandy shows how New York s environmental history is bound up not only with the upstate landscapes that stretch beyond the city s political boundaries but also with more distant places that reflect the nation s colonial and imperial legacies Using the shifting meaning of nature under urbanization as a framework he looks at how modern nature has been produced through interrelated transformations ranging from new water technologies to changing fashions in landscape design Throughout he considers the economic and ideological forces that underlie phenomena as diverse as the location of parks and the social stigma of dirty neighborhoods
