Making the Point Morris Isaac Stein,1984 Teaching for Creativity: Super-charged learning through 'The Invisible Curriculum' Andrew Hammond,2015-06-22 The Invisible Curriculum Series gives teachers the secret ingredients to unlock the full potential of children s learning abilities Too often in formal schooling creativity and curiosity are taught out of children Teaching for Creativity offers practical advice on how to ensure that this does not happen This book will help teachers to preserve children s innate creative capacities at the same time as maintaining academic standards in the classroom Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1975 Creators on Creating Frank Barron,1997-04-14 This collection of over three dozen essays ponders the essence of creativity Includes selections from Henry Miller Federico Fellini Rainer Maria Rilke Isadora Duncan Frank Zappa and Mary Shelley A New Consciousness Reader The Creative Process Charlotte L. Doyle,2021-12-22 The Creative Process Stories from the Arts and Sciences asks how celebrated works of art and breakthroughs in science came to be What was the first inkling What were the steps and missteps along the way How was the process experienced by the creative person as it proceeded And what are the implications for the psychology of the creative process Each chapter focuses on a specific creative endeavor situating the work in the context of domain culture and historical era Then it traces the development of the work from what we know of its beginnings to its fulfillment Qualitative materials interviews notebooks diaries sketches drafts and other writings allow a story of the creative process as lived to emerge The narratives exemplify established concepts in the psychology of creativity propose broadening some reveal the need for modification and suggest new ones Application of phenomenological frameworks illuminate the episodes in new ways as well The case study approach proves again that each episode is unique yet themes and variations come into view when the episodes are considered together in a final reflection From Darwin s theory to an unusual jazz sound here are 11 fascinating stories of how specific works took shape Psychologists students interested in creativity and all those intrigued by the process in any creative field will find this book essential reading Frontiers of Creativity Research Scott G. Isaksen,1987 Proceedings of Fifth Annual Conference Academic Chairpersons ,1988 The Pocket Instructor: Literature Diana Fuss,William A. Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing Ben Ristow, 2022-02-10 Craft lives inside the artist and it operates in the mind not in standards or techniques Creative writers navigate thresholds in consciousness as they develop their arts practice Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing explores what it is to be an artist as it traces radical feminist and culturally embedded traditions in craft The new term craft consciousness identifies the nexus from which writers explore making processes and practitioner knowledge Writers as with all artists create and reimagine themselves anew and it is in this perpetual state of becoming that they find ways to enlarge their sense of artistry through an exploration of forms processes and mediums beyond the written word For writers this book initiates a reexamination of the mission of creative writing through disrupting patriarchal racist colonialist ableist and capitalist associations with dominant craft Drawing from twenty five interviews with living artists outside of writing and in a host of fields from conceptual art to leatherwork and dance the book shines a light on how the processes associated with craft are embodied Craft is an internalized matrix it need not be commodified for the marketplace or codified in the standards necessitated by institutions of higher education By redesigning writing workshops and MFA PhD programs through craft consciousness new potentials and collaborations emerge and it becomes more conceivable to imagine dynamic inclusive relationships between writers scientists and other artists

The Narratological Analysis of Lyric Poetry Peter Hühn, Jens Kiefer, 2011-08-11 This study offers a fresh approach to the theory and practice of poetry criticism from a narratological perspective Arguing that lyric poems share basic constituents of narration with prose fiction namely temporal sequentiality of events and verbal mediation the authors propose the transgeneric application of narratology to the poetic genre with the aim of utilizing the sophisticated framework of narratological categories for a more precise and complex modeling of the poetic text On this basis the study provides a new impetus to the neglected field of poetic theory as well as to methodology The practical value of such an approach is then demonstrated by detailed model analyses of canonical English poems from all major periods between the 16th and the 20th centuries The comparative discussion of these analyses draws general conclusions about the specifics of narrative structures in lyric poetry in contrast to prose fiction

Pastoral Care Dr. Karen D. Scheib, 2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God's story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God's mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God's love story God's profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God Thus grounded she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors In her vision pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis Instead it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care an attending in love to the stories of others and a listening for ways God is already present in a life story Solidly theological grounded in the life of the church and eminently teachable Karen Scheib has given us a great gift in this book from the Foreword Thomas G Long Bandy Professor of Preaching Emeritus Candler School of Theology Emory University Atlanta GA In a wonderfully engaging reflective and useful way Karen Scheib captures something absolutely essential to pastoral care and yet often overlooked the utter centrality of storytelling listening the power of stories to heal and their vital connection to bigger stories told within religious communities This book is a real milestone reclaiming the importance of narrative knowing and grounding care not only in community but also within a comprehensive theological framework Bonnie J Miller McLemore E Rhodes and Leona B Carpenter Professor of Religion Psychology and Culture The Divinity School and Graduate Department of Religion Vanderbilt University Divinity School Nashville TN Implementing narrative personality and therapy theories and anchored in ecclesiology and Wesleyan theology NET Karen Scheib's book advances a long awaited and holistic approach to pastoral care Her NET approach presents the embodiment of pastoral care by emphasizing both narrative and paradigmatic knowing proposes the subjectivity of our stories in pastoral care by pointing out the interchangeability between us and our stories as subject and object and underscores the dynamic process of pastoral care through the interconnection of the storyteller listener and context Scheib's image of story companion contributes to the field as a new paradigm of pastoral care and promises to be a significant resource in generating hope and growth in love for both pastoral caregiver and receiver Angella Son Associate Professor Drew University Madison NJ Pastoral theologian Scheib describes a narrative ecclesial and theological approach for listening to people's life stories in such a way as to engender spiritual formation and growth in love Scheib clarifies the connections between caring conversations and Christian theology Clear and accessible prose as well as helpful exercises and discussion starters make this a fine teaching text The Christian Century Sept 29 2016

Creative Intuition in Art and Poetry Jacques Maritain, 2023-10-17 The classic work on the sublime interplay between the arts and poetics This book explores the rich and complex relationship between art and poetry shedding invaluable light on what makes each art form unique yet wholly interdependent Jacques Maritain insists on the part played by the intellect as well as the imagination showing how poetry has its source in the preconceptual activity of the rational mind As Maritain argues intellect is not merely logical and conceptual reason Rather it carries on an exceedingly more profound and obscure life one that is revealed to us as we seek to penetrate the hidden recesses of poetic and artistic activity Incisive and authoritative this illuminating book is the product of a lifelong reflection on the meaning of artistic expression in all its varied forms

Making Sense Ralf Hertel, 2021-07-26 Fiction is fascinating All it provides us with is black letters on white pages yet while we read we do not have the impression that we are merely perceiving abstract characters Instead we see the protagonists before our inner eye and hear their voices Descriptions of sumptuous meals make our mouths water we feel physically repelled by depictions of violence or are aroused by the erotic details of sexual conquests We submerge ourselves in the fictional world that no longer stays on the paper but comes to life in our imagination Reading turns into an out of the body experience or rather an in another body experience for we perceive the portrayed world not only through the protagonist's eyes but also through his ears nose tongue and skin In other words we move through the literary text as if through a virtual reality How does literature achieve this trick How does it turn mere letters into vividly experienced worlds This study argues that techniques of sensuous writing contribute decisively to bringing the text to life in the reader's imagination In detailed interpretations of British novels of the 1980s and 1990s by writers such as John Berger John Banville Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson or J M Coetzee it uncovers literary strategies for turning the sensuous experience into words and for conveying it to the reader demonstrating how we make sense in and of literature Both readers interested in the contemporary novel and in the sensuousness of the reading experience will profit from this innovative study that not only analyses the interest of contemporary authors in the senses but also pin points literary entry points for the sensuous force of reading
