Begun as a scholarly work of religious and psychiatric import 9 11 and its aftershocks has turned this work on messianism to the task of survival of our civilization For the core motivations of widely disparate people Islamic terrorists Israeli settlers and American fundamentalists are frankly messianic And they are positioned to move the world towards a disaster long depicted in apocalyptic terms on the Plains of Abraham but now also present in our midst A degree of self sacrifice is present in messianism ranging from the purely spiritual to full expression in the Islamic terrorist who glories in a physical immolation that leads to eternal life The crucial issue for the rest of us lies in its imperative nature calling for the termination of our lives Can we reach such people who live in these other spiritual worlds and who threaten to evict us from ours They live in the certitude and rectitude of their cause and are intolerant of the ambiguity of modern civilization Their certitude lies in a strangely similar belief in a messenger of God who brings tidings of the End of Days on earth and a coming glory in a heavenly company populated by God and the principal figures of their religion Each of these religions has its own visionary man of God or messiah extant or to come My thesis is that the key to reaching such imbued people so alienated from the rest of us is through utilization of the little we know of reaching alienated individuals and groups That knowledge has been chiefly developed in asylums by the original alienists psychiatrists also the social and political sciences and the pastoral discipline The Messianic Imperative Scourge or Savior is offered as a contribution to that study More so it is offered as a journey into unfamiliar terrain It may hopefully lead to a manual for action on the part of people worldwide alert to the current danger who wish to contribute to the world family aborning in these parlous times

The Widening Scope of Shame Melvin R. Lansky, Andrew P. Morrison, 2014-02-04 The Widening Scope of Shame is the first collection of papers on shame to appear in a decade and contains contributions from most of the major authors currently writing on this topic It is not a sourcebook but a comprehensive introduction to clinical and theoretical perspectives on shame that is intended to be read cover to cover The panoramic scope of this multidisciplinary volume is evidenced by a variety of clinically and developmentally grounded chapters by chapters explicating the theories of Silvan Tomkins and Helen Block Lewis and by chapters examining shame from the viewpoints of philosophy social theory and the study of family systems A final section of brief chapters illuminates shame in relation to specific clinical problems and experiential contexts including envy attention deficit disorder infertility masochism the medical setting and religious experience This collection will be of special interest to psychoanalytically oriented readers It begins with a chapter charting the evolution of Freud's thinking on shame followed by chapters providing contemporary perspectives on the role of shame in development and the status of shame within the theory of narcissism Of further psychoanalytic interest are two reprinted classics by Sidney Levin on shame and marital dysfunction In both depth of clinical coverage and breadth of perspectives The Widening Scope of Shame is unique in the shame literature Readable well organized and completely up to date it becomes essential reading for all students of this intriguing and unsettling emotion and of human development more generally the concept of the ego ideal the author explores the short cuts that are available to the psyche and traces the longer more painful path to maturity She develops in her own way Freud's view that people are forever seeking to regain a lost state of perfection the state in which they were their own ideal primary narcissism The book includes chapters on the following aspects of the ego ideal perversion genitality being in love groups sublimation in the creative process reality testing and the superego

Beloved Community Casey Nelson Blake, 2000-11-09 The Young American critics Randolph Bourne Van Wyck Brooks Waldo Frank and Lewis Mumford are well known as central figures in the Greenwich Village Little Renaissance of the 1910s and in the postwar debates about American culture and politics In Beloved Community Casey Blake considers these intellectuals as a coherent group and assesses the connection between their cultural criticisms and their attempts to forge a communitarian alternative to liberal and socialist politics Blake draws on biography to emphasize the intersection of questions of self culture and society in their calls for a culture of personality and self fulfillment In contrast to the tendency of previous analyses to separate these critics' cultural and autobiographical writings from their politics Blake argues that their cultural criticism grew out of a radical vision of self realization through participation in a democratic culture and polity He also examines the Young American writers' interpretations of such turn of the century radicals as William Morris Henry George John Dewey and Patrick Geddes and shows that this adversary tradition still offers important insights into contemporary issues in American politics and culture Beloved Community reestablishes the democratic content of the Young Americans' ideal of personality and argues against viewing a monolithic therapeutic culture as the sole successor to a Victorian culture of character The politics of selfhood that was so critical to the Young Americans' project has remained a contested terrain throughout the twentieth century

Sublimation and Superego Jared Russell, 2021-11-29 This book integrates thinking about dilemmas faced in the context of the clinical practice of psychoanalysis today with contemporary social and political concerns specific to the age of the global consumer marketplace Beginning with an analysis of the fate of the concept of sublimation in Freud's work and its relationship to the elaboration of the concept of the superego in 1923 Jared Russell examines how these concepts provide a lever for integrating psychoanalytic thinking with topics of urgent social concern beyond the critique of ideology Taking up topics such as the experience of time addiction to consumption and the general consequences of the insinuation of digital technologies at increasingly earlier stages in human development and thinking these through the lens of what the clinical practice of psychoanalysis teaches us about intimate human relatedness the book addresses how a philosophically oriented approach to psychoanalysis can illuminate our response to the problems of everyday life under conditions of late capitalism Drawing on a diverse range of authors such as Freud Heidegger Hans Loewald Christopher Bollas Lacan Deleuze and Bernard Stiegler it is argued that the concepts of sublimation and of the superego must be reinvented with regard to both clinical and critical discourse today if psychoanalysis is to remain relevant to the major issues we face both individually and collectively in the twenty first century Sublimation and Superego Psychoanalysis Between Two Deaths stages a unique encounter between philosophy critical theory and clinical practice that will be of interest to psychoanalysts scholars of twentieth century continental philosophy critical social theorists and mental health practitioners
