

MALAY

in 3 Weeks

*Learn Malay in 3 weeks?
Yes you can!*

This book enables you to communicate in practical everyday situations—in the market, running a household, entertaining friends or travelling.

In a series of easy lessons, each consisting of a reading passage, a list of important words, notes on grammatical usage and a translation exercise, you teach yourself how to speak and write Malay efficiently.

When you have mastered the contents of this book, you should find no difficulty in making yourself understood, nor in understanding what people say to you in the Malay language.

Scott, 2016-07-26 Through an examination of Methodist mission to Southeast Asia at the turn of the twentieth century this broad ranging book unites the history of globalization with the history of Christian mission and the history of Southeast Asia The book explores the international connections forged by the Methodist Episcopal Church s Malaysia Mission between 1885 and 1915 putting them in the context of a wave of globalization that was sweeping the world at that time including significant developments in Southeast Asia To establish intellectual connections between the study of globalization and this historical setting the book suggests six metaphors for understanding the mission Each metaphor is based on some aspect of secular globalization the Methodist connection as a migratory network mission agencies as multinational corporations the Malaysia Mission as a franchise system the Methodist Episcopal Church as a media conglomerate mission institutions as civil society organizations and Methodist mission as a global vision In chapters exploring each metaphor separately the book reviews how each form of secular globalization functions to create transnational connections before examining the details of how the Malaysia Mission functioned in a similar fashion Along the way the book investigates the lives of all involved in the mission missionaries church members of the mission and mission supporters Although Southeast Asia including the Straits Settlements Federated Malay States Sarawak and Netherlands Indies and the United States are important geographic foci for the book India China Britain Sri Lanka Sweden Germany Australia and Canada all have parts to play In exploring these metaphors the book draws on several scholarly fields including migration studies business history media studies political theory and cultural history blending them together into a social history of the mission By so doing it identifies both ways in which the effects of Christian mission paralleled other globalizing forces and unique contributions Christian mission made to turn of the twentieth century globalization

Chinese Schools in Peninsular Malaysia Ting Hui Lee, 2011 The history of modern Chinese schools in Peninsular Malaysia is a story of conflicts between Chinese domiciled there and different governments that happened or happen to rule the land Before the days of the Pacific War the British found the Chinese schools troublesome because of their pro China political activities They established measures to control them When the Japanese ruled the Malay Peninsula they closed down all the Chinese schools After the Pacific War for a decade the British sought to convert the Chinese schools into English schools The Chinese schools decoupled themselves from China and survived A Malay dominated government of independent Peninsular Malaysia allowed Chinese primary schools to continue but finally changed many Chinese secondary schools into National Type Secondary Schools using Malay as the main medium of instruction Those that remained independent along with Chinese colleges continued without government assistance The Chinese community today continues to safeguard its educational institutions to ensure they survive
