Malcolm Arnold An Introduction To His Music:

Malcolm Arnold Hugo Cole,1989 This study of Malcolm Arnold puts the composer into perspective and covers almost all his compositions including lesser known occasional pieces film and ballet music vocal and orchestral works The author argues that one must examine all aspects of his work in order to appreciate his character The Life and Music of Sir Malcolm Arnold Paul R.W. Jackson,2019-07-15 First published in 2003 All of my music is biographical declared Sir Malcolm Arnold in an interview in 1991 Arnold s turbulent life has permeated his music to a greater degree than probably any other British composer as Paul Jackson reveals in this illuminating account Interweaving biographical details with close analyses of Arnold s major works particularly the nine symphonies and drawing on sketch materials never previously examined Jackson provides fascinating insights into Arnold s compositional process and the ideas informing works such as the John Field Fantasy and the 7th Symphony Extensive interviews with Arnold himself as well as with his family friends and colleagues add further perspectives on his relationships with fellow composers and musicians publishers critics and family A combination of joie de vivre and periods of depression and personal tragedy Arnold s life has mirrored his music in its combination of seemingly disparate elements that make a compelling whole Malcolm Arnold Stewart R. Craggs,1998-09-24 Malcolm Arnold s music encompassed a variety of forms from opera and ballet through orchestral and chamber music to film scores His most famous film score for which he won an Oscar award in 1957 is The Bridge on the River Kwai In 1953 he was commissioned to compose Homage to the Queen a ballet to celebrate the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II Arnold was knighted by the Queen in 1993 in honor of his contributions to English music As with the other volumes in the Greenwood Bio Bibliographies in Music series this work includes a brief biography discography complete list of works and performances and an annotated bibliography Music scholars musicians and those with an interest in the music of Malcolm Arnold will appreciate the extensive information gathered in this one volume Since Malcolm Arnold has retired from composing this book features the most complete list of his compositions including some of his newly discovered early works The works are listed alphabetically within genre The author also provides a chronological listing of the works through which trends and developments in Arnold s compositions may be traced Sir Malcolm Arnold s input with the project assures the accuracy and completeness of this bio bibliography The Modern Brass Ensemble in Twentieth-century Britain John Miller,2022 The first study of the performance practice repertoire and context of the modern brass ensemble in the musical world Whereas the British brass band originated in the nineteenth century and rapidly developed into a nationwide working class movement the perceived modern brass ensemble has a less clear foundation and identity This book is the first to focus exclusively on the performance practice repertoire and context of the brass ensemble in the musical world Following World War II the brass quintet and other orchestral groupings emerged in the United States and Europe with musical customs established by professional players playing orchestral instruments These groups initially played a combination of the music of Gabrieli and his contemporaries as well as newly commissioned works By the late twentieth century however repertory spanned works by Elliott Carter Maxwell Davies and Lutoslawski together with music that integrated jazz commercial elements and landmark transcriptions At the book's heart is the story of the London based internationally acclaimed Philip Jones Brass Ensemble But this is not a story of one ensemble as the brass ensemble can be defined in several forms The Modern Brass Ensemble in Twentieth Century Britain offers a comprehensive account by an author and performer who was involved in many of the key developments of the modern brass ensemble At the book's heart is the story of the London based internationally acclaimed Philip Jones Brass Ensemble But this is not a story of one ensemble as the brass ensemble can be defined in several forms The Modern Brass Ensemble in Twentieth Century Britain offers a comprehensive account by an author and performer who was involved in many of the key developments of the modern brass ensemble At the book's heart is the story of the London based internationally acclaimed Philip Jones Brass Ensemble But this is not a story of one ensemble as the brass ensemble can be defined in several forms The Modern Brass Ensemble in Twentieth Century Britain offers a comprehensive account by an author and performer who was involved in many of the key developments of the modern brass ensemble

Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who

Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain s two highest awards for civilian bravery Beyond the Epic Gene D. Phillips,2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908 1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean s body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director s life and career Phillips also explores Lean s lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson s Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean s approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean s successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature s greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean s ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean s epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director s body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director s artistic process and his place in the film industry British Musical Modernism Philip Rupprecht,2015-07-09 British Musical Modernism explores the works of eleven key composers to reveal the rapid shifts of expression and technique that transformed British art music in the post war period Responding to radical avant garde developments in post war Europe the Manchester Group composers Alexander Goehr Peter Maxwell Davies and Harrison Birtwistle and their contemporaries assimilated the serial structuralist preoccupations of mid century internationalism to an art grounded in resurgent local traditions In close readings of some thirty five scores Philip Rupprecht traces a modernism suffused with the formal elegance of the 1950s the exuberant theatricality of the 1960s and in the works of David Bedford and Tim Souster the pop minimalist and live electronic directions of the early 1970s Setting music analytic insights against a broader social historical backdrop Rupprecht traces a British musical modernism that was at once a collective artistic endeavor and a sounding myth of national identity Dennis Brain Stephen Gamble,William C. Lynch,2011

The British horn player Dennis Brain 1921 1957 is commonly described by such statements as the greatest horn player of the 20th Century a genius and a legend He was both a prodigy and popularizer famously performing a concerto on a garden hose in perfect pitch On his usual concert instrument his tone was of unsurpassed beauty and clarity complemented by a flawless technique The recordings he made with Herbert von Karajan of Mozart's horn concerti are considered the definitive interpretations Brain enlisted in the English armed forces during World War II for seven years joining the National Symphony Orchestra in wartime in 1942 After the war he filled the principal horn positions in both the Philharmonia and Royal Philharmonic Orchestras He later formed his own wind quintet and began conducting Composers including Benjamin Britten and Paul Hindemith lined up to write music for him Even fifty years after his tragic death at the age of 36 in an auto accident in 1957 Peter Maxwell Davies was commissioned to write a piece in his honor Stephen Gamble and William Lynch have conducted numerous interviews with family friends and colleagues and uncovered information in the BBC archives and other lesser known sources about recordings that were previously unknown This volume describes Brain's life and analyzes in depth his musical career Its appendices of information on performances will appeal to music historians and its details on Brain's instruments and equipment will be useful to horn players The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians: Aristoxenus to Bax Stanley Sadie, 2001

David Lean Kevin Brownlow, 1996-08-15 The life and its biographer provide a landmark work on the cinema Emerging from a childhood of nearly Dickensian darkness David Lean found his great success as a director of the appropriately titled Great Expectations There followed his legendary black and white films of the 1940s and his four film movie collaboration with Noel Coward Lean's 1955 film Summertime took him from England to the world of international moviemaking and the stunning series of spectacular color epics that would gain for his work twenty seven Academy Awards and fifty six Academy Award nominations All are classics including The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago and A Passage to India Kevin Brownlow a film editor in his own right and author of the seminal silent film trilogy initiated with The Parade's Gone By brings to Lean's biography an exhaustive knowledge of the art and the industry One learns about the making of movies as realized by a master but also of the highly personal costs of genius The troubled Quaker family from which Lean came influenced his relationship with his son his brother and his six wives Yet he showed in his work a deep understanding of humanity The vastness of this scholarly and entertaining enterprise is augmented by sixteen pages of scenes from Lean's color films thirty two pages from his black and white movies and throughout the text a vast number of photographs from his life and location work A Dictionary-catalog of Modern British Composers: A-C Alan J. Poulton, 2000 This catalog of works organized alphabetically by composer details the compositions of fifty four modern British composers born between 1891 and 1923 Volume one covers composers from John Addison to Arnold Cooke Compositions are listed chronologically and include pertinent information about the performance year of composition music history first recordings and original manuscript location Concert music is listed separately from documentary and feature films and from music composed for radio television or stage As a tool for further research this catalog will appeal to soloists chamber musicians and orchestral players as well as to scholars of classical music A selective bibliography is included for each composer Each volume includes a title index organized by composer David Lean Lydia Goehr, 2025-07-10 David Lean's extraordinary films work philosophically through the modern reproductive and transportive technologies of sight and sound through trains planes ships and automobiles from one perspective and through the modern technology of the radio and gramophone from another Lean's musical motifs are known worldwide Lara's theme in Zhivago the Colonel Bogey March in Kwai Estella's motif in Great Expectations Rosy's motif in Ryan's Daughter Lawrence's motif for his adventure in Arabia and of course Rachmaninoff's pounding chords in Brief Encounter When however Lean described his cutting of pictures as akin to how music flows through pictures what sort of music or musicality had he in mind a classical or popular music or a way of using musical form to mix up the meaning and material of his films Lydia Goehr's new book tracks the soundscape in Lean's films not only through the musical scores composed for the films but also and more through the technology of radio and gramophone that at the start of Lean's career were becoming indispensable household items for the home The book begins and ends with a motif running from the early more domestic films locally situated in the English home to the later more extensive epics of colony commonwealth and empire The fidelity infidelity relationship defined by marriage extends to the loyalty betrayal relationship regarding countries of war and peace after which this relationship is extended to the witty British manner of making film as a perfected and not so perfected symphonic work of a great cutter's art Here as few other books on Lean have emphasized the influence of Noel Coward on Lean cannot be overestimated The Rough Guide to Classical Music Joe Staines, 2010-05-17 This expanded and completely revised fifth edition is a unique ebook spanning a thousand years of music from Gregorian chant via Bach and Beethoven to current leading lights such as Thomas Adès and Kaija Saariaho There are concise biographical profiles of more than 200 composers and informative summaries of the major compositions in all genres from chamber works to operatic epics Topics such as the influence of jazz notation conducting the madrigal and why Stradivarius made such great violins are covered fully in feature boxes The Rough Guide to Classical Music in a new ebook PDF format has been praised for its mix of well known composers with more obscure but interesting figures like Antoine Brumel and Barbara Strozzi and for the way it takes contemporary music seriously The New Elizabethan Age Irene Morra, Rob Gossedge, 2016-09-30 In the first half of the twentieth century many writers and artists turned to the art and received example of the Elizabethans as a means of articulating an emphatic and anti Victorian modernity By the middle of that century this cultural neo Elizabethanism had become absorbed within a broader mainstream discourse of national identity heritage and cultural performance Taking strength from the Coronation of a new young Queen named Elizabeth the New Elizabethanism of the 1950s heralded a nation that would now see its modern televised monarch preside over an imminently glorious and artistic age This book provides the first in depth investigation of New

Elizabethan and its legacy With contributions from leading cultural practitioners and scholars its essays explore New Elizabethanism as variously manifested in ballet and opera the Coronation broadcast and festivities national historiography and myth the idea of the Young Elizabethan celebrations of air travel and new technologies and the New Shakespeareanism of theatre and television As these essays expose New Elizabethanism was much more than a brief moment of optimistic hyperbole Indeed from modern drama and film to the reinvention of Richard III from the London Olympics to the funeral of Margaret Thatcher it continues to pervade contemporary artistic expression politics and key moments of national pageantry

Raymond Leppard on Music Raymond Leppard, 1993 British Film Music and Film Musicals K. Donnelly, 2007-08-16
