The Malling of America William Severini Kowinski,1985 An inside view of shopping malls in America The McDonaldization of Society 6 George Ritzer,2011 As one of the most noteworthy and popular sociology books of all time The McDonaldization of Society 6 demonstrates the power of the sociological imagination to 21st century undergraduates in a way that few other books have This engaging work of social criticism is praised for sparking debate in and out of the classroom and for allowing students to read in depth on a small number of fascinating topics and it vividly demonstrates the relevance of Weber s discussion of rationalization the basis of McDonaldization to the everyday life of today s student New and Retained Features Links a large number of social phenomena to McDonaldization some which are directly impacted by the principles of the fast food chain and others where the effect is more tenuous A new final chapter 10 on The DeMcDonaldization of Society examines the processes of deMcDonaldization and concludes that while it is occurring on the surface McDonaldization is alive and well for example in the structures that underlie Web 2 0 Many new and updated examples are from the digital world keeping the text ultimately relevant for the contemporary student reader Addresses the advantages of McDonaldization then focuses on the problems and dangers it poses and looks at efforts to deal with those challenges Examines the link between McDonaldization and globalization Challenges the reader to rethink McDonaldization as part of the structure of society and to act to reverse the trend towards it Brave New Neighborhoods Margaret Kohn,2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Culture, Capitalism, and Democracy in the New America Richard Harvey Brown,2008-10-01 The United States is in transit from an industrial to a postindustrial society from a modern to postmodern culture and from a national to a global economy In this book Richard Harvey Brown asks how we can distinguish the uniquely American elements of these changes from more global influences His answer focuses on the ways in which economic imperatives give shape to the shifting experience of being American Drawing on a wide knowledge of American history and literature the latest social science and contemporary social issues Brown investigates continuity and change in American race relations politics religion conception of selfhood families and the arts He paints a vivid picture of contemporary America showing how postmodernism is perceived and felt by individuals and focusing attention on the strengths and limitations of American democracy Gardens and the Passion for the Infinite Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2013-06-29 What essentially is a garden Is it a small plot of land that we put aside to cultivate our favourite vegetables or to grow flowers for our personal enjoyment Or is it a symbol a mirror a reflection of our human passions Within the context of phenomenology onto-poiesis of life we find the significance of the garden inscribed within the web of the Human Condition creatively unfurling its form from the vital basis to its loftiest swings of the period The aesthetic synthesis of our passions is carried by the logocic promise of life its infinite renewal and infinite response The topic of the present volume is the mysterious ways in which Imaginatio Creatrix plays within the human ingrownness in natural life transposing dreams nostalgias and enchantments Barbed Wire Patrick Brantlinger,2017-11-22 A call to transform the way we think about property this book examines how capitalism has from its origins sought to enclose or privatize the commons or land and other forms of property that had been viewed as communally owned and argues that neoliberal economic policies and the corporate takeovers of urban spaces prisons schools the mass media farms and natural resources have failed to serve the public interest A study of corporate globalization and the continuation of empire after the era of political decolonization it begins with the fencing of the West starting in the 1870s and moves to examine recent phenomena such as urbanization mass incarceration financialization and the treatment of people as commodities in the context of the longue dur e of land enclosures empire and capitalism Highlighting the threatened elimination of the public domain as a result of corporate efforts to privatize public utilities prisons schools forests seeds and just about everything else that can yield a profit Barbed Wire Capitalism and the Enclosure of the Commons asks what it would mean if instead of either private or public property our most fundamental conception of property were communal Would a redefinition of property from a community perspective lead us beyond the military industrial complex Subjectivity, the Unconscious and Consumerism Marlon Xavier,2018-09-17 Subjectivity the Unconscious and Consumerism is a unique and imaginative psycho sociological exploration of how postmodern contemporary consumerism invades and colonises human subjectivity Investigating especially consumerism s unconscious aspects such as desires imagination and fantasy it engages with an extensive analysis of dreams The author frames these using a synthesis of Jungian psychology and the social imaginaries of Baudrillard and Bauman in a dialogue with the theories of McDonaldization and Disneyization The aim is to broaden our understanding of consumerism to include the perennial consumption of symbols and signs of identity a process which is the basis for the fabrication of the commodified self The book offers a profound innovative critique of our consumption societies challenging readers to rethink how we live and how our identities are impacted by consumerism As such it will be of interest to students and scholars of critical psychology psychoanalysis sociology anthropology and cultural studies but is also accessible to anyone interested in the complex psychology of contemporary subjectivity The McDonaldization of Society 5 George Ritzer,2008 This book has been a fabulous success with students because it combines elements of critical social theory readability and popular culture Charles Frederick Jr Indiana University One of the most noteworthy and popular sociology books of all time The McDonaldization of Society demonstrates the power of the sociological imagination to today s readers in a way that few books have been able to do Key Features of the new edition brand new chapter examining the Starbucks phenomenon and its relationship to McDonaldization updated examples of McDonaldization including online dating services e g match com Viagra MDMA ecstasy text messaging Ikea and megachurches an increased focus on globalization including an examination into the relationship between McDonaldization and the environment Reluctant Capitalists Laura J. Miller,2008-09-15 Over the past half century bookselling like many retail industries has evolved from an arena dominated by independent bookstores to one in which chain stores have significant market share And as in other areas of retail this transformation has often been a less than smooth process This has been especially pronounced in bookselling argues Laura J Miller because more than most other consumer goods books are the focus of passionate debate What drives that debate And why do so many people believe that bookselling should be immune to questions of profit In Reluctant Capitalists Miller looks at a century of book retailing demonstrating that the independent chain dynamic is not entirely new It began one hundred years ago when department stores began selling books continued through the 1960s with the emergence of national chain stores and exploded with the formation of superstores in the 1990s The advent of the Internet has further spurred tremendous changes in how booksellers approach their business All of these changes have met resistance from book professionals and readers who believe that the book business should somehow be above market forces and instead embrace more noble priorities Miller uses interviews with bookstore customers and members of the book industry to explain why books evoke such distinct and heated reactions She reveals why customers have such fierce loyalty to certain bookstores and why they identify so strongly with different types of books In the process she also teases out the meanings of retailing and consumption in American culture at large underscoring her point that any type of consumer behavior is inevitably political with consequences for communities as well as commercial institutions

Entertaining Fear Catherine Chapat, Mary Jean Braun, Danika Margo Brown, 2010 At the heart of how citizens governments and the media interact is the communication process a process that is undergoing tremendous change Never has there been a time when confronting the complexity of these evolving relationships has been so important to the maintenance of civil society This series seeks books that advance the understanding of this process from multiple perspectives and as it occurs in both institutionalized and non institutionalized political settings

American Tabloid Media and the Satanic Panic, 1970-2000 Sarah A. Hughes, 2021-10-27 This book examines the satanic panic of the 1980s as an essential part of the growing relationship between tabloid media and American conservative politics in the 1980s It argues that widespread fears of Satanism in a range of cultural institutions was indispensable to the development and success of both infotainment or tabloid content on television and the rise of the New Right a conservative political movement that was heavily guided by a growing coalition of influential televangelists or evangelical preachers on television It takes as its particular focus the hundreds of accusations that devil worshippers were operating America's white middle class suburban daycare centers Dozens of communities around the country became embroiled in trials against center owners the most publicized of which was the McMartin Preschool trial in Manhattan Beach California It remains the longest and most expensive criminal trial in the nation's history freedom culture jamming alternative journalism and resistance to authoritarian forms of consumer capitalism and globalization In The Empire of Mind Dr Strangelove the scholar Canadian Business referred to as the acknowledged dean of Internet entrepreneurs and Wired called the Canadian guru of Internet advertising presents the compelling argument that the Internet and new digital communication technology actually undermine the power of capital producing an alternative symbolic economy Strangelove contends that the Internet breaks with the capitalist logic of commodification and that while television produces a passive consumer audience Internet audiences are more active creative and subversive Writers activists and artists on the Internet undermine commercial media and its management of consumer behaviour a behaviour that is challenged by the Web's tendency toward the disintegration of intellectual property rights Case studies describe the invention of new meaning given to cultural and consumer icons like Barbie and McDonald's and explore how novel modes of online news production alter the representation of the world as it is produced by the mainstream corporate press In the course of exploring new media The Empire of Mind also makes apparent that digital piracy will not be eliminated The Internet community effectively converts private property into public thereby presenting serious obstacles for the management of consumer behaviour and significantly eroding brand value Much to the dismay of the corporate sector online communities are disinterested in the ethics of private property In fact the entire philosophical framework on which capitalism is based is threatened by these alternative means of cultural production
